IOWA MINNESOTA.
Iowa put up a plucky game against the Gophers but was hopelessly outweighed. A crowd of eleven thousand people witnessed the defeat of the Hawkeye team by a score of 16 to 0. Minnesota made her gains by mass formations. Iowa played a special game. One of the sensational features of the game was a sixty yard run for a touch down by Lafans. Clyde Williams of the Iowa team was ruled out of the game for professionalism. His case will be taken up by the conference committee of the big nine. The Iowa team was accompanied by 1,200 rooters.

KANSAS-WISCONSIN.
Kansas was easily defeated by Wisconsin Saturday by a score of 50 to 0. The Jay Hawks were unable to put up any kind of a fight against their opponents that was effective. The only effective play that they made was their tandem formation with guards and tackles back. The Wisconsin team averaged 178 pounds in weight while the Kasas averaged 168.

SECRET PRACTICE THIS WEEK.
There will be secret practice this week for the first half. Gates will be opened when public will be admitted. Minnesota had some trouble with students about observing this courtesy. Every student should keep away and aid in keeping others away.

THE TENNIS TOURNAMENT.
The tennis association has inaugurated a local tennis tournament to be played on the university grounds. The tournament is open to all students. The games began on Friday and were to have been finished Saturday, but owing to the muddy condition of the grounds the finals were postponed until today. Two valuable prizes will be given to the two players making the best showing.

There were some good exhibitions of tennis in the games Friday. Bradshaw and Baird played a fast and fierce game. They both played a back court game, but frequently took to the net. They are both safe and sure players. When the play was called on account of darkness each one had set to his credit. They will finish the contest today.

Roth and Peterson also played a good game. Roth beat Tynor by scores of 6-1, 6-4 and 7-5. The game was a fast one though the scores do not show it. Huse beat Swallow in two easy sets.

A tennis meet with Kansas is a probability this week. An offer has been made and if satisfactory arrangements can be made, Nebraska will send a team to Lawrence, the latter part of the week.
