Vogue DANCING Series
PARTY

LINCOLN HOTEL

Wednesday Evening, March 10th, 9 to 10:30
Wednesday Evening, March 17th, 9 to 10:30

Tickets are $1.25

Which Admits of Attendance To Both Parties

The twenty-five cents is to cover an extra refreshment charge. This arrangement has been made that you may attend a mid-week dancing party, and by dancing no later than 10:30 have ample time that same night to prepare your next day's studies. This, the management is sure, will prove more satisfactory than to conduct Vogue Parties in a public way. Show your appreciation by getting your ticket early, so program, refreshments, etc., can be ordered. The earlier you get your tickets the nicer the parties will be.

Only 90 Tickets Validated for this Series, so Get That Date and Hurry for your Ticket
Subscription List Will Close Saturday, March 6th

See Mr. Schembeck at Speier & Simons for Tickets

Two Parties for the Price of One. $1.25 for Both Parties

LINCOLN HOTEL

NOTE:—There seems to be a mistaken idea that the Wednesday night public dances now being given at the Rosewilde Dance Hall are Vogue Dances. These are not Vogue Parties as no Vogue Parties have been given in this Hall during 1915.

SOPHOMORES WIN DEBATE

In a Lively Discussion Older Men Win
on Question of Munitions of War

The Freshman-Sophomore debate was held last evening in U. 102. The question was: "Resolved, That the sale of munitions of war by citizens of this country to European belligerents should be prohibited." The Sophomores received a unanimous decision.

The discussion was marked by strong clashes between the two teams and a lively and interesting contest was the result.

The Sophomores were represented by A. R. Swenson, A. H. Jensen, and R. B. Waring. The Freshman team members were George Grimes, William C. Cull, and George Craven. The Sophomore team was coached by Dr. Maxey, while the Freshmen were steered by Professor Virtue. The judges were Prof. G. N. Foster, Prof. Guernsey Jones, and O. K. Perrin.
