NEBRASKA'S MEN

DR. CONDRA TAKES MOVING PICTURES OF AGRICULTURALISTS

ALL PICTURES ON TONIGHT

Tonight is University Night at City Auditorium—Many Reels of Fine Pictures to Be Shown Free

There are many men in Nebraska interested and working along agricultural and horticultural lines who are of national importance within their respective lines and who have helped make Nebraska famous. The State Conservation Commission, realizing their worth and the respect which is accorded them at the present time and the reverence with which their names will be regarded in the future, decided to preserve their pictures and thus keep their names fresh in the eyes of their admirers. Their pictures were taken yesterday afternoon in the greenhouse. Each man came into view, made his little talk along the line in which he is particularly interested, and then vanished. Meanwhile Doctor Condra had his ever present machine focused upon him, and all that is lacking is the voice to make the reproduction complete.

Doctor Bessey was the first man whose pictures were taken. Doctor Bessey was the first man whom the Associated Agriculturalists ever banqueted and a man who is known throughout the whole United States.

S. C. Bassett was the next man on the program. He is a prominent member of the different state agricultural boards, and has two particular hobbies. The first is in securing libraries for public schools and the second in promoting the dairy interests. Doctor Condra snapped him in the act of reading a book, which picture will aptly illustrate his two hobbies.

Rev. C. S. Harrison of York, Nebraska, next stepped into view. He has done much in raising nursery plants and flowers, being particularly interested in floral culture. Mr. Harrison, together with Mr. Bassett, are the honored guests at the associated banquet this year.

TWO NEW COURSES IN JOURNALISM

Professor Fogg Will Give Practical Courses in Newspaper Writing and Editing

The second semester schedule issued yesterday announces news of interest to Nebraska students who have been working to get additional opportunities for practical training in journalism. There are listed two new courses by Prof. M. M. Fogg, professor of rhetoric.

These new courses are listed as Newspaper Writing (Rhetoric 43) and Newspaper Editing (Rhetoric 45). Each is a two-hour course. The hours of meeting are to be arranged. It is understood that the classes will meet evenings in the middle of the week.

The offering of these courses is the result of action taken by Sigma Delta Chi, the journalistic fraternity. Two weeks ago a committee composed of C. A. Sorensen, chairman, C. H. Epperson and Merrill V. Reed, was appointed by the society to see what could be done to meet the immediate need for training in practical newspaper work. The two courses are the result of the committee's work.

JUNIOR PLAY WILL BE GIVEN IN MARCH

Date Announced for March 19—Very Favorable Sale of Advance Tickets Reported

The date of the Junior play has finally been arranged to take place at the Oliver on the evening of March 19. Thus far the chairman of the committee reports a favorable advance sale, but definite amount taken in will not be published for some time. The name of the play has not as yet been chosen. All particulars will appear in a following issue.

COURSE IN SCANDINAVIAN LITERATURE

Was Not Announced in the Regular Calendar Through Some Mistake

By some oversight the calendar number and the hours credit for Norwegian Literature have not been indicated in the printed schedule. This course, which is open to all who have a working knowledge of one of the Scandinavian languages, is No. 6 in the catalogue, with two hours credit. Both Norwegian and Danish literature will be studied. Hours to be arranged.

PROGRESS BEING MADE FOR UNIVERSITY NIGHT

All Organizations Requested to Plan Stunts and Prepare Them for the Stage

University Night plans are now being formulated. Plans are to have the event given early in March and to make it a clever and interesting take-off on University life in general. It has not yet been definitely decided where the stunts will be given, but an Oliver theatre date is being considered. Every organization in school is invited to work up a scene showing, in a way that will be recalled as "good," some phase of "Uni life," and to submit it to the committee. Quite a number of these synopses have already been handed in. About February 1 these briefs will be put on before the committee for criticism or approval. The best of them will be chosen to constitute the University Night program. The earnest co-operation of the organizations and student body with the committee, and a feeling of active responsibility on every one's part in working it up and advertising it, is believed to be necessary from the start, and the only thing that will make it an untold success.

THE GIRL ASSOCIATE

ERROR OCCURRING IN DAILY NEBRASKAN CORRECTED

BOTH GIRLS NOW ELIGIBLE

If Two Boys Receive Highest Number of Votes, Girl Will Still Be Chosen—Keen Competition for Honor

An error appeared in the Wednesday's issue. The statement was made that out of the four associate editors one is to be a boy and the other a girl. The Publication Board announces that the two having the highest votes will be selected, provided that one of them is a girl. If the two highest candidates are boys then the third highest candidate, who will be a girl, will be chosen for one of the positions. It is possible that both of the successful candidates may be girls, providing that their total votes justify their election.

The polls will be open from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 5 p. m. Frank Perkins and Guy Reed will have charge of the election. Printed lists of the paid-up subscribers have been furnished to the officials in charge of the election. A list of those who subscribed for the paper but did not pay up has also been furnished them. Any persons on that list may become eligible to vote by paying up their subscriptions today.

Extraordinary precautions are being taken to have an honest election. Any attempts to vote on other people's names will be dealt with very vigorously. In fact, the Publication Board promises to punish any one who tries any crooked work in connection with the election. There is a determined sentiment on the part of the officials to cut out the dirty work which has too often played a part in former elections. This announcement is made in order that those who are morally weak may not yield to unfair practices and when caught plead that they did not know that such actions were to be punished, thinking that "everything is fair in politics."

Students are urged to obey carefully all the instructions about voting, in order that their votes may be sure to be counted.

KOSMET MUSIC TO BE GIVEN AT JUNIOR HOP

All Who Have Heard Music Written by Scott for Kosmet Play Are Loud in Its Praise

For all those who succeeded in getting tickets for the Junior Hop a rare treat is in store, as the 1915 Kosmet music is to be played by Scott's orchestra for the dancing. This music has every ragtime, past, present and future, beaten for melody and "pep" and the committee thinks that this alone will insure the most successful hop of the season. Mr. Scott, who composed the music, has also arranged all the orchestra parts and himself plays the piano. Accordingly, the music will come straight from the hand of the artist, which will insure satisfaction.
