FROSH-SOPH EVENT

SEVEN EVENTS SCHEDULED FOR THE EVENTFUL MORNING.

THE WAR STARTS AT NINE A.M.

Push-ball and Color Scrap Each Stand in Line as the Major Events—Minor Events Between 9 and 10.

After a week's hard labor the two classes reported last night that final arrangements had been made for the giant contest which will be pulled off on Nebraska Field tomorrow morning. The events will start promptly at 9 o'clock as everyone must be off the field by 11 in order to allow the ground keeper to put it in shape for the little battle with the "Kids" from the north. Both classes of course will be on hand to do their share of the rooting in the afternoon but at present the wearers of the Green are at sword's point with their superiors. It has been reported that some important freshmen will appear upon the campus in the morning without their accustomed growth of hair but be that as it may the Sophomores will surely get all that's coming to them. Freshmen "pep" is at its height today.

The events will take place in the following order: First—Shuttle race with four men on each side. This will be a speedy contest as each man runs only one hundred yards.

Second: Boxing—Both light and heavy weight.

Third: Wrestling—Including the little and the big.

Fourth: Marathon Race—Where those built for endurance instead of speed will contest for premier honors.

Fifth: Tug of War—Fifteen men from each class.

Sixth: Push-Ball Contest—This will be one of the most interesting events of the whole program. The ball is a giant affair, being over six feet in diameter, and half that distance for a radius. Fifty men will represent each class and the team pushing the ball over their opponent's goal line the most number of times in thirty minutes will win. The ball has arrived and is being kept until the proper time arrives for fear some over-zealous freshman will puncture it.

Seventh: The free for all will be the final event of the day. This takes the place of the old slugging match of last year in which the Sophomores figured so minutely. The Sophomores will have their colors on a pole and will endeavor to keep them there.

The minor events will be staged between 9 and 10. The push-ball contest will then take place, lasting until 10:30, when the free for all will start, occupying the time until 11. All contestants be on the ground early in their old clothes and in trim for the final battle.

OH, YOU FRESHMEN! HAVE YOU GOT YOUR HEADGEAR?

ROOTERS NOTICE!

Everybody in both the Boys' and Girls' Rooting Sections at the Aggie game should wear an official Rooters Hat—scarlet and cream. Get them at MAGEE'S, 1109 O Street. Special price—25 cents.

MIDNIGHT FIGHT BETWEEN FROSH AND SOPH

Freshmen Are Painted on Brow With '17, and Resent Action With Battle Royal.

Last night, while the world was asleep, the sophomores ventured out to put the fatal '17 on the noble brows of the innocent freshmen. The various frat houses were entered and, with the aid of the sophomores therein, the frosh were decorated. The freshmen, not to be trifled with, crawled into their old clothes and the fight was on. The scene of battle was the Delta Tau house. The sophomores, not being able to get at the Delt freshmen, made attack upon the house and battle ensued. Freshmen poured in from all directions and members of both classes went into a battle royal, only to go to their respective homes thereafter to nurse bruised and disfigured faces.

Upon questioning the first-year men the reporter could get only such a reply as, "We'll get even with those guys yet; see if we don't."

TWO BIG RALLIES

FIVE PROMINENT MEN AND ALL OF THE TEAM WILL SPEAK.

CLASSES EXCUSED AT ELEVEN

Arrangements Made to Seat Everybody in Memorial Hall—Band Scheduled For Both Rallies.

This morning at 11 o'clock sharp the doors of the chapel of Memorial Hall will be thrown open and the keys turned over to the students of the University of Nebraska, who will then proceed to demolish things. But before the old building is destroyed fitting ceremonies will be held to observe the occasion. Three of the most noted men of the middle west, indeed of the United States, will deliver the funeral orations, the "In Memoriam's," so to speak, and then the roof will be raised. Enthusiasm, with neither rhyme nor reason, will then riotously reign supreme, for this will be part of Nebraska's celebration of her victory over the Michigan Aggies on the Nebraska Field Saturday.

City Superintendent Hunter of the Lincoln schools will speak a few words of caution before he takes off his coat to join in the general cacophony. He will doubtless impress the Nebraskans with the necessity of respecting the neutrality of the other school buildings in Lincoln when they begin their medicine mixing ceremonies on the campus at 7 this evening. Dr. Maxey will then warm to his subject and with flying arms and—(excuse us Doc, we almost said feet)—coattails, and smiles at the feminine section, he will take up the legal aspect of the case of Nebraska vs.

Michigan, in re football, dwelling particularly upon the penalty that will be ours to pay should we permit the men from the North to run over us. It is even rumored that Dr. Maxey will advocate the giving of written lessons to those who fail to attend the rally at the convocation hour.

Dr. Condra, of the Geography department will explain the route the parade will take this evening. We are informed he will illustrate his lecture with "movies."

Chancellor Avery may also be prevailed upon to speak and it is certain that if he should his address will in no manner dampen the enthusiasm of the morning.

Sylvester Shonka, captain of the football team that tied Michigan, will be on the platform to help here, as he has been helping every night on the field, to put the rollers under the Aggies.

In addition to the speeches, arrangements will be announced for the evening torchlight parade.

There will be a place for every person in the chapel and the committee is looking forward to a "full house."

Come and yell for the team.

FRESHMEN SECURE YOUR CAPS EARLY

Buy Them Early and Keep From Catching Cold—Plenty to go the Rounds of Freshman Class.

Today is the day that the freshman men are to secure their caps which are being distributed from the "Daily Nebraskan" office which is located in the basement of University Hall. These caps are made of very fine material and are worth every bit of the price asked for them. The price as announced yesterday is one dollar. This includes both caps, one of which is called the "eton" and is to be worn during the warm weather and the other a "toque" that should be worn when the cold breezes from the north reach this vicinity. The former is to be worn on the back of the head. It has a white button on top while the body of the cap is green. The toque has a white "tom tom" on top while the body of this is also a solid green. They are very attractive and it is hoped by the use of them that each member of the class will get acquainted with every other member. Don't fail to procure one of them early today. There will be plenty to go around.

LAST SCRIMMAGE

HOWARD, RUTHERFORD, AND POTTER STAY OUT OF MIX-UP.

ARE NURSING THEIR INJURIES

Varsity Scores Three Touchdowns in Rapid Succession—Many Old Stars on the Field to Assist in Coaching.

By H. I. Kyle.

The last scrimmage before the big game, was staged, yesterday on a muddy field, which rendered the playing slow and erratic. As on the preceding day, the freshmen opposed the varsity with an imitation of the attack of the Michigan Farmers, as it was doped out by Assistant Coach Hoeffel. The varsity was allowed to try its skill at offensive playing, and managed to register three touchdowns and a field goal in the first half-hour of play.

The success of the yearlings at carrying the ball was about the same as on Wednesday. Gardiner, the ex-Omaha high school star, scored a drop-kick from the 25 yard line, but no touchdowns were made.

The absence of Rutherford, Howard, and Potter from the line-up weakened the varsity team greatly, for although their subs, Seizer, Wilson and Hawkins, all played remarkably well, they are lacking in the experience necessary to give confidence to the rest of the team, as well as to themselves.

The coaching staff was again supplemented by the appearance of three more former Cornhusker stars, in the persons of Tate Matters, who is now practicing law in Omaha, Supt. Fred Hunter, of the Lincoln city schools, and Harvey "Bones" Rathbone, at present engaged in the real estate business here in Lincoln. Sylvester Shonka, captain and tackle on the wonderful team that tied the Michigan Wolverines in 1911, was on the field Wednesday, doing his duty, as a loyal Nebraskan.

The Aggies will arrive in Lincoln sometime this morning, and will stay at the Lincoln hotel, while here. If the weather is pleasant this afternoon and evening, it is likely that some of
