NOTES FROM SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Several Professors Attend at Convention at Omaha—Woman's Short Course to Be Given This Week.

A woman's short course will be held at the St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church from Wednesday to Saturday, inclusive, of the coming week. The classes will be in charge of Mrs. Emma Reed Davison and Miss Mabel Daniels of the Agricultural Extension Service. Two special lectures will be given by Miss Alice Loomis and Miss Helen Lee Davis. Miss Loomis will speak on "Home Furnishing," and Miss Davis will speak on "Adulteration of Textiles."

R. E. Emerson, recently resigned head of the department of horticulture at the University Farm, and who returned from Cornell, where he is in charge of the work in plant breeding at Ithaca, has completed his experiments here and went, this week, to resume his work at Cornell University.

R. F. Howard, the new head of the department of horticulture, has assumed his duties. Mr. Howard came here from the University of Wisconsin, where he was assistant professor of the department of horticulture.

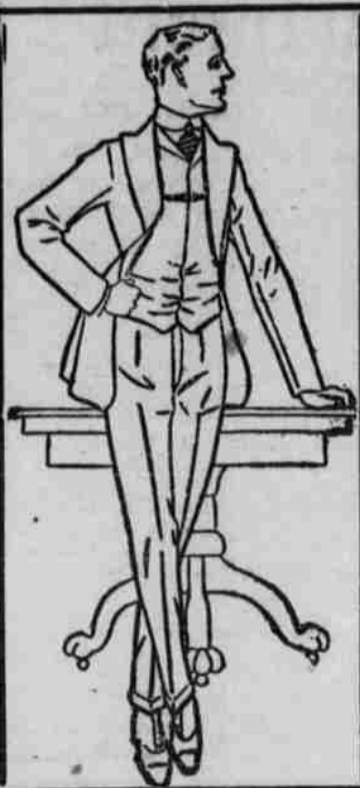

C. V. Williams, head of the Nebraska School of Agriculture at Curtis, visited at the University Farm during the week.

"Woodworking Exercises for Agricultural Colleges and Schools" is the title of a new text book which is being prepared by Professor L. W. Chase and Assistant Professor A. A. Baer of the department of agricultural engineering at the University Farm.

John T. Zimmer, a graduate of the University of Nebraska in 1910, and formerly field expert for the department of entomology at the University Farm, writes that he has started on an inspection trip to Mindanao, one of the islands of the Philippines, to study a cocoonut tree disease. Mr. Zimmer is an assistant entomologist with the United States Department of Agriculture, with headquarters at Manila.

J. H. Frandsen was one of the five experts selected to do the judging at the National Dairy Show recently held in Chicago.

L. D. Lindgren, dairy herdsman at the University Farm, has assumed his duties after having been sick with a severe attack of pneumonia.

Society Brand Clothes

These are the Clothes that win out with the young man, because they are styled by a young man in years and at heart, like yourself, then they are tailored and fitted to a young fellow, "Varsity Man," of about your proportions. Society Brand is the only line of Suits and Overcoats we have ever been able to find that measure up to the demands of College Men. Let us show you these New Models and Patterns.

Suits and O'coats $20 to $35

Other makes—including Brokaw Bros., Schloss, Baltimore and Sam Peck—$10 to $40.

Remember this is a "Safety First" store for Furnishings, Shoes, Hats and Sweaters too.

ELI SHIRE, Pres.

Dean E. A. Burnett left Saturday for Washington, D. C., where he went to attend the annual meeting of the Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations.

J. H. Frandsen, professor of dairy husbandry at the University Farm, has been appointed chairman on the committee on publications of the Official Dairy Instructors' Association and will this year edit the association's publications. Professor Frandsen presided at the recent convention held in Chicago and delivered the presidential address.

Among those attending the State Teachers' Association meeting at Omaha from the University Farm were: Mrs. Emma Reed Davison, Misses Alice Loomis, president of the home economics section; Mary Ellen Brown, Anna Ohlson, Maude Wilson, Hulda Peterson, Frances Wyman, Lella Corbin, Mary Van Kirk, Mabel Daniels, and Messrs. C. W. Pugsley, J. G. McMillan, H. C. Filley, A. E. Anderson, L. T. Skinner, E. Mead Wilcox, G. K. K. Link, P. B. Barker, and F. W. Upson.

Prof. H. C. Filley and Miss Hulda Peterson leave today for Wakefield, Dixon county, where they will have charge of ten agricultural meetings during the coming week. Five of these meetings will form part of the program at rural school fairs, where the pupils will compete against each other for honors in their agricultural products exhibits. Three other meetings will be held at villages and two at rural churches.

SENIOR CLASS HOP DECIDED SUCCESS
 Over Ninety Couples Said to Have Been Present—Scott's Orchestra Furnished the Music.

The first of the class hops of this season was held Friday evening when the Senior class gave their first semester hop at the Roseville Hall. About ninety couples were in attendance and from all indications the dance was very much a success. The grand march was led by Mr. B. G. Westover, master of ceremonies, and Mr. Don D. Mapes, chairman. The chaperones were Miss Mary Graham, Mr. Arthur Hiltner and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harpham. Scott's orchestra furnished the music, making a decided hit. Many comments have been heard declaring this to have been one of the best class hops held in recent years.

LINCOLN DEFEATS AURORA HIGH EASILY

Nebraska University Furnishes Officials—Lincoln Has a Fine Chance For State Championship.

The University of Nebraska furnished the officials and some of the spectators for the Aurora-Lincoln game last Friday afternoon. Aurora did not have her usual strong, heavy team but she put up a game fight. Coach Mulligan of Lincoln held his best men out of the game, and used his subs freely. Lincoln was able to register touchdowns almost at will. The officials
