THE LINCOLN BOOK STORE, 1126 O Street.

Alpha Tau Omega have pledged Roy Caldwell of Lincoln.

Miss Rachael Nicholson has been pledged to Delta Delta Delta.

A. C. Fling, '94, has a long article in the "Conservative" on "The High School Course of Study."

The date of the Messiah recital has been changed to Friday on account of the appearance of Nordica in the city Thursday night.

Miss C. naut, who has recently returned from Paris, is giving an exhibition of her work in water colors at Bass' Studio, 1026 O street. Art students and all art lovers are invited to inspect her pictures.

The Geological photographs pertaining to the Morrill Geological expeditions as well as to the state geological survey, several thousand in number, have all been arranged systematically and catalogued by Miss Helen Redford.

According to one of the upper classmen, several freshmen and sophomores this year as usual, have shown their ignorance of the University traditions, by "swiping" senior caps. The seniors claim that the precedent of former years has always been that only members of the junior class could legitimately enjoy this "sacred" privilege.

New books are constantly being added to the Law Library.

John P. Cameron, '97, of Tekamah, visited at the University yesterday.

The examinations in Pleading under Professor C. A. Robbins will indicate whether the individual practice will be delayed or not.

For the Senior Laws who will finish the course this semester, Attorney Hatfield will convene his moot court in the college to familiarize the students with its mechanism.

The government of the Omaha High school is largely in the hands of the students. Not long since two or three boys were accused of stealing bicycles from the racks around the building. They were summoned before a council of students tried and found guilty. The council recommended a course of punishment which was carried out by faculty.

Word has been received at the University of the death of Professor Thomas Meehan, a well known botanist and horticulturist of Germantown, Pennsylvania. Professor Bessey was well acquainted with him, and for many years has kept up a correspondence with him on botanical subjects. At the time of his death he was about publishing a paper on certain peculiarities of the growth. Professor Bessey had supplied him with many observations in the west.

ANOTHER TOURIST EXCURSION TO CALIFORNIA.

To accommodate the increasing travel to California, the Burlington Route has added to its service another weekly excursion, in tourist cars, personally conducted.

The Burlington's through car service to California is as follows:
 STANDARD SLEEPERS—daily, Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings and Oxford to San Francisco, connecting at latter city with fast train for Los Angeles.
 TOURIST SLEEPERS—personally conducted—every Thursday and Saturday, Omaha, Lincoln, Fairmont, Hastings and Holdrege to San Francisco every Wednesday and Thursday, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Wymore, Superior and Oxford to San Francisco and Los Angeles.

All these cars run via Denver and Salt Lake City, passing the grand panorama of the Rockies by daylight. If you're going to California, you will be interested in our new 40-page folder, "California Tours—1901-'02." It is free.
