REPORTER STRIKES SNAG WHILE OUT FOR STORY
Might Have Known That Such Names Would Be Encountered Only in the Corner Grocery

A very sad accident happened in the Nebraskan office today as a result of a too ambitious news gathering policy. One of the hopeful and good-natured young scribes was assigned the tremendous task of reporting the war news of the present conflict now raging among our European brethren. Accordingly, he sharpened his best pencil and sauntered down to the village grocery to obtain the latest reports. When he arrived he was informed that the Russian offensive was being pushed very vigorously by General Pzxcresgahniovitch along the Wshtullndh and Awfgtusun rivers. The objective point as explained by Count Revasnmoklpzth, personal aide on the general's staff, is the Kcvstruifgw mountains. There it is planned to meet the eastern half of the western section of the middle part of the

DAMROSCH ORCHESTRA SECOND MAY FESTIVAL
One of the Few Stops Made on Way to California Exposition Will Be at Lincoln
The Damrosch Symphony Orchestra of New York has been engaged for the California Exposition. It will make very few stops, but one of these will be Lincoln. If the University chorus is large it is hoped that it may be arranged for it to sing with the orchestra in the Ninth Beethoven Symphony. This would make a fitting climax to the symphony program. Some choral work of high value will be given in any case. Members of the chorus obtain free admission to the May Festival.

other offensive under General Cvrtuyiposch. Together it is expected that they will sweep everything before them until they get to the city of Scvghtry, where a new army, commanded by Duke Xcsaewdfgtgheg, is being prepared. Should this movement be a failure, the army will depend on the division under Major Sadfrtyghehnbvfbeth. Should this fail, but there is little—
(At this point the reporter's finger broke, so the story had to be discontinued.)

A LITTLE BOY SAID!
"Memory is the thing we forget with." He was right. Many of the delightful experiences of your college life will be forgotten unless you preserve them. Whether it be a picnic, a party, a game, a photo, a moonlight stroll, a frolic or a clipping from
THE NEBRASKAN,
Preserve it. Our Memory Books, photo albums, diaries, and scrap books are ideal for such records. Preserve your pleasant experiences today for your treasured memories tomorrow.
