A NEW FRATERNITY

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA COMES TO NEBRASKA.

MAKES EIGHTEENTH CHAPTER

Medical Scholarship Fraternity—Local Chapter Will be Organized Within the Next Two Weeks.

Word has just been received by the University of Nebraska, College of Medicine at Omaha that a chapter of the Alpha Omega Alpha, the Medical Scholarship Fraternity, has been granted to the University of Nebraska. This society occupies the same place in medical colleges that Phi Beta Kappa occupies in the College of Arts.

Alpha Omega Alpha was founded at the University of Illinois in 1902, and at the present time has chapters only in those medical schools which have the highest possible rating. Of the twenty-seven A plus schools in the United States chapters exist only in seventeen, namely:

University of Illinois.
Northwestern University.
Jefferson Medical College.
Washington University.
University of California.
University of Toronto.
University of Michigan.
Cornell University.
McGill University.
University of Chicago.
Western Reserve University.
University of Pennsylvania.
Harvard University.
Johns Hopkins University.
Columbia University.
University of Minnesota.
Syracuse University.

No new chapters have been granted (Continued on page 3)

KOMENSKY CLUB TO SEND FUNDS ABROAD

Met Saturday Evening—Money to be Raised by Selling Statues of Komensky.

The Komensky Club held its bi-weekly meeting last Saturday evening. They had a short program consisting of a duet by Misses Mae Hurka and Louise Misko, an impersonation, "Under the Linden Tree," by Bess Strejc; a paper, entitled "The Present Call to Bohemia," by Miss Anna Jelen; two numbers by the Komensky orchestra, and the Komensky "Mirror," a true reflection of the daily life of the members, by Rudolph Prokop.

At this meeting, also, the members discussed means by which they may send aid to the needy or wounded Bohemians who are engaged in the present European struggle. It was finally decided to get statues of Komensky, which will be sold for one dollar each. The amount over the cost will then be sent to the sufferers.

Although the club usually meets only once in two weeks, owing to the "homecoming" next week a special meeting will be held in Art Hall on Saturday evening, November 14.

It is an interesting fact about the Komensky Club here that in the national books it has the very highest record in membership, individual work and wideawake action.

O. T. SWAN LECTURE TONIGHT

Will Address Forest Club Tonight—Now in Employ of United States Government.

O. T. Swan, '04, in charge of investigations of wood utilization and eastern products of forests, is on the campus today lecturing to the Forestry Department. Tonight he will lecture to the Forest Club in room 2, Nebraska Hall. Mr. Swan is a Nebraska man who, as usual, has made good.

UNITED FARMERS HAVE BIG MEETING

Thirty Per Cent of Entire College Present—First Meeting Held This Year.

On last Saturday evening the United Agricultural Society held its first meeting of the year in Horticultural Hall of the Plant Industry Building on the state farm campus. There was about thirty per cent of the entire College of Agriculture present and as it is reported the girls were in the majority. The purpose of this society is to bring the Home Economics Club and the Agriculture Club together. It is the only Agriculture Club in the University in which the boys and girls can get together. It is also one of the youngest institutions in the University, being started last year. Its present success indicates a promising future for one fact, because of its democratic nature.

All present report a good time and a decided success for the organization itself. Part of the entertainment of the evening was a mock field meet, after which refreshments were served. There will be about four more meetings this year and all students of agriculture are requested to come out.

The flower of Minnesota's fair sex will clash with that of Wisconsin upon the Army gridiron this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game promises to be one of the most exciting of the season, a regular "hair-pulling," in fact.

Distinctive uniforms have been imported for this occasion direct from Paris.

Between quarters all training rules will be suspended and the players will feast upon peanuts, doughnuts and ice cream cones. In case any one over-eats Doctor Elinor Lynch will be on hand to make repairs.—Minnesota Daily.

UNIVERSITY DAY AT 'THE POLICE COURT'

Three University Students Arraigned For Speeding—Only One Pleads Guilty to the Charge.

Today was University day at the police court, when several students were arraigned on charges of speeding. Charles Golden and Roy Cameron were said to have gone down Q street Sunday night at a speed far in excess of that allowed by law. When arraigned this morning Golden pleaded not guilty and had his hearing set for November 17.

Ralph Sturm, on a similar charge also pleaded not guilty. His hearing was set for November 14.

Only one believed himself guilty. This was Leon Gillilan who was rewarded for his efforts to be honest by being assessed a fine of $1 and costs.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM TAKES LAST PLACE

Captain of Team Explains Reason—Makes Frank Statement of the Situation.

Cross country running at Nebraska has become a joke. Nebraska has finished a poor last, a fair third, and another very poor last in the past three M. V. C. meets. The reason is not hard to discover. At Ames, usually the winner, cross country is a major sport. A special coach devotes his attention to some thirty-five candidates. At Kansas a winning team gets a big "K." At Nebraska, the pitiful little squad has neither coach nor a possibility of winning a real "N." So I say either devote a fair proportion of attention to cross country so that it doesn't advertise Nebraska in an inverse ratio to the reputation built up by the football team—either do this, or abolish it altogether, and of these two alternatives, I believe the latter is the better.

CAPTAIN 1914 CROSS COUNTRY TEAM.

UNION SOCIETY HAD ROOM RE-DECORATED

Now Inviting and Ready For the Informal Reception to be Held Saturday Evening.

The Union Society has completed the re-decorating of its rooms on the third floor of the Temple and they are now ready for use. The walls have been retinted in dark green and the furnishings changed to match, making the rooms very inviting and comfortable. The Society will celebrate the change by holding an informal reception Saturday evening at 8:15 to which all university people are invited. A program of particular interest has been prepared for this occasion. Social stunts and refreshments will also be there to help in making merry.

REPORTER VISITS THE ORTHOPEDIC HOSPITAL

Witnessed Several Very Interesting Operations—Pre-Medics Encouraged to Come.

One of the reporters of the Nebraskan had occasion to visit the State Orthopedic Hospital yesterday and while there witnessed several operations of great interest. One of the operations was on a baby suffering with cleft palate, another was for club foot and both of these were performed by Dr. Lord of Omaha. The hospital is open to the Pre-Medic students of the University and should be used for their benefit. The cases were very interesting and will be remembered by the reporter who was fortunate enough to get to witness them. Many of the Pre-Medic meetings will be held at the hospital in the near future.

SPIKES GIVES DANCE.

Holds Dance for Initiates Saturday Night—Dr. and Mrs. Condra Were Chaperones.

The Spikes held their first dance for the new initiates last Saturday night. The dance was one of the best held this year. The grand march was dispensed with and the programs given out at the door. Dr. and Mrs. Condra were the chaperones.

HOME-COMING ISSUE OF THE AWGWAN TODAY

Contains a Hearty Welcome to the Old Grad—Clever Cartoons and Witty Sayings.

The "Home-coming" issue of the "Awwgan" is out today and is dedicated to the annual home-coming event of the year in athletics. The front page cartoon is by Leslie Slack and represents a good old man with a Nebraska pennant and a cigar in his hand. His face shows that some remark has been made at the cost of this institution and he is ready to take the matter to the manly art of self-defense if necessary. A welcome to the old grad is expressed by another cartoon and poem by the same man. These are on the introductory page of this issue.

Lincoln's home-coming address is given in this paper and it is certainly worth the while of every Nebraskan reader to get the "Awwgan" and read this memorable speech. There are a great many clever cartoons in this edition, especially on "Willie's Home-coming." The sorority house chatter is very good and exceedingly true to life.

Illinois Freshmen Demand More Employment.

Nearly 400 students of which ninety per cent are freshmen have applied for work at the Y. M. C. A. employment bureau of the University of Illinois. Only 137 students have been given positions at which they can earn enough to pay for their board. The head of the employment bureau says that the department has never been so swamped with men after work.

THE BLUE PRINT DIVIDENDS PUZZLE

The Dividends Were Issued in the Form of a Steak Roast—Several Members Missing.

For fear that there may be some misunderstanding in regard to the Blue Print dividends, which, according to the Nebraskan yesterday, were declared to have been paid, members of the staff wish to inform the public that the dividends were in the form of a steak roast at Miss Branson's bungalow.

The feature of the event was the fact that three more couples started for the cottage than the number that reached it. Business Manager of the Blue Print is still at a loss as to what may have happened to these parties for he has not seen them to this late date.

WORLD-WIDE PEACE

PROFESSOR FLING MAKES CLEAR THE SITUATION.

UNIVERSITY BAND PLAYED

Oliver Theatre Well Filled—Other Prominent Speakers Announced For Future Meetings.

Prof. F. M. Fling of the European History department is gaining considerable recognition and popularity by his frequent lectures on the different subjects brought before him by the Great War. As is quite often the case, many misunderstandings arise over the discussions of such ordinarily delicate topics and Prof. Fling says he is continually misunderstood.

His address at the Oliver theater Sunday, before a large audience, was well delivered. In the course of the afternoon he spoke of the logic in the supposition that in the future all disagreements between nations would be settled by diplomacy—"we would enjoy," he said, "a social circle of the nations, in which inimical spirits had no place nor would be countenanced." "This was is the end, the last crash of an old, outgrown system," he said, "and in the future public opinion will make any such abomination as war impossible." World institutions would obviate the necessity of nations' going to war, was his opinion.

"Outraged Belgium," could not be neglected. A collection amounting to $75.39 was received. This, together with the numerous shiploads of evidenced sympathy, will be forwarded to the American far correspondents' "devastated fields" and "profaned Louvain" to relieve any suffering that may have been caused.

UNIVERSITY ARMY DEFENDS BUILDINGS

Take Their Stand in Front of University Hall—Hold Position For Period of One Hour.

The standing army of the University of Nebraska took their stand in front of the old University Hall late yesterday afternoon. The opposing forces of desire and natural inclination did their best to dislodge our forces but the commanding voices of the officers succeeded in keeping the boys in yellow at their posts of duty. It was only for the short period of one hour however, that this stand was maintained and then the ranks broke and the men sought individual shelter. It is to be regretted that the army of the University is so forgetful of duty and love for their colors that they will beat a retreat in such disorderly fashion as was witnessed last evening. But after all maybe it was only one of these strategic retreats typical of the foreign nations. Perhaps the latter is the best idea, at any rate it is hoped that the army will again collect themselves and take their stand tonight. (And the old flag never touched the ground, boys, and the old flag never touched the ground.)

Kansas—The freshman girls at the University of Kansas have planned long hikes every Saturday in order to become acquainted.
