signed and gone to his home in Springfield, Mass. He expects to do work for his doctor's degree in some eastern school.

Professor Fossler is just completing the rebuilding of his home at 1545 So. 17th st. The building has been generally remodeled, new hard wood floors being laid and a porch constructed on the front.

Miss Clara Watkins has gone to Madison, Wis., to spend the winter with an aunt, and her Delta Gamma sisters in the University of Wisconsin. Before returning to Lincoln she will go to Minneapolis.

For many years other dealers have wondered why so many students found their way to Paine's Clothing store. Nothing strange about it. The kind of goods put out, the manner of doing business, the report handed down from one class to another explains it.

Net C. Abbot, '98, and Miss Lillian Newbranch, '99, were married last June at the home of the bride in Lincoln. They left early in July for Manila where they both have appointments as teachers in the insular schools. Before sailing they spent some time visiting points of interest on the Pacific coast.
