

Free Scholarships

Students will be interested in the free scholarships which are being awarded by the Review of Reviews company. This scholarship fund was founded by the Review of Reviews company in 1910, and offers an organized plan whereby self-supporting students are enabled to win an education. Over 1,200 students have worked successfully under the direction of the managers of the scholarship fund, which is thoroughly endorsed by President Wilson and by other educators all over the country.

CONCERT GIVEN FOR BOHEMIAN RELIEF

Program Under Auspices of Komensky Klub—Suffering in Bohemia is Equal to That in Belgium

The Harmonique Trio gave a concert in the interests of the Bohemian relief fund at the Temple Theatre, Saturday evening at 8:15. The suffering of the Bohemians is said to be equal to that of the Belgians, and the Komensky Club took this opportunity to aid this suffering people.

The members of the trio are Mrs. August Molzer, Miss Lillian Eiche and Miss Edith Burlingim.

The following program was presented:

- Elegie Jiranek
Extase Ganne
Norwegian Dance Grieg
Harmonique Trio
Romance (G) Beethoven
Z Domoviny Smetana-Molzer
Twilight Natrowski-Molzer
August Molzer and Harmonique Trio
Caprice Dancla-Molzer
Gavotte from "Mignon"
..... Thomas-Sarasate
August Molzer
Slavonic Dance Dvorak
Minuet Handel
The Bee Schubert-Molzer
Harmonique Trio
Capricietto Mendelssohn
Serenade Molzer
Hungarian Dance (7) Brahms-Joachim
August Molzer

The different numbers were enthusiastically received by a large audience. The Slavonic Dance deserves special mention, and also the Serenade, which is one of Mr. Molzer's own compositions.

Long, Long Ago

Long, long ago—so long ago,
When worlds were beautiful and free,
You were a little pink-white rose,
And I—yes I—a honey bee.

Long, long ago—so long ago,
When you were blooming on the plain,
I came and kissed you softly, for—
I was a little drop of rain.

Long, long ago—so long ago,
When I was a little stream
You made me laugh and sparkle so,
For you were a wee sunbeam.

Pat was hard at work in the Baldwin Locomotive works when the foreman, on his rounds, stopped and eyed him sternly.

"Did yez not receive a letter from me sayin' yez was foired?" he demanded.

"Boy's Life" gives Pat's answer: "O! received a letter," answered Pat calmly. "Th' insoid says O! was foired, but th' outside says, 'Return in five days to Baldwin's,' so O!m back." —Ex.

Carpet Tacks Too Much for Night Traffic of Jitneys

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 12.—Some one spread several pounds of ordinary carpet tacks, point upward, along the lakeside drive on North Fortieth street. As a result, twenty disabled jitneys lined the curb between the College Inn and the Latona railroad crossing at 10:30 last night. At various times between 9 o'clock and midnight fifty slightly wounded cars limped into the haven of safety on flat tires. One jitney came in bearing five other drivers, who each carried all the way from one to four punctured tires.

Detectives, motorcycle policemen, policemen on beats and police autos containing sergeants and drivers were detailed to work on the case. These were of no avail and the last reserve, the street cleaning corps, came to the rescue.

Some of the drivers have, in a measure, been recompensed for the loss of their tires by the splendid collection of carpet tacks they now have.

Purdue's football squad will meet monthly during the remainder of the year to listen to talks by their coach and captain. The meetings are held by the coach in order to bring the men together just as life in the training camp does.
