DAILY'S NEW POLICY

NEWS SYSTEM ADOPTED BY THE PUBLICATION BOARD

A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION FREE

The Campaign for Subscribers Will Continue Throughout This Week—Investigate This Offering

The business management of the Nebraskan has worked out a new system for subscriptions to the paper, which is being put into practice for the first time this semester. This new policy of the business management was outlined the last two days of last semester, and is again contained in today's issue. It is very simple and enables everyone to secure the paper on much more favorable terms than ever before.

According to its terms, any Senior subscribing to the paper this semester will receive it during this semester and also during the first semester of next year. This enables a Senior to secure the paper for two complete semesters for the price of one semester.

Any Junior subscribing for this semester and for the first semester of next year will receive the paper for the last semester of his senior year free.

Every Sophomore subscribing for the next three semesters will receive the paper during his entire senior year free of charge, or in other words, he will receive five semesters for the price of three. In a like manner all Freshmen subscribing for the paper for the next five semesters will receive it during their senior year free. Thus they will secure seven semesters worth of literature for the price of five.

This system is based on the supposition that every upperclassman has taken the paper during the time he has been in the University, and so gives every member of the Senior and Junior classes credit for their past subscriptions whether they took the paper or not. Of course, as all upper classmen take the Daily Nebraskan, no credit has been given except where deserved.

The money does not need to be paid until it is due from semester to semester and so every student should avail himself of this opportunity of boosting for his University and his University paper. The campaign for subscriptions will continue throughout this week and it is hoped that the very excellent record of the first semester will be more than reached.

All Seniors Take Notice

Leave your home address with the Daily Nebraskan, and if you pay your subscription for this semester before March 1st, the paper will be mailed to you free of charge the first semester of next year. Fifth and sixth year students are classified as Juniors and Seniors, respectively.

ANNUAL SENIOR PROM SATURDAY NIGHT

The annual Senior Prom will be held February 6 at the Lincoln Hotel. This prom is always the big one of the year and this one bids fair to exceed all the former ones. This is also the prom which will be different. One of the unique features of the evening will be singing during luncheon by a picked quartet from the Kosmet cast. One of the best orchestras in Lincoln will furnish the music.

All Juniors

Will receive the Nebraskan free of charge the last semester of next year if their subscription is paid before March 1st for this semester, and before October 15th for the first semester of next year.

LARGE REGISTRATION FROM TIRED STUDENTS

Probably Larger Registration Than During First Semester—Classes Began Promptly This Morning

The usual eleventh hour rush characterized the closing evening of the registration days for the second semester. A large number, however, finishing their examinations early in the week, completed registering Wednesday and Thursday, and thus not only avoided the rush, but also managed a few days' visit with home folks.

But on the whole, Registrar Greer and his corps of assistants have reduced an almost endless amount of tangled red tape to a few minutes' formalities, and the large number of students that semi-annually demand attention receive it promptly and efficiently.

Several new courses appeared in the second semester bulletin and it is reported that many have signed for these. Also there was the rush for those courses considered "pipes." Luckily there is a diversity of opinion on what is and what is not "fruit."

The exact total registration figure has not yet been given out, but it is expected that it will exceed that of the past semester. Many who are occupied with work delay entering until the second semester.

Classes began promptly this morning, but it is to be expected that the first week will hardly witness the work in full swing.

LAST CLASS DANCE GIVEN AT LINCOLN

Freshman Class Given Hop Last Saturday Evening—Over Eighty Couples in Attendance

Over eighty couples gathered at the Lincoln Hotel Saturday evening for the Freshman Hop. The class hops during the year have all drawn a goodly number of people and this was no exception to the rule. Chairman Moser must be given credit for staging a most excellent affair.

Scott's orchestra furnished the music for the enterprising freshmen. Chaperones were brought by most of the younger generation.

HUSKERS' BUSY WEEK

LOTS OF WORK TO DO IN CORNHUSKER BASKETBALL CAMP

MYERS OUT FOR THE SEASON

Will Not Come Back to School—Wesleyan Contest Friday—Ministers Have Great Team—Lincoln High Defeats St. Joseph

The Cornhusker basketball team has a great big job cut out for them during the ensuing weeks. The first thing the team and its lengthy mentor must do is to fill the place left vacant by the retirement of "Seven" Myers, erstwhile particular star in the Cornhusker constellation. The gap left in the lineup by Mr. S. Myers' retirement is one of discouraging proportions, and is causing Coach Stiehm some agitation. Myers has decided definitely that he will not return to school this semester. His absence is sure to affect the team materially.

The other thing which must be done before the job is complete is to prepare the team for a good old-fashioned Methodist conference, said which conference is to take place in University Place next Friday night with the Wesleyan ministers. There is one thing lingering in the memory of Cornhusker rooters which is ever rising up inside them and crying for vengeance. The memory of the liberal donations toward building the new Wesleyan gymnasium, which Cornhusker rooters presented the embryo parsons a year ago, is fast becoming extremely poignant as the hour for vengeance draws near.

CHARLES FREY OUT FOR CORNHUSKER

Two Men Now in Race for Junior Managing Editor of the 1916 Cornhusker

In this issue of the Daily Nebraskan the political pot starts boiling. Charles M. Frey announces himself as a candidate for the office of junior managing editor of the 1916 Cornhusker. This is an office which the voters in the Sophomore class fill at the general election to be held on February 16.

Mr. Frey has served on the Daily Nebraskan for the past two semesters and is claimed by his friends to be the most capable man in the Sophomore class for this honor. He is majoring in journalism and will no doubt make his opponents a strong fight for the honor which he is seeking. S. B. Claar, whose announcement appeared some time ago, is the only other man in the field so far.

Glee Club

The Glee Club has received an invitation to take part in a program at Holdrege the latter part of March. The club made a very favorable impression at its first appearance recently.

GIRLS SERVE TEA THROUGHOUT WEEK

Quiet Corner of Y. W. C. A. Rooms Occupied by Girls Resting from Strenuous Examinations

As a recreation from the strenuous hours of examinations and registration during the past week, tea has been served in a quiet corner of the Y. W. C. A. rooms. A large number of girls sought rest there each day and were immediately served with tea and wafers by pleasant hostesses.

This has been a custom to serve tea on the afternoons of registration week for a number of years and is very much enjoyed by all the girls who find time to spend a few moments there. It is also a very good place for new girls to get acquainted for they are always cordially received.

HENDERSON SPEAKS AT TEMPLE THEATRE

Vocational Institute Opened Saturday Morning by Rev. Jeffrey—Many Good Addresses Given

The University of Nebraska Vocational Institute was held Saturday, January 30, at the University Y. M. C. A. at 10 a. m. The day was opened by devotion. Following this the Rev. T. W. Jeffrey of the St. Paul's church of this city gave an exceedingly interesting address on the "Personal Development in the Christian Ministry." Next, the Rev. H. H. Harmon of the First Christian church of Lincoln spoke on the "Minister's Personal Influence." After this, Dr. H. R. Chapman talked on "The Personal Reward of the Minister."

At 11:15 the well known Bishop T. S. Henderson delivered a thrilling message on "The New Ministry and Its Message." After this address the regular weekly "round up" of the Y. M. C. A. members closed the morning session.

In the afternoon at 2:15 the bishop gave a second address on "The Minister as a Social Factor." His talk was followed by a short, practical speech by Dr. Lucile Eaves of the University of Nebraska. The question box was opened by Rev. Titus and the discussions which followed were rapid and interesting. At 3:45 the session was closed by another brief talk by the Rev. Titus Lowe.

LITERARY SOCIETY GOES SLEIGH RIDING

Ten Couples From Union Literary Society Spend Evening Sleighbing and Oyster Eating

The members of the Union Literary Society went sleigh riding last Friday night. The crowd was composed of about ten couples and that they had a good time is the least that can be said of it. The party left the Temple at 8:50 and for the next two hours the jolly Unions rode through the streets of Lincoln. At 11:00 o'clock they arrived at the home of Miss Hazel Allen at 1500 C street, where they were served with an oyster supper.

RUSHING IS CLOSED

SORORITIES PLEDGE FROM FIVE TO SIX ON SATURDAY

LIST OF PLEDGES ANNOUNCED

Comparatively Little "Fighting" Was Indulged in Over Prospective Social Leaders—Three Not Pledging

Saturday afternoon at six o'clock the formal pledging closed. From five to six the successful, and also condescending, girls marched in single file up to the home of their would-be sisters. The closing days of the past week were not as full of the wildness of close competition as those of last fall. Apparently every girl had already selected her future home and merely went through the formality of a "rushing season" to better equip herself for the time when she, too, would have to assume the task of selecting the green material from the woods. The following list gives the names of the pledges, their home address, and the name of the organization getting them. If the list contains errors or is incomplete, it will be corrected in tomorrow's issue:

- Alpha Omicron Pi
 Doris Deyo, Bradford, Ill.
 Ethel Killee, Beatrice, Nebr.
- Chi Omega
 Catherine Juckett.
 Elma Reeder, Hot Springs, S. D.

Not Pledging
