WILSON URGES PEOPLE TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

days that are to try men's souls. We must be impartial in thought as well as in action, must put a curb upon our sentiments as well as upon every transaction that might be construed as a preference of one party to the struggle before another. My thought is of America. I am speaking, I feel sure, the earnest wish and purpose of every thoughtful American that this great country of ours, which is, of course, the first in our thoughts and in our hearts, should show herself in this time of peculiar trial a nation fit beyond others to exhibit the fine poise of undisturbed judgment, the dignity of self-control, the efficiency of dispassionate action; a nation that neither sits in judgment upon others nor is disturbed in her own counsels, and which keeps herself fit and free to do what is honest and disinterested and truly serviceable for the peace of the world.
"Shall we not resolve to put upon ourselves the restraint which will bring to our people the happiness and the great lasting influence for peace we covet for them?"

Obituary Notice.
The Daily Nebraskan has the sad duty to perform of announcing to the student public that on Wednesday, September 16th, twenty-nine of the newly enrolled students were found dead. No amount of friendly effort on the part of Nebraskan solicitors could save these fellow students. Though given repeated opportunities to save themselves, they persisted in their determination to place themselves on the list of the "dead ones." We take this opportunity of warning any now exposed to the same sad fate that a few pages of the Nebraskan taken daily is a positive cure for all the ills to which a student is exposed and is a delightful and harmless remedy. Recommended by Dean Engberg, Chancellor Avery and Frank Perkins. Said cure can be procured at Station A, the Uni postoffice, for the small price of $1.00. The uncertainty in the production of the ingredients contained therein, due to the European war and some other causes, makes it necessary to increase the price of the Daily Nebraskan to $1.25 after the first of October. In order not to be without this household necessity, see some of our agents about the campus and obtain the "dollar prescription for all student ills."—Advertisement.

LARGE NUMBER OF ADVISERS APPOINTED

The Freshmen Will Be Well Taken Care of This Year—Chancellor Avery Kept Busy.

A large staff of professors have been appointed as faculty advisers to freshmen this year instead of the usual small number. These advisers are:

Professors J. E. Alexis, E. A. Aylsworth, G. E. Barber, E. H. Barbour, F. D. Barker, N. A. Beggs, C. E. Bessey, W. C. Brenke, H. W. Caldwell, A. L. Candy, Clara Conklin, E. M. Fling, M. M. Fogg, Mary Fossler, E. L. Hinman, Alice Howell, Alice Hunter, G. Jones, J. T. Lees, R. A. Lyman, O. R. Martin, Laura B. Pfeiffer, R. J. Pool, A. A. Reed, Elizabeth Rees, F. W. Sanford, A. D. Schrag, R. D. Scott, G. A. Stephens, E. A. Stuff, G. O. Virtue, Elda R. Walker and R. H. Wolcott.

In connection with registration, the chancellor's office is being besieged with the usual number of requests from students who wish to be excused from drill. This is an annual event, but it is being played stronger than ever this year, apparently on account of the trying situation abroad. The most common excuse seems to be that drill interferes with "my religious scruples." It's them and the commandant for it; so we have nothing to say.
