Football Rally
This Morning 10 o'clock
UNIVERSITY CHAPEL
Everyone Come Out

MASS MEETING

The first football mass meeting was held in chapel yesterday morning. The meeting was held for the purpose of disseminating information about the contest to Minneapolis. Professor Wyer in behalf of the athletic board explained the contract the board had entered into with the Rock Island and urged the students to help the board fulfill the contract. He explained that tickets to the football field were on sale at the library and should be purchased before Thursday. A section of bleacher seats will be reserved for the Nebraska delegation. All Nebraskans were urged to join the Nebraska crowd.

Professor Wyer opened his remarks with an apt parody on a popular quotation. Count that day lost whose low descending sun views from the railroad roads no sharp rate-cutting done.

HANDICAP TRACK MEET

A handicap track meet will be held within the next two or three weeks. This will take the place of the freshman-sophomore contest of former years. Instead of the meet being open only to members of the lower classes it is now free to any student in the University. In order to make the contest an even one between old and new undergraduates and those having records will be handicapped.

The contest will be held at the start at 10 o'clock. The events will be: 100-yard dash, 120-yard hurdles, pole vault, running high jump, running broad jump, hammer throw, shot put, high jump, cross country run.

Entries must be made by Friday, October 18. All contests will be under a physical examination. The winners of each event will receive a prize.

If you have any questions about the strategy of the game you would not endeavor to dominate all the points of your system, a second place. As he knew that he would not be eligible for the most football he would know better than to vaunt the prowess of a team which before the Nebraska last year was practically unknown. Though Puffed up with the vanity and self-importance of the great importance of a team which is yet in its embryonic stage this be his fate, his fate is to be becoming distressingly sickening to those who have seen high class football.

The appearance on the campus of five men wearing Minnesota colors was the occasion of a small demonstration this day. The men who were undergoing initiation into Sigma Alpha Epsilon were all freshmen and the maroon and gold was a part of the initiatory tests. Their appearance on the campus was something of a stir among . . . students. A mob of about thirty at once formed and re- paired to mechanical arts hall where one of the initiates, Bud Hatcher, had a class. He was called from the class room and ordered to take off the colors. He refused to do so, saying that they had been placed there by his fraternity and there they would stay until they were forcibly removed. At this the crowd grabbed the colors and cut them into bits and distributed the remains as souvenirs. The initiate was allowed to return to his class.

The Chicago Tribune for October 7 says that Nebraska has entered a protest against Rodgers, the ex-captain of the Yale team, who is now coach ing the hair for the Gophers. Rodgers played five years on the Carillie team. This makes him ineligible, for Minnesota again according to the rules adopted by the "Big Nine." Even had Rodgers not played five years, he would still be ineligible, for a man who has played in one college cannot play in another until he has been one year resident of the place to which he has gone.

The men's gymnastic classes have begun light apparatus work.

Lincoln Vanity.

Those who have read the football columns of the Journal lately have noticed with considerable interest and sympathy the puere trash which has been sent up from Lincoln for publication regarding the football situation there. In the first place if the person who writes this stuff knew anything about the strategy of the game he would not endeavor to dominate all the points of his system, a second place. As he knew that he would not be eligible for the most football he would know better than to vaunt the prowess of a team which before the Nebraska last year was practically unknown. Though Puffed up with the vanity and self-importance of the great importance of a team which is yet in its embryonic stage this be his fate, his fate is to be becoming distressingly sickening to those who have seen high class football.

We are always glad to hear news of any kind concerning our friends at Lincoln, but we desire to register a protest against "stuff" of this kind—Daily.

ROCK ISLAND QUITS THE FIGHT

Contest Over the Minneapolis Rate at an End—Rate Goes Down to Three Dollars

An Immense Crowd the Result of the Cut—Team Leaves Today for Minneapolis Final Practice Encouraging the Probable Line-up.

The railroad fight is over. Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Rock Island officials announced that they were out of the contest as far as special rates to Minnesota are concerned. The Northwestern at once took steps to handle the whole crowd. The rate of $3 for the round trip will be maintained as before. The train that road will leave Lincoln at 6:30 Friday evening and will arrive at Minneapolis in time for breakfast Saturday morning. Pullman sleepers will be added at Missouri Valley. Dum- blebords in these will cost $1 extra. The return trip will begin at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. The train will arrive home about 8 o'clock in the evening.

Every effort is being made by the officials of the Northwestern to hand the fight over as quickly and as satisfac- torily as possible. Thirty day coaches have been ordered to Lincoln and ten sleepers will be sent to Minnesota Students to be attached to the train there. Tickets will be sold today at the downtown ticket office and at the depot.

The Northwestern officials explain that being the shortest route to Min- neapolis they were forced into the fight to protect their interests and having entered they had gone in to stay. In the administration of the Rock Island has released the athletic board from all their obligations to that road. The team will leave today over the North- western.

Yesterday was a busy day at the ticket offices. The evidence points to a crowd numbering in the thousands. Last evening the Northwestern ticket office was crowded with people who were inquiring about rates and time limits. It is the intention of the road to handle the excursions in a way that will be perfectly satisfactory to all who go.

At the chapel mass meeting this morning the details of the arrange- ments as far as made were ex- plained.

Practice for the Minnesota Nebras- ka game is over. The Varsity squad has tramped its native breath for the last time before meeting the giants of the north. At 11:0 the Northwestern bears the Nebraskan eleven toward the battle-field.

The practice last afternoon was the best that has been on the field for several weeks. The men played with a business-like air—flying interfer- ence that would have been a sin a year ago, and opening the scrum like a battering ram would breach a picket fence. It brought the vim of the stories into being, and the ability of the side was well shown. The scrum bleeders and yell's of pride and admiration were the result. There were many pleasant surprises. Should played a turn at half. Ringer was back at guard for the first time in two weeks. Ryan will be out until next week. Stringer and Bell did some fine punting. The routers yelled compli- ments to each individual on the team and Coaches Melford and Booth.

The line-up for the game Saturday will probably be:

Winger: T. O., Bell, R. G.

The intention is to use Shedd, Kingsley and Pilsbury at backs during the first half and into the second. The number of grown plants is almost nothing, but the greater space to take up by cuttings and seedlings. All the cuttings from this year's would have been planted, which
