Datience

Angel of patience! sent to calm Our feverish brows with cooling calm; To lay the storms of hope and fear. And reconcile life's smile and tear; The throbs of wounded pride to still, And make our own our Father's still! —Whittier.

Influence

Though Taylor did not have his way In everything, he said his say; And people heard him plead his cause, And greeted him with loud applause. He was the big man from the north; He had ideas, he set them forth In language so direct it could Be very fairly understood. The only thing that seemed a crime Was that he took up too much time Near every day, upon my oath, In cussing and discussing, both. But Taylor always had a plan, And Taylor is an honest man Who, I dare venture, if he could Would always do the people good. Let justice, though the heavens fall, Be done to statesmen, one and all. That thought has prompted me to fill This space in complimenting Bill, Whose name and fame was well secured

By what the gallery endured In his so well-directed kicks 'Gainst justice and injustice. BIX.

RELAY CARNIVAL LARGEST IN HISTORY

special feature of the meet will be found in the pentathlon event, which will be held on Friday, and a new special event, the medley relays for that day. For the first time a college all 'round championship will be held. The pentathlon event consists of five contests and the athlete making the best score in the five contests will win out and he will have the honor of becoming the all 'round college athlete of theyear. For the first time a 440 yard relay race; a 56 pound weight for distance, and a hop, step and jump will be found on a big college program. In addition, Friday will see two new relay championships inaugurated. Both of these are medley races. In the first the men will run the following distances: The first man 440; the second man 880; the third man three-quarters of a mile and the last man a mile. In the other medley championship the first two men will each run 220 yards; the third man 440 yards, and the last man 660 yards. These special events and the pentathlon should form a most interesting addition to the Relay Carnival.

"Kansas always wins. She grew the champion wheat crop of all the world last year. She produced the champion race horse, the champion cow, the champion hog and the champion alfalfa crop. She has produced the champion baseball pitcher, chess player and checker player, and now she has added to the list the champion prizefighter. I presume the liquor interests will now use this latent achievement of a Kansan to prove that prohibition is a failure in Kansas."—Salina Journal.

Begin What?

The Scotch minister rose and cleared his throat, but remained silent, while the congregation awaited the sermon in puzzled expectancy. At last he spoke: "There's a laddie awa' there in the gallery a-kissin' a lassie," he said. "When he's done ah'll begin."—Balance Sheet.
