FOURTH SYMPHONY
NEXT CONVOCATION
 Tuesday Students May Hear Symphony
 Characterized by Brightness and Gaiety of Mood

Next Tuesday at convocation the Fourth Symphony of Beethoven will be rendered by the University String Quartet, with Mrs. Raymond at the organ. The series of performances of which this is one is full of interest to all who desire to become acquainted with the famous creations of the great composers.

This symphony is characterized by brightness and gaiety of mood. It is a mistake to think that Beethoven was always in melancholic mood; no one could at times be more light-hearted than he.

Especially fine are the noble Adagio, and whimsical Scherzo, but all of the symphony is worth hearing as the production of a unique master, who could sound the heights and depths of human feeling.

Financial Success

COLLEGE NOTES

Colorado.—A man in the state penitentiary of Utah has written to the authorities asking that he be sent several books with which to commence his pursuit of learning. The matter has been referred to the University of Utah.

Illinois.—The glass bills at Illinois are reported to be considerable, since 500 yards of glass are broken per month. The students have been requested to stop acting like English suffragettes and desist from such destruction.

Drake.—Two students ran a race to determine the best long distance runner. The winner received a stack of cakes for his breakfast, and what the loser got he had to pay for.

Pennsylvania.—One student out of every ten in school is the holder of a free scholarship. Nearly half are working to pay either part or all of their expenses.

Miami.—The department of physical education is to inaugurate a course for the training of athletic coaches.

Wabash.—"Old Wabash," the new college song, will be ready for the students by the middle of February.

Pennsylvania.—The university has passed a resolution whereby a college degree will be required for entrance into the law school. The action makes the standard of admission as high as that of any law school in the world.

PAID IN NOVEL WAY

Two Freshmen Pay Their Own Expenses by Selling Potato Chips

There are many ways in which students are able to earn money to help pay their way through their college course. But it seems as though there are always a few who are quick to see an opening for a new method of making money. Some have agencies of different sorts, others wait table and care for furnaces. But once of the most novel of ideas has been created by two freshmen, one in the liberal arts school and the other in the school of pharmacy. These two men are at the present time manufacturing and selling potato chips. Already the plan is working well, for several of the merchants have agreed to handle their product.

FRESHMAN LAWS
ELECT PRESIDENT

John Riddel Elected President and Jack Emley Vice President—Steam Roller Politics Subdued

The Freshman Law class elected John Riddel president for this semester. He was the unanimous choice for that coveted office although there was talk of much opposition before the time of voting. The office of vice president was only filled after much steam roller work on the part of some members of the class. The vote was tie between Jack Emley and Stevens, and only after much speech making and excitement did the new president declare Emley the choice of the class. The meeting then adjourned.

Fraternity Trouble at Syracuse

Considerable trouble has been experienced at Syracuse University recently in regard to initiation without the proper pre-requisite scholarship. The following rules have been inaugurated by a faculty committee:

1. No student shall be initiated until he has been in residence one full semester.
2. No student shall be initiated who has failed in more than 20 per cent of the work required of a regular student in the college in which he is registered (to illustrate: 15 hours are required in liberal arts).
3. A student failing to pass the required number of hours at the regular semester examinations shall not be initiated until he has completed a full year of work in residence and passed 80 per cent of the work required of a regular student in the college in which he is registered.
4. Entrance deficiencies shall be counted in determining a candidate's eligibility.
5. The Registrar shall certify the eligibility in the Daily Orange.

Wyer Writes for Midland

The February issue of "The Midland" contains an article by Malcolm G. Wyer, librarian of the University of Nebraska, on "The Drama League of America." Mr. Wyer was formerly librarian of the University of Iowa. Other contributors to the current number are William Ellery Leonard of Madison, Wisconsin; Selden L. Whitcomb of Lawrence, Kansas; H. B. Alexander of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Lewis Worthington Smith of Des Moines, Iowa.—Daily Iowan.

Catholic Students

Ninety-eight tickets have been validated for the Catholic Students' Club dance to be held in the Lindell Hotel, February 13, 1915. No more tickets will be validated for this dance. No complimentary tickets have been issued.
