

Freshies Undergarb.

More than 500 freshmen of the University of Wisconsin were turned loose today in the fields, miles from Madison, clad only in their undergarments.

While the freshmen were getting ready for the annual class rush with the sophomores they were caught by the sophomores, a few at a time, and rushed out into the country in automobiles. Gymnasium locker checks were given them for the clothing of which they were stripped.

bid for a score, when they executed a beautiful pass for thirty yards, placing the ball less than one yard from Nebraska's goal line. However, they promptly lost the ball on a fumble, giving Halligan a chance to punt out of danger.

Captain Halligan placed another feather in his already crowded cap by scoring a drop-kick on the second play of the fourth quarter. The kick was made from the twelve-yard line and was not very difficult, nevertheless it was a real bona fide drop-kick, and added three points to our score.

Nebraska used seven substitutes during the game, not because of injuries to the regulars, but to give the subs experience. Chamberlain was the Cornhuskers' most successful ground-gainer, having two touchdowns to his credit, while Rutherford and Potter each had one and Halligan had his drop-kick. The goals were kicked by Halligan.

Postmortems and Prophecies By H. I. KYLE.

Just a little Ag-gravation. Nothing serious. at the hands of little Franklin and Marshall.

We wish to quietly call your attention to the result of the Gopher-Coyote game. The score was 29-7 in favor of Minnesota. We shall reserve comment until tomorrow.

The Huskers should have had at least three more touchdowns, had it not been for penalties inflicted for holding. That ought to prove to the men that more will be lost than gained by such tactics.

Harvard, without Charles Brickley, is another story. Tufts College held her to two touchdowns and scored one, making the count 13-6 in favor of Harvard. Brickley is out for the rest of the season with typhoid fever.

Pennsylvania University staged her regular annual come-back Saturday by defeating the Navy 13-6. The week before she had suffered what was supposed to be a crushing defeat

Michigan got a little revenge for last year's defeat at the hands of the strong Michigan Aggies when she scored three to the Aggies' nothing, Saturday. We shall have to take care of that Aggie bunch here at Lincoln next Saturday.

Yale's chances for the Eastern championship grow brighter, as the weeks roll by. It was doped that Notre Dame would give her a tremendous struggle. But Yale's superiority was clearly proved by the score which was 28-0 in her favor.

Another surprise was the result of the K. U.-Drake game. It was thought that the Jayhawks would have trouble scoring on the Des Moines Bulldogs, but the fact is that they scored five touchdowns to one for Drake. This would seem to indicate that the championship of the Missouri Valley will lie between the Jayhawks and the Cornhuskers.

LAW FRATERNITY
 HOLDS INITIATION
 Phi Delta Phi Initiated Fourteen Lawyers—Followed by Banquet at Lindell in Evening.

Last Thursday afternoon and evening the Law Fraternity of Phi Delta Phi held its annual initiation taking fourteen men through the various degrees. The entrance examination was held in the Senior Law room on Wednesday afternoon and one of the fifteen taking the examination fourteen secured a satisfactory grade. Thursday afternoon the candidates were put through the second degree in the basement of the Temple and this was followed by the third degree which was administered in the supreme court room.

The following men were initiated:
 Raymond A. Smith, Lincoln, Nebraska, Junior.
 Leon L. Hines, Madison, Nebraska, Junior.
 Ernest W. Mochner, Madison Nebraska, Junior.
 Leslie Herbert Kingsbury, Ponca, Nebraska, Junior.
 John Lindsey Polk, Louisville, Nebraska, Junior.

Guy Cleveland Chambers, Sidney, Nebraska, Junior.
 George William Sturges, Sioux City, Iowa, Junior.
 Darrel Thomas Lane, Seneca, Nebraska, Junior.
 H. S. Foe, Red Cloud, Nebraska, Senior.
 Bernard G. Westover, Rushville, Nebraska, Senior.
 Alber E. May, York, Nebraska, Senior.
 Lee R. Kirk, Exeter, Nebraska, Senior.
 Don W. Stewart, Lincoln, Nebraska, Senior.
 W. T. Eckerson, Ravenna, Nebraska, Senior.

Phi Delta Phi is the largest and oldest law fraternity in the world and has had a chapter at Nebraska for several years. It is an honorary fraternity and in the future it is very probable that students in the law college will be required to secure a certain percent in their work before becoming a member. At the present time the membership is chosen on the grounds of general success in the study and practice of law.

First We Heard of It. Freshmen at the University of Nebraska were disturbed by a raid which left the streets of the town covered with hair and their heads lacking any traces of their former locks. This has been a custom at Nebraska for some time, but it is said that this year the work of harvesting freshman hair was done more thoroughly than ever before.—Daily Californian.

Columbia the Largest University in the World.
 In point of attendance Columbia university is now the largest in the world, according to figures issued yesterday at the first meeting of the board of trustees for this year. The total registration in all schools is 12,508, and it is expected that the February enrollments will bring this number up to 14,000 students.

The increase this term is about 1,500 students, which is said to be the greatest in the history of the University.—Daily Orange.

Wadey mean? You can get into the world's series for 50 cents, and here it is going to cost $1 to see the freshman game!—Daily California.
