FOUR MAKE CLUB

TRY-OUTS HELD YESTERDAY MORNING IN THE TEMPLE.

MONTHLY MEET NEXT WEEK

Isabell Coons, Louise Dobbs, Adolph Brandes and Lad Kubik Are Fortunate Ones—to Present "Monsieur Beaucaire."

Unfinished try-outs for membership in the Dramatic Club were held Thursday morning and the following four people were successful:

Isabell Coons.
Louise Dobbs.
Adolph Brandes.
Lad Kubik.

The first monthly meeting of the Dramatic Club will be held next week, the evening to be announced later. Mr. Reavis Gist, an old member and now in professional work will be present at this meeting and present "Monsieur Beaucaire."

Several former members of the Club are now successfully engaged in professional dramatic work. Among these are, Harry Melich, Homer Hant, Marion Preece, Tamzon Manker and Julia Nagel. Miss Nagel is at present playing in New York City.

TWO LECTURES ON MODERN CHEMISTRY

Chancellor Avery and Professor Dales Were the Speakers of the Evening.

The Chemistry Club of the university met Wednesday evening in the Chemistry Hall. There were two lectures of especial interest. One of these was delivered by Chancellor Avery and the other by Doctor Dales. The Chancellor spoke of his early experiences as a chemist, telling especially of his work in Germany during his early education. He also discussed the European war in regard to the effect it will have on the manufacture of chemicals; now being a good chance for the United States to begin making her own chemicals instead of expecting Germany to furnish the bulk of them as he has in the past. There will be a good chance for the American chemist to add to both his own and the country's resources by formulating a plan whereby some of these chemicals can be made here. The Chancellor also expressed the desire that none of the students leave school and attempt to discover fame through this means.

Doctor Dales in a lecture discussed a new theory of valence, called "Werner's Theory of Valence." In this lecture the doctor showed how many of the compounds of chlorine especially with cobalt could not be explained by the usual iron clad theory of valence. The question was discussed from every side.

To Whom it May Concern.

All those disturbed by the gentleman in the Y. M. C. A. who sings like a siren in a cemetery and winds up with a noise like bricks falling into a cistern, kindly send thirteen ruses to the Board of Health to help pay for immediate interment.—Daily Illini.

TENNIS MEN GET BUSY WITH MATCHES

Weather Man Smiles on Tennis Players Efforts—Play Will Start Immediately.

After a week's delay in getting the tennis tournament started on account of the inclement weather, those entered declare that they intend to get right back into the best of condition and make a bid for the prize. It has been impossible for anyone to keep in practice during the past ten days and this fact has encouraged many to try harder for the "N" because they realize that a good man in poor condition is but little better than a poor player.

The drawings are posted on the "silo" and those entered should arrange their matches at once and mark their scores after their names. The end of the week should find many of the scheduled matches played off.

GIRL'S CLUB PLAN ON GREAT SATURDAY

Two Plays Will be Given—Miss Helen Todd Will Address the Would-be Politicians.

Two plays will be given at the Girl's Club equal suffrage rally, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in The Temple. Both of them are comedies of the funniest order and will be put on by some of the talented dramatists. That is, the girls giving "Lady Geraldine's Speech" follow this description, but the members of the faculty who are to be the actresses in "A Wild Oat" are being kept a mystery.

But one little bit of information leaked out about "A Wild Oat," which the faculty members are to give and that is that it was written by Miss Jessie Beghtol, of the physical training department.

The girls who will take part in "Lady Geraldine's Speech" are the Misses Essie Jones, Ella Williams, Isabell Coons, Elma Reeder, Hallie Workman, and Mildred Cummins.

Following the speech by Miss Helen Todd, the national suffragist, several talks will be made by members of the faculty.

Miss Frances Lucretia Peters, Chi Omega, was married to Roy B. Hosiack at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Peters, 2817 Holdrege street, at 11:50 a. m., Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hosiack left for a two weeks' visit in Kansas City, St. Louis and other cities. They will make their home at 2817 Holdrege street.

DR. ORR IS HOST TO THE PRE-MEDICS

Will be Entertained at Orthopedic Hospital Tonight—Lecture and Trip of Interest.

Tonight Dr. Orr of the Orthopedic Hospital will entertain the faculty and students of the College of Medicine. An illustrated lecture by the doctor will be the feature of the evening. Afterwards, refreshments and a trip through the hospital, also a discussion of cases. Dr. Orr, it will be remembered, was the host last year and his manner of entertaining is still to be remembered with pleasure. The lecture is scheduled for 8 o'clock sharp at the hospital at 11th and South streets.

OFF TO MANHATTAN

FINAL SCRIMMAGE ON "HOW TO SCORE."

POTTER DROPS ONE OVER

Team in Fine Shape to Trim Kansas Aggies—Leave on Evening Train For Southern Battleground.

By H. I. Kyle.

That the Kansas Aggies will be met with the open style of play, was indicated last night when the regulars were chased through a long signal practice, in which long forward passes was the feature. The bulk of the passing was done by Howard, who fell back on a punt formation and shot the oval thirty or forty yards to Rutherford, Halligan or Chamberlain. After the signal practice a short scrimmage was ordered. The varsity team was given the ball and was then asked to carry it through the army of twenty-five scrubs that lined up to oppose it. A woody spectacle, that would have delighted lovers of slapstick vaudeville, then unfolded itself and smeared up the gridiron considerably. Potter ended the misery by placing a cunning little drop-kick over the cross-bar, from the thirty yard line.

Apparently Coach Stiehm feels that the team's defense is strong enough to hold the Aggies, for the entire afternoon was devoted to teaching the men how to score. A good big count for the Cornhuskers in tomorrow's game would, it is thought, fill the players with the confidence and spirit which they appear to have lacked in the past encounters.

The team leaves for Manhattan this evening, and right here we want to assure you that it will be perfectly proper for you, regardless of what your class, sex, or condition may be, to accompany them to the depot, and to yell your head off till the train pulls out. Leave your doubts at home with father and the cat.

THE FRESHMEN LAWS BREAK OLD TRADITION

All Present at Tort Class Yesterday—First Time in Twenty-five Years Says Professor Wilson.

The Freshmen Laws bid fair to ruin the reputation of the law school that students in former years have striven so manfully to maintain. It would seem that these verdant youth have in some way conceived the absurd idea that it is necessary to write up all the case and also attend class. A senior law was yesterday morning exhibiting to his friends a curio which he had picked up in the locker room and which was causing much merriment among the dignified seniors. Upon inquiry the reporter was told that the curio was a freshman's note book in Criminal Law and that it actually contained every case written up. Thursday morning, after Professor Wilson had called the roll in Tort class he announced that for the first time in twenty-five years every member of his class was present. These things are hard to believe but they are facts.

GERMAN DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY NOW CHOSEN

"Das Verlorne Paradies" to be Presented in January—Try-outs in the Near Future.

The German Dramatic Club, at a meeting Wednesday evening, decided to present Fulda's "Das Verlorne Paradies" for its dramatic offering this year. The play will be presented sometime in January. Those who are preparing to try out for club membership are urged to prepare a scene from this play.

"Das Verlorne Paradies," is the best production of the famous German playwright. In its English translation "The Lost Paradise," it enjoyed great popularity a few years ago in this country. Patrons of good dramas, and particularly students of German literature, will look forward with pleasure to the presentation of this play.

MISS TODD WILL ADDRESS UNI GIRLS

Popular Suffragist From New York to Lecture—Making Three-Day Tour of State.

Miss Helen Todd, a popular young suffragist from New York, has been given to the University girls as speaker for the Girl's Club suffrage rally, Saturday afternoon, by the state equal suffrage association.

Miss Todd is an attractive young woman who became famous for her work in the successful California equal suffrage campaign. After equal suffrage was won, Miss Todd remained in the state to help carry through the motherhood pension and minimum wage bills at the legislature. She was also speaker for the Woman's Recall league which recalled Judge Weller. She is now working with Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt in the campaign in New York, and has been sent into Nebraska to help with the campaign until election day.

Miss Todd arrived in the state Tuesday afternoon and left at once for a three-day automobile tour of the state with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hardy. She will return to Lincoln especially for the Girl's Club meeting.

Miss Nova Thomas, 1911, is visiting friends in Lincoln and University Place this week. Since last May she has been living on a claim near Ashby. Since graduation she was principal of the High School at Bladen and later taught in Nelson, where her parents live.

SYMPHONY STUDY IS OPEN TO ALL

Class Held at Five on Saturday in Art Hall—Second Beethoven Symphony Next Study.

Saturday at 5 p. m., in Art Hall, the study of the Second Beethoven Symphony will be continued with Doctor Dann in charge. Students and faculty are cordially invited. Professor Dann makes his analyses so simple and clear that even the hearers who know little about music are able to follow his remarks and illustrations easily. These meetings afford the student a most unusual opportunity for studying the Beethoven symphonies intimately and increase the enjoyment of the symphony programs.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

TWO PLAYS TO BE STAGED TOMORROW IN TEMPLE.

"LADY GERALDINE'S SPEECH"

Cast Comprised of Seven Well Known Dramatic Club Members—"The Wild Oat" is the Name of the Other Play.

The girls of the Dramatic Club will present a play in addition to the faculty play before a meeting of the Girls' Club at the Temple Theatre, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. The cast is made up of the best talent in the Dramatic Club and those who are behind the play expect it to make a decided hit. The play is on the theme of Woman Suffrage and is called "Lady Geraldine's Speech." Miss Ruby Anderson is coach, with the following cast:

Lady Geraldine.....Essie Jones
Miss Crownsheld.....Isabell Coons
Gertrude Silberthwaite.....Ella Williams
Nora Bailey.....Elma Reeder
Dr. Alice.....Mildred Cummings
Millie Grant.....Hallie Workman
The Maid.....Ethel Hartley
"The Wild Oat" as explained in yesterday's Nebraskan, is the other of the two plays to be given tomorrow.

JACK LYONS MAKES FIRST APPOINTMENT

Dewitt Foster Heads the Committee on Olympics—Eight Other Members Appointed.

The Freshmen are planning on getting away with the big half of the Olympic contest. Their president has appointed the Olympic committee, which will take charge of the arrangements from now on. Indications are that the battle this year will be better than ever before. Both the Freshman and Sophomore Classes are filled with "National" pride and declare that their colors will not touch the ground. There have been many calls at the office of the Daily Nebraskan by over-anxious Freshmen, for the little green caps. The Innocents have picked on the skull cap for the warmer weather and have arranged to have a sort of stocking cap to be worn after the weather god declared war upon the pleasant weather.

The chairman of the Olympic Committee should call the other members together as soon as possible to finish arrangements for the coming event. The following men have been appointed to compose the Freshman Olympic Committee:

Dewitt Foster, chairman.
Carl Graft.
Clarence Weith.
Wallace Gerry.
Ralph Doyle.
I. L. Cobel.
Hugo Otapalik.
Frank Boehmer.
Jno. McDonald.

Ohio State—Wanted: An interpreter for a deaf-blind student. One must be obtained for L. F. Oren of Ohio State before he will be allowed to matriculate. Such interpreters do not seem very plentiful in the Buckeye State.
