G. A. LOVELAND,
Section Director.

Arrangements have been made by Professor Kimball to organize a University Symphony Orchestra. It was to have met Wednesday evening for the first time but the storm prevented the meeting.

Miss Virginia Athen left for Wyoming last Saturday. Miss Athen's sister who was teaching there had suddenly been taken sick and sent for Miss Athen to take charge of her school during her illness.

The class in German 4a, which has been preparing their lessons without a dictionary, had an examination this morning which will show whether this method is profitable or not.

Clyde H. Barnard, formerly a student at the University, now secretary of the state horticultural society, called at the department of botany to consult with Mr. O'Gara who is studying diseases of fruit trees.

The students in Systematic Botany find that there are thirty three different kinds of trees now growing on the campus. They are to be distinctly labeled as soon as the Department of Horticulture can secured proper labels.

The Eleventh Hour club met Saturday evening with Misses Bessie Brown and Laura Buchanan. Refreshments were served including roasted marsh mallow. Miss Buchanan rendered several violin solos, which were highly appreciated. Miss Brown told the young ladies' fortunes and a very pleasant evening was spent. The club adjourned about 11:30.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NOTICE TO SENIORS IN INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE.

I wish to confer with every senior with reference to his University credits. Please bring your "credit books" to the Dean's Office, Room 104, University Hall, and see me if possible between 11:30 and 12 o'clock any morning within the next week. In case you cannot come at this hour, leave your "credit book" with the Recorder.

CHARLES E. BESSEY,
Dean.

ADVANCED CREDITS.

All students whose credits have not been satisfactorily adjusted or who may have advanced credit from high schools and academies should consult the University examiner as soon as convenient. Office hours, 11:30 to 12:30, in Dean's room, U. 104.
