SENIOR PROM MENU

WILL BE HELD AT THE LINCOLN
HOTEL SATURDAY NIGHT

SIMPLE PROGRAM TO BE USED

Extra Money Will Be Expended Upon
Little Dinner—Quartet Will Give Numbers During Intermission

The Senior Prom is generally recognized as the big social function of the year. This year, in order to live up to the reputation made by the seniors in former years, the committee has decided to make the prom something different. That is to say, it is to be distinctly original.

If we may criticize the management of previous class proms, we would say that too much money has been wasted upon fancy programs or cheap favors which your fair friend may paste in her memory book or throw in the fire. This year, however, simplicity in the way of programs will be the order. A very neat program is to be provided which every girl will be pleased to put in her memory book, but, remember, the elaborate part of the occasion will not be the programs.

The plans are to start the dance at 7:30, running in about ten dances before 10 o'clock, at which time the following will be served in the big dining room:

Menu

Oyster Cocktail
Wafers

Olives Midgets
Chicken and Mushroom Patties
Peas in Butter Sandwiches
Neopolitan Ice Cream
Cake Coffee

Between courses a picked quartet from the Kosmet Klub cast will present some of the song hits from the new opera, "The Easy Mark." These selections will no doubt be of special interest to all, since the play is but a few weeks distant.

After this part of the program the dancing will be resumed. One of the best orchestras in the city will furnish the music for the dancing. Of the eighty-five tickets which have been validated, the majority have been sold but a few are still to be obtained from the following:

O. H. Zumwinkel.
Marie Robertson.
Ruth McMichael.
Robert Holland.
Don Mapes.
Carl Ganz.
Willard Folsom.
Phil Southwick.

NEXT "MIXER" PARTY ON CHARTER DAY

Matinee Dance Will Follow the Field
Meet and Awarding of Medals

The next all-University "mixer" will be held February 15th. This will be in the nature of a matinee dance. Promptly at 2:00 p. m. the Charter Day field meet takes place. Following the field meet will be the presentation of the medals. The "mixer" will close the afternoon's program. Definite arrangements will be announced later.

DEAN BESSEY SLIGHTLY BETTER

Has Been Seriously Ill for the Past Week—Dr. J. F. Stevens in Attendance

Dr. Charles E. Bessey, Ph. D., LL. D., who has been seriously ill the last week, seems some better today. Dr. J. F. Stevens says the change is hardly perceptible, but hopes for a greater improvement in the near future.

CO-ED NUMBER OF AWGWAN A SUCCESS

Edition Pays Tribute to the Leading Role the Fair Sex Plays in School Affairs

The "co-ed number" of the Awgwan came out during exam week and brought cheer to countless students buried in the midst of examination gloom.

Co-ed number it is indeed. There are co-eds of all sorts, descriptions, and previous conditions of conquest. Toasts, jokes and editorial about them pay tribute to their elusive and subtle charms. No one can read the paper without being impressed of the important part played by the fair sex in this school.

The number is full of spicy articles and snappy cartoons. Especially deserving of mention are the tabloid entitled "High Finance" and the page of cartoons depicting the possible future of the male sex. The management have certainly kept up the high standard set this year.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN OPENED LAST SUNDAY

Bishop Henderson Spoke Before University Men at Oliver—Special
Meetings to Be Held in March

Bishop Henderson spoke at the Oliver Theatre last Sunday afternoon to a house crowded with University men. Chancellor Avery presided over the meeting, which was under the auspices of the University associations and the University pastors of the city.

This was the opening meeting of the special religious campaign which will culminate in a series of meetings to be held from the 10th to the 14th of next month. These March meetings will be led by Raymond Robbins of Chicago, who is especially fitted to carry on this line of work. This campaign is also under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the churches of the city.

A large force of volunteer student workers are now being organized for the coming campaign, and this class will meet every Tuesday evening in the Temple, under the leadership of Rev. R. A. Waite of the First Congregational church of this city.

Special Chorus

Special chorus for men meets every Monday evening at 7 o'clock in Music Hall. Registration for this gives credit equivalent to the regular chorus work Monday and Wednesday at 5 p. m. See Mrs. Raymond, Temple, 4 to 5 p. m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, for any detailed information desired.

STAFF IS TO MEET

COMPLETE CORNHUSKER FORCE
MEETS TOMORROW NIGHT

WILL MAKE FULL SCHEDULE

All Artists Are Urged to Attend—Refreshments Will Be Served and a General Good
Time Had

The Cornhusker staff will meet in the Cornhusker office on the fourth floor of University Hall, Wednesday evening, February 3d, at 7:30 o'clock. This will be the most important gathering the staff have yet had and the editors are expecting great results from the meeting. All those on the staff, including the janitor boy and the waste basket carrier, are urged and commanded to attend. To make sure that no one will stay away arrangements have been made whereby refreshments will be served. Plans will also be discussed and completed for the future Cornhusker jollifications.

Work is progressing nicely on the book, according to the editors, and the publication will be out much earlier than ever before. Anyone having material or snap shots which they desire to see in this year's book should hand their work in at their earliest opportunity. Snap shots are especially desired and those who have not been successful in placing their pictures before the public should take this chance.

Besides the regular staff, the editor wishes to see Burke Taylor, Howard Updegraff, Bennett Vig, Dorothy Ellsworth, Edna Froyd and S. B. Claar. The first three of these students have but lately been selected to aid in putting out the best Cornhusker the University has ever issued. A complete schedule will be made during this meeting and plans laid for coming activities.

Leslie Slack will be on hand and has requested that all would-be artists report to him and try out.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET MEETING WEDNESDAY

Open Meeting for All Committee Members of Association—Work of New Semester to Be Arranged

Tomorrow evening at 7:15 the Y. W. C. A. cabinet will hold its big opening meeting of the second semester. The members of all the Y. W. C. A. committees will be admitted and plans for the work of the semester will be discussed. Several important issues will doubtless be decided at that time, so the president is anxious to have a full meeting.

The work of the cabinet this year has been especially successful and several new committees have been created. This renders the routine of the association more systematized and easier and its results much more effective.

STAFF INCREASED

Taylor, Vig and Updegraff Selected to Assist in Publishing the 1915
Cornhusker

Messrs. Burke Taylor, Bennett Vig and Howard Updegraff have been selected to do work on the present Cornhusker and will make their initial appearance tomorrow night, when the staff gets together for their first real session.

EXTRA FEES PAID FOR REGISTRATION

Those Who Failed to Register Last Week Must Pay Special Fee
of Three Dollars

Certainly the elements during the past week showed but little semblance to the weather of a week some four and a half months ago. There were other differences as great, but none of them were great enough to draw Nebraska students from their desire to reregister. The enrollment for the second semester is reported as normal, although the exact figures are not yet known. Reports of failures and conditions are not made up as yet. This will necessitate a change of courses later in a few cases. A few late registration fees of three dollars were collected yesterday. In all probability those students will be practically the last to register, with the exception of the graduate students and city teachers registration, which is scheduled for this week.

PROFESSOR EAVES AT CONVOCATION TODAY

Illustrated Lecture on "Child Labor in the United States"—Other Interesting Programs Arranged

Professor Lucile Eaves will give an illustrated lecture on "Child Labor in the United States" on Tuesday, February 2, at chapel. Child Labor Day is being observed throughout the United States in institutions of learning. On account of registration, the University was not able to observe the day, but it has scheduled one as close as possible to the original date.

On Thursday, the University Cadet Band will play at convocation. On Tuesday, the 9th, the next symphony concert will be given. February the 3d, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening, Dr. Alma Webster Powell will give an address in the Temple on "Music as a Human Need." This address will be illustrated by vocal selections interpreting the music of various nations. Miss Powell is a grand opera singer and also a scholar in music, obtaining a Ph. D. at Columbia University of New York. No admission will be charged. All students are welcome.

Regular Chorus

Regular chorus work, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 5 to 6 p. m., in the Temple. Registration means free admission to all concerts of the Damsrosch Symphony Orchestra of New York, which is coming for the May Festival. See Mrs. Raymond, Temple, 4 to 5 p. m., Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

BASKET BALL MEET

NEBRASKA HIGH SCHOOLS COME
TO LINCOLN NEXT MONTH

SIXTY-FOUR TEAMS IN 1914

Entry Blanks Are Being Sent Out today—Tournament Will Be Held
March 13-14—Guy Reed
in Charge

Manager of Athletics Guy Reed is making arrangements for the fifth annual basketball tournament of Nebraska high schools, which will be held here March 10-13. The tournament, which is held under the auspices of the athletic department of the University, is the biggest thing in interscholastic basketball to be found anywhere in the country. Last year more high schools were present at the tournament than were ever gathered at one time for competition in the annals of high school basketball. Entry blanks will be sent out this week. From the number of inquiries received by Manager Reed, present indications are that last year's record of sixty-four teams entered will be surpassed.

There will be three separate tournaments on the program for this year's tourney: Class A, for the bigger schools and those teams which have made the best record for the season; Class B, for the smaller schools, and Class C, or consolation tournament, for those teams eliminated in the first round of Class A and Class B tournaments. Class A and Class B games will be held in the Armory, Class A in the gymnasium and Class B in the chapel. Class C games will be staged in the City Y. M. C. A. The semi-finals and finals of the teams competing in Classes A and B will be held in the City Auditorium, which will eliminate an objectionable feature of last year's tournament. Hundreds of people were turned away on the days of the finals last year because they could not be seated. It is thought that the Auditorium will afford ample seating capacity.

The awards for first and second places and the individual medals are the same, excepting, of course, the engraving on the cups and medals. The teams winning first places will be given silver loving cups; those winning second places will get banners. Individual members of the teams winning first places in the three tournaments will be given gold medals with appropriate inscriptions.

There is considerable speculation rife as to what school will carry off the honors in this year's tournament. Lincoln High took first place last year. In previous years Geneva, Omaha and Beatrice won the tournament, thus getting premier honors in Nebraska interscholastic basketball.

Since the first of August the employment bureau of the University of Minnesota has found work for 369 students, and could have handled more had there been more requests. The bureau is attempting to centralize information in regard to student musicians and student orchestras desiring employment and is building up a student stenographic service.—Ex.
