Election to membership occurs on a strictly scholarship basis. The officers of the National Fraternity are as follows:
Russell Burton-Opitz, president, Columbia University.
B. Carl Huber, vice president, University of Michigan.
William W. Root, secretary and treasurer.
The founder, William W. Root, was largely instrumental in bringing to the attention of the Fraternity the remarkable progress made by the University of Nebraska in true scientific medical education.

MANY LAWS RESERVE SEATS FOR SATURDAY

One Hundred and Fifty Will Help Defeat Kansas—Have Original Songs and Yells.

The law students have taken to the idea of a "Pep" gathering with a vengeance and have reserved one hundred and fifty seats for the Kansas Game. They have had several songs and yells printed and will be out in force to deliver them; so the committee announced yesterday. The practice hours for the singers seem to be all morning and the place in the respective recitation rooms of the three law classes. The faculty seem to enjoy the spirit shown and do their utmost for the boys, that is except Dr. Maxey, who says that the noise interferes with his enjoyment of life and that he is naturally opposed to all forms of amusement taking the form of singing and speaking. It is hoped by the laws however, that his spirit will change before the Saturday game and that they will find him, as of yore seated on a front seat and doing his share of the rooting.

NEBRASKA GRADUATES RECEIVE OFFICES

Many Alumni Elected to Office—Shows That College Men Are Taking the Lead in Public Life.

It will probably be of interest to many students to learn that former Nebraska men have been elected to fill various state offices.

Walter Van Fleet Hoagland, 1895, who lives at North Platte is running a close race with Pearson for the office of lieutenant governor. Hoagland graduated from the law college.
Earl D. Mallery, from Alliance has been elected state senator from the 28th district. For the past two years he has been serving as representative.
Carl Petrus Peterson, Delta Chi, received his L. L. B. in 1909, is the newly elected state representative from the 30th district.
Ralph S. Moseley, Sigma Nu, has also been elected to the office of state representative.
Chas. William Beal, graduate of the Law College in 1899, and now living at Broken Bow, is representing his district in the senate.
