

You've noticed how many more British shoes you see this fall than ever before.

Because they are the very strongest shoe-style for this season.

Better have a pair and keep in line. Those smartest ones you see around town come from this shop --$3, $3.50, $4, and $5.

Blanche Higgins of Shubert, who attended the University last year and was a member of the Delta Zeta sorority, is teaching school in her home town this year.

Learn to Canter, Half and Half, Maxixe. Lincoln Dancing Academy, L-5477.

Miss Marguerite Burke, '09, who is now teaching in Omaha, was a campus visitor yesterday. Miss Burke was a prominent member of the Black Masque society while in school.

A large number of girls attended the first of Miss Graham's afternoon teas, Thursday afternoon, in the Art Gallery. Miss Graham was assisted in serving by a number of the Junior advisors.

The losing team, the Reds, in the Girls' Club and Y. W. C. A. campaign for members will give a spread for the winning team this noon in Faculty Hall. Just the teams are included in this spread.

Private Uni Dancing Class, Saturday afternoon. Lincoln Dancing Academy, L-5477.

The Black Masques will decorate the girls' section for the football game Saturday afternoon. Every girl is requested to wear something red, or white, or both, to represent the University colors, and make this section a thing of beauty.

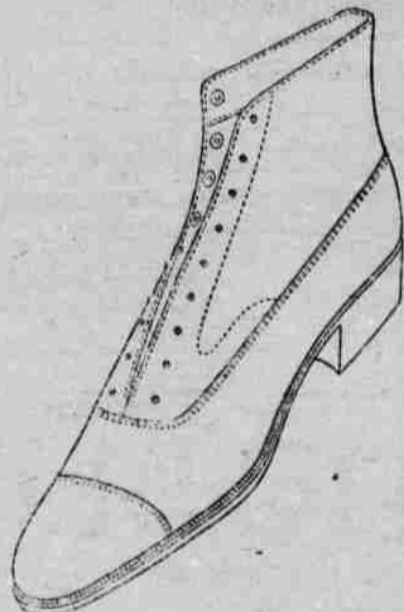

A large number of girls dropped into Art Hall yesterday for the informal tea. Miss Graham was assisted by the Junior advisors. Miss Mary Murphey and Miss Caroline Funke presided at the tea table. This tea was the first of a series to be held to promote a better acquaintance among University women. The second tea will be held on next Thursday afternoon.

Lack of speed is the coaches' problem. "More speed in the back field and more speed in the line is what we're after this year," said Williams when questioned regarding this season's football team. A big reserve squad is at work numbering almost one hundred men.—Iowa State.

Men's Shoes

The New Flat Last

The smart styles preferred by good dressers this season
No. 5406—A light weight dull calf shoe, with black melton cloth tops, calf eyelet stays, blind eyelets, 3-4-inch broad low heels, medium narrow toes, flat last—exceptional for $6.00.

No. 5130—Tan Russia Calf shoe on custom last, with heavy single soles, 1 1/8-inch square heels, blind eyelets, small round lacers, and English back stay. Great value for $6.00.

These shoes are for men who appreciate quality and are not satisfied with cheap poorly made shoes. We can fit you.

TWO POINTS TO CONSIDER

First—Commercial branches will be of great service to you, no matter what career you have marked out for yourself.

Second—Your best opportunity to get these commercial branches will be to spend some of your spare time in our school. (Hours can be arranged to suit your Uni. schedule.)

NEW ENGINEERS GET ACQUAINTED

Hold Introductory Meeting Wednesday Night in M. E. Building—Dean Stout Spoke.

A special meeting of all branches of the Engineering Society was held last night in Mechanical Engineering Building. It was a kind of get together affair, being held principally to acquaint new members with the purpose and workings of the society. Dean Stout presided. Each branch of the society, mechanical, civil, electrical, agricultural and architectural engineers, were represented with a speaker. Freshmen roll was called.

Michigan at Work.

"Hurry Up" Yost, at Michigan, started his men at scrimmage work last week. Several backfield men of promising ability were uncovered. Last year the Michigan Aggies divided football honors with Chicago, Nebraska and Notre Dame universities.—Iowa State.
