FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1914

There is nothing a man knows in grief or in sin Half so bitter as to think what he might have been.

—Mrs. Evans.

History will be made at the suffrage mass meeting next Tuesday night.

And now they claim Dr. Maxey also violated the neutrality proclamation.

What form of punishment will be meted out to men like Fling if Germany eventually conquers America?
Remember Louvain!

THE FAITH OF A MAN.

There are many young men and women in the University who refuse to accept bodily stock-in-trade creeds.
These souls are trying, often with anguish of heart, to think out for themselves the tenets of a rational and humanitarian religion. For this they are denounced as infidels and agnostics. It is to them that we submit the following lines from Victor Hugo:

"God secludes Himself; but the thinker listens at the door. Whoever has the conception of duty, whoever has the sentiment of right, whoever has the perception of justice, whoever has a disinterested aim, whoever is self-forgetful in life and allows another to pass on before him, whoever wishes for human kind, whoever has a heart that beats in unison with the heart of humanity, whoever feels himself brother to the poor, the small, the minor, the frail, the infirm, the suffering, the ignorant, the disinherited, the slave, the serf, the negro, the convict, the condemned; whoever desires light for the blind and the idea for the oppressed, whoever becomes wretched at the wretchedness of others, whoever works hardest for others, weeps at their weeping, and sobs over their wounds, whoever prefers the sacrifice of self to that of his neighbor, whoever has the vision of truth, whoever has felt the enchantment of the beautiful, whoever listens to a melody, whoever contemplates a flower, whiteness, candor, brightness, a woman; whoever admires a genius, whoever feels emotion at a star, whoever says within himself, 'This is good, this is evil,' whoever will not crush a fly uselessly, whoever loves and feels the infinite in his love, whoever recognizes that there is a crooked path and a straight line, whoever acts from conscience, whoever has an ideal to which he consecrates himself—such a one, whoever he may be, whether he knows it or not, believes in God."

What a different world this would be if we all could accept this as the basis of our religious life and forget there ever was such a thing as theology. The brotherhood of man would then be a realizable reality.

LINCOLN TO PLAY
OMAHA TOMORROW

Big High School Game to Take Place of Varsity Game—Nebraska Score to be Announced.

Tomorrow on Nebraska Field Lincoln High will meet the strong team from Omaha in their annual football jubilee. A curtainraiser the second teams representing their respective schools will battle for the booby prize.
University students have arranged with the high school management so that they may be admitted for the same price as high school students.
Season tickets may also be secured for the price of one dollar, which will admit the holder to the four games on Nebraska soil. All four games are sure to be good ones and it is expected that many Nebraska students will take advantage of this opportunity to attend good football games when it is impossible to watch the Cornhuskers in action.

SPIKE INITIATION HELD LAST NIGHT

Freshmen Introduced to University Life—Ceremony Said to be Very Impressive.

The "Spikes" held their semi-annual initiation last evening. The event took place,—well ask the incoming members, where it took place. Suffice it to say that the ceremony was very "impressive" and one long "to be remembered." Two little freshmen, fresh from the protecting influence of home life came armed with a paddle each, from each Fraternity House. The agony of the entertainment was varied by indulging in the liquid which makes the spirits rise and the "Mutt" sit upon the throne of Kings.

GOOD CONVOCATION
ADDRESS YESTERDAY

Mr. Hibbard Spoke on "What Japan is About in Manchuria"—Been in Japan Several Years.

Convocation yesterday morning was afforded a rare treat in the talk given by Mr. Hibbard on "What Japan is About in Manchuria." He has been in Japan the past few years under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. He formerly attended the University of Wisconsin and is a friend of Arthur Jorgenson a former Nebraskan who is in Japan working among the students there. Mr. Hibbard gave several very vivid accounts of his work among the Japanese soldiers in Manchuria and his methods of extending Christianity among the Japanese. He said that through the work of these men over 500,000 Japanese soldiers had come into contact with Christianity. He said that through this work the Japanese are now putting schools in Manchuria and are giving the Chinese the advantages of education.
