 Postmortems and Prophecies By H. I. KYLE.

The big game of the day will be played at Cambridge, Mass., when Yost leads his Wolverines against Harvard. East meets West, with odds about even. A victory for Michigan will more than make up for her loss to Syracuse, last week.

In the Big Nine Conference either Wisconsin or Chicago will be eliminated, barring a tie. Dope favors Chicago in this game. Two other contenders, Minnesota and Illinois, also play, with the odds about even. It is a good bet that Minnesota and Chicago will fight for the high honors at Chicago, on November 21st.

The big game of the Missouri Valley Conference, tomorrow, is our own game with the Iowa Farmers. Both teams are strong contenders for championship honors, although the odds are in favor of the Cornhuskers. The winner of this game will have to fight out the Conference championship with Kansas. The chances are, therefore, good, that the title will be decided on November 14th, when the Cornhuskers tangle with the Jayhawkers here in Lincoln.

Following are some of the games scheduled for tomorrow, that are of special interest:

- Harvard vs. Michigan at Cambridge.
- Penn State vs. Lafayette at Easton, Pa.
- Princeton vs. Williams at Princeton.
- Minn. U. vs. Ill. U. at Minneapolis.
- Kan. U. vs. Okla. U. at Lawrence.
- Mo. U. vs. Kans. Ags. at Columbia.
- S. Dak. vs. N. Dak. at Grand Forks.
- Notre Dame vs. Haskell at Notre Dame.
- Chicago vs. Wis. U. at Madison.
- Wash. U. vs. Drake at St. Louis.
- Yale vs. Colgate at New Haven.

At a meeting of the Otoe County Alumni Association of the University of Nebraska, Wednesday evening, Anan R. Raymond, '11, and Judge A. A. Bischof, '98, and '00, debated on "University Removal." Mr. Raymond, who is now a practicing attorney in Omaha, spoke in favor of removal and Judge Bischof advocated extension of the present campus. The meeting, which was well attended, was held at Nebraska City.

Now that a committee has been appointed to co-operate with the committee on social organizations, plans will soon be made for an all-University party to be held in the near future. These parties will satisfy a long-felt need at our University. Without doubt they will bring about a more democratic acquaintance among the students. Iowa and Kansas now give weekly parties, open to all students at a small admission price. The all-University party takes the place of the numerous fraternity functions, and has the added advantage of including all students not members of the fraternities. Now, everyone help to make them successful by being present at the first party. If you go once, you will become a regular patron.

FRESHMAN LAWS HAVE ANOTHER BIG MEETING

So Satisfied With First That They Had to Have Another—Minor Officers Elected For Year.

The Freshman Laws held a very enthusiastic meeting yesterday morning. Minor officers were elected and other matters of interest received attention. The election of officers was by far the most interesting topic of discussion. Mrs. Margaret Carns was elected unanimously to fill the office of vice president. After being elected she made a very impressive speech in which she said: "I thank the members of the class for the high honor bestowed upon me and will do my utmost to make this the best class ever turned out of the university." She is the only woman taking Freshman law and is looked upon by the members as a "mother" as she expressed it in her speech. The other officers elected were as follows:

 John Louder, secretary.

W. R. Raech, treasurer.
 Victor Halligan and Hopewell, sergeants at arms.
 B. M. Emery, chaplain.

At the conclusion of the election of officers Oberfelder brought up the matter of having a section laid out for the laws at the football games. It was well received and the following committee is to look into the matter and make arrangements with the Junior and Senior classes. The committee is as follows: Irving Oberfelder chairman, W. R. Waring, R. Bryson.
