DEMOCRATIC CLUB ORGANIZED IN CITY

University Men Predominate—All Reports Show a Very Enthusiastic Meeting.

University students predominate in the membership of the newly organized Young Men's Democratic Club. The first meeting of the club was held in the county democratic headquarters Tuesday night. J. J. Morrissey and Captain Dolan expounded the principles of the democratic party. Officers were elected, resolutions presented and approved by the new club. The new officers of the organization are as follows: President, Joe Johnson, vice president, A. C. Smith; secretary, Ernest Graves; treasurer, Joe Ferris. An executive committee of five members was also selected with Silas Bryan, nephew of the great commoner, as chairman. Remarks were made by some of the Kappa Sig machine had been well oiled. Bill Ritchie, who presided at the initial meeting of the Woodrow Wilson club read the resolutions. Felix Newton, was loud in his criticism of the management. He declared that the crowd was exactly the same one that attended the Wilson club meeting last week.

Notwithstanding Cameron's beauty was a trifle marred in the Coyote game, he still looks very good to us.

Hal Sheridan says Johnny Evers is the greatest man in the world, today. No, girls, you won't find Johnny in "Who's Who," nor does his name appear in the student's directory.

Already certain Kansas papers are conceding to Nebraska another Missouri Valley Conference championship. South Dakota, they say, is undoubtedly stronger than any Conference team except Nebraska.

"Keep your opponents from scoring. Your own score will take care of itself," is said to be the slogan of the new Jayhawk mentor, Jack Wheaton. He hopes to develop a kicker to do the scoring for K. U. this fall.

Captain Detwiler of the Jayhawk squad, who broke a leg in the Kansas-Drake game, last fall, received a severe injury to his shoulder in early practice, which has kept him out of the game, so far, this season. It is doubtful if he will be in shape for the game with Drake, Saturday. Detwiler is a halfback.

The schools that comprise the Missouri Valley Conference are as follows: Washington University at St.

Louis, University of Missouri at Columbia, Mo., University of Kansas at Lawrence, Kas., Kansas Agricultural College at Manhattan, Kas., Drake University at Des Moines, Ia., Iowa School of Agriculture at Ames, Iowa, and the University of Nebraska right here.
