The Commercial Club is furnishing each company with nine hundred programs. The various posters have been put up on the bill board box and everyone is urged to go and look them over. The management of the Extension movement is very anxious that each one of the ninety members will be present at the meeting with Chancellor Avery at 11:00 a. m. today in Art Hall, Temple.

Signs of the Times.

When you see:

A man and woman clutching each other in a frightful manner, slipping about, tipping almost over, reeling backwards and practically having convulsions, it is a sign they are tangoing.

A woman wearing a little straw hat, low shoes, thin silk stockings and a thin, light suit, it is a sign spring will be here within three or four months.—Ex.
