

The Daily Nebraskan

Property of THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA Lincoln

C. A. SORENSSEN Editor-in-Chief

Acting Managing Editor... R. V. Koupal Associate Editor... L. O. Chatt

REPORTORIAL STAFF

Ivan G. Beede Irving T. Oberfelder
J. C. Beard Lester Zook
Everett J. Althouse Dora Slater
E. W. McDonald Marg. Kauffman
E. Grabbil Harold G. King
Charles M. Frey James A. McEachen
J. R. Glassey Bennett C. Vig
W. Jacobson T. W. McMillian
J. L. Giffin

SPECIAL FEATURES

Whos Who... Silas Bryan
Society column... Lorena Bixby
Cartoonist... Camille Leyda
Athletics... Dorothy Ellsworth
Charles Misko
Henry Kyle

Business Manager... Frank S. Perkins
Asst. Business Manager... Russell F. Clark

Subscription price $2.00 per year, payable in advance. Single copies, 5 cents each.

Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1914

Thy purpose firm is equal to the deed: Who does the best his circumstances allow

Does well, acts nobly; angels could do no more. —Young.

Good for the Sophomores. Their Hop was financially a great success. Ralph O. Lahr and his committee are entitled to much credit for making it pay out in spite of difficulties.

TURKEY DAY.

You are going home for a few days. Have you ever thought of the great debt you owe the home folks? Your community does not want payment in money. It does hope and expect payment in appreciation and service.

So while home show your folks, your friends, your neighbors, that, after all, you are a pretty good investment. Think a little less about opportunities to display your jewelry, and more about being agreeable.

Shake hands with the farmer. Tell him about the State Farm—and what it is doing. Ask him how he likes the present price of wheat, and what effect he thinks the war and the Democratic tariff have had. And before you leave find out if the old red cow is giving as much milk as usual.

Drop in and talk to the merchant. Give him a description of some fine window display you have seen in Lincoln. Inquire as to what effect the war is having on business. Inform him that, according to Professor Virtue, when the Federal Reserve System gets to working well money will loosen up.

Talk with the High School boys. Above all, don't play the big man stunt. Answer their questions. Tell them about our football team, about Halligan's toe, and about Rutherford's work in the Iowa game. Explain to them that Nebraska has the best debating teams in the West. Take with you home copies of the Daily Nebraskan and Awgwan and let the boys read them.

And if you have more time, visit the law offices. With all their faults, the lawyers usually form the intellectual backbone of the community. Talk a little politics. Explain to them the need of a Constitutional Convention and the Short Ballot. If they are graduates from Nebraska, tell them

Maxey's latest joke, and that Tuttle still teaches Property.

THE FORUM

To the Oberlin Review:

The present tragic situation in Europe is something which probably has not touched any of us to any great extent, but in the cause of humanity every person should do all that he can to alleviate the suffering.

Would you be willing to co-operate with us in raising the biggest fund that has ever been raised from colleges, for the use of the American Red Cross?

When we think that great numbers of men of our own age are meeting with injuries and death, while we are still enjoying a comparatively happy life, it seems that we certainly should do something to help them. This matter, if you are to take it up, should be pressed vigorously before Christmas, and we therefore hope that you will favor us with a reply by the next mail.

The scheme would be to hold mass meetings, at which a small admission would be charged or a collection taken up, and in addition to make a thorough canvass of the university. If every student could be induced to give 25 cents, or even only 10 cents, the total sum would be of very great service at this time.

There is a special committee of the Red Cross to take care of the schools and colleges. If you prefer the dealings would be held directly with them; otherwise we shall be very glad to attend to all the details of the work.

We sincerely hope that you will give us your heartiest co-operation in this undertaking.

CORNELL DAILY SUN.

Who's Who

Professor George Elliot Howard, head professor of Political Science and Sociology, was born at Saratoga, N. Y., in 1849. He received the degree of A. B. from Nebraska University in 1876, and Ph. D. in 1894, and was a student of history and Roman law at Munich and Paris, 1876-8.

Dr. Howard was professor of history at the University of Nebraska, 1874-91; head of the history department at Leland Stanford, 1891-01; professor of history at Cornell, 1902; lecturer in history at the University of Chicago, 1903-4; professor of institutional history, 1904-6, and since that time, head professor of political science and sociology at Nebraska. Dr. Howard is a member of the American Historical Association and the American Political Science Association and the American Sociological Society. He is widely known as a writer and is an authority in the Institution of Marriage, Divorce and Social Relations. He is author of the following: Local Constitutional History of the United States (1889), Development of the King's Peace (1891), History of Matrimonial Institutions (1904), Preliminaries of the American Revolution (1905). He has contributed many articles on Modern English History and on Marriage and Divorce to the New International Encyclopedia and to the Encyclopaedia Americana.

MILITARY BALL.

Eighty-Eight Tickets Have Been Validated—Will be Held on January the Eighth.

Eighty-eight tickets inclusive of all complimentary have been validated for the Military Ball to be held at the Rosewilde Party House, January 8, 1914. No more tickets will be validated for the ball. Complimentaries have been issued to P. O. Southwick, W. K. Fowler and A. E. Allyn, T. A. Williams, Agent of Student Activities.

INTERCLASS GAME (Continued from Page One)

things began to happen. Along toward the tall end of the period Talbot punted to Southwick, who ran back twenty yards. Somebody fumbled, and the Juniors recovered the ball en masse (that is to say, all the Juniors in sight fell on it). They tried a forward pass on the first play and Herb Reese intercepted it, and went quite a little way before he was stopped. To many of the rooters it was a matter of regret that he was stopped at all, the belief being general that had he not been stopped he would have made a touchdown then and there. Mapes smashed through tackle for three yards. Seven Meyer made first down for the Seniors. The Fouts machine was "going good." Reese plugged the line for five yards. Southwick failed to gain, but tried again and made a gain, this time for ten yards, around left end. A touchdown was in sight, and a mingled roar of "Hold 'em!" and "Touchdown!" arose from a thousand throats (more or less, with the latter a rank favorite). Seven Meyer swung around an end for six yards. The ball was given to Reese, with instructions to "go as far as he liked," and forthwith he wriggled over the final chalk mark. Big Seven kicked goal, and the score stood 7 to 0 for the old boys. The half ended soon afterward.

The third quarter was scoreless, ending with the ball in possession of the Seniors on the Junlor's twenty-yard line. Mapes hit the Junior line for four yards. Seven circled the end for three, and on a second attempt carried the ball to the five-yard line. Reese went over for his second touchdown. Seven kicked his second goal, and the count was now 14 to 0.

After the next kick-off the teams bickered around in the middle of the field for some time, but after a little while the Juniors took the ball and started for a touchdown—they having gotten the impression that the score was too one-sided. A twelve-yard forward pass—the only successful pass of the game—and a five-yard penalty inflicted on the Seniors, put them on their opponent's twenty-yard line. Dave Bowman made six yards around left end. Seven Meyer left the field with a broken nose, Compton taking his place. Israel plunged through center for five yards. The Seniors were penalized to their five-yard line. Time was taken out while Referee Howard chased the excited rooters from the field. Talbot made one yard through the line. Stone failed to gain. The Seniors were penalized half the distance to their goal. Israel gained one foot and nine inches. Talbot failed to gain. Time was called, and the game was over.

Score, 14 to 0 for the Seniors, and L. O. Chatt left the field in tears.

Bowman and Israel were the first magnitude stars in the Junior firmament, while the Senior leaders were Reese, Meyer, Southwick and Charlesworth. The officials were Howard, referee; Balis, umpire, and Norris, head linesman.

STUDENTS TO AID IN BELGIAN RELIEF

Urged to Take Copies of the Appeal For Relief Home With Them—Secure at Y. W. or Y. M. C. A.

Students who are going home for Thanksgiving are requested to call at the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. for copies of the appeal of the Belgian Relief Committee, of Lincoln, describing the work of the committee and explaining its needs. Take as many copies as you can hope to distribute, or can leave, for distribution, with some responsible person. Students remaining in Lincoln are requested to enclose copies of this appeal in letters sent home. The committee asks this favor in the interests of spreading information in regard to the relief work throughout the state.

BLUFF goes a long way in some things. But you never saw it keep a poor player on a big league team or make a poor tobacco stay put.

Velvet Joe

The way VELVET, The Smoothest Smoking Tobacco, is forging ahead proves one thing—that the public believe what VELVET JOE is telling them, try the tobacco, believe in that, and remain believers. Velvet quality holds the smoker. 10c tins and 5c metal-lined bags.

Lippell & Myers Tobacco Co.

See Our Die Stamped University of Nebraska Tablet Correspondence Paper, all Sizes 25c.

COLLEGE BOOK STORE FACING THE CAMPUS.

THE University School of Music Established 1894

Opposite the University Campus — Eleventh and R Instruction given in all branches of music. Students may enroll at any time. Beginners accepted. Prices reasonable WILLARD KIMBALL, Director

University Y. M. C. A. Cafeteria IN THE TEMPLE FOR UNIVERSITY FOLKS ONLY Quality Economy Convenience Meal Hours, 7:00—8:30 11:00—1:30 5:30—7:00.

Early Shopping for Christmas

THE SLOGAN

Our Christmas Stock is here. Drop in and Get First Choice

The UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE Phone B-3684 340 No. 11th

Die Stamped Stationery

Any one or two letters stamped in any color or two quires of fine paper with envelopes to match $1.00.

5 QUIRES $3.00 See Our Samples

HALLETT Uni Jeweler

Estb. 1871 1143 O