George W. English, ex-'15, engineer, and Miss Hazel Browning of Fairbury were quietly married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening. Mr. English now owns and operates the English Cash Grocery in Fairbury.

From the Daily Iowan: "Because a movement for simple attire has been started at the University of Nebraska, many of the girls are making their appearance in classes with their 'party dresses' on in defiance of it."

Sylvester Shonka, former captain of Nebraska football team, has been in Lincoln this week assisting in coaching the football team. While here he has been a guest at the Delta Chi house. Mr. Shonka is a lawyer of David City.

A farewell reception was given to Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Rice, former University students, at the First Christian church, Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will leave Lincoln this week and will sail October 11 from New York for Lamoh, India.

Ralph Paine Benedict, who attended the University in 1894, will be married early in November to Miss Elsie Vandegrift at Denver, Colo. Mr. Benedict, who joined Delta Upsilon at Harvard College, attended the University for one year. He is now a newspaper man in Denver. Miss Vandegrift has been working for suffrage in Nebraska for several weeks, being employed by the national suffrage organization. She has held many meetings in Omaha and spoke in Lincoln Wednesday evening.

LAST SCRIMMAGE.

 them will appear on the streets of our fair city. If you see one, and feel an impulse to laugh at his strange rustic antics, stifle it at once, or he might see you and resent your unseemly mirth, and we don't want those farmers to go into the game tomorrow with resentment burning in their bosoms they'll be hard enough to lick, as it is.
