SOCIETY COLUMN

The University Faculty Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. G. W. A. Luckey, Wednesday afternoon.

Edwin C. Ewing, former student at the University of Nebraska, and graduate of the University of Washington, has been appointed deputy prosecutor of King county, Washington, of which Seattle is the county seat. Mr. Ewing was born in Central City, Nebraska, and was county judge of Merrick county, Nebraska, when twenty-three years old.

Rumor has it that Leo R. Lowry is engaged to Miss Marie Krug of South Omaha.

Mrs. Tenie Worley is visiting her brother, Judge Allen W. Field. She is the widow of the late Rev. James H. Worley, '80, '92, who died in China, where he was engaged in missionary work after graduating from the University of Nebraska. Mrs. Worley, after visiting in Lincoln, will visit in Delaware, Ohio.

Charles J. Warner, '99, and Esther P. Anderson, both of Waverly, were married at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Lincoln hotel parlors. Following the ceremony an eight-course dinner was served. Mrs. Warner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Anderson of Waverly, graduated from the Waverly high school and studied at Wesleyan University, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for a trip on the Pacific coast and will be at home on their 1,200 acre farm near Waverly after February 1.

The banquet and cabaret to be given the Cornhusker football team by the Omaha alumni of the University at the University Club of Omaha, December 15, will be an open event which any Nebraska booster may attend. Arrangements are being made to accommodate more than three hundred Cornhuskers. Amos Thomas, '09, is chairman of the committee for the distribution of tickets and other members of the committee are: Frank Woodland, '00; Samuel Rees, '04; W. C. Ramsey, '07; Ralph Van Orsdel, '06; Robert Manley, '07; Frank C. Builta, '08; Walter Kenner, '09; John Latenser, Stuart Gould and Robert Switzer, former students of the University.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Father, mother, sister, brother, sweetheart, lover. What will you take them for Christmas?

We have a little booklet containing hundreds of classified suggestions for Christmas. A copy will be given free to each one who mentions the "Nebraskan."
