won him instant favor with public and press, and then began his flight successward on three continents, Europe, Africa, and America. After singing "Ernani" at the "Scala Theatre" in Milan, where he created a sensation, and was proclaimed an equal of Battistini, he went to Egypt. After a long and successful season at Alexandria and Cairo, he came to the United States as a member of the Boston Opera Company. After his season at the Boston Opera House he was a member of the company which inaugurated the Centennial Opera House in the City of Mexico. The present season Millo Pico has been appearing in concert and recital throughout the United States.

SPLENDID WORK BY GIRLS' TRACK TEAM

Especially Skill Has Been Developed in the High Jumping Contests—Date of Meet Announced This Week

Girls' track athletics are progressing finely, for they practice every day. Next week general practice will begin for everyone. The stunts are running, high jumps, pole-vaulting and heavy weight heaving. Several prodigies in high jumping have developed. Marjorie Green and Frieda Eisenburg have reached four feet every day, with the season barely started.

The meet will not be held on May 12, as scheduled, because Ivy Day exercises will take up the whole afternoon. Either Tuesday or Thursday will be scheduled for the events.

STUDENTS TAKE PART OF JEWISH SLAVES

Many of the University Theatrical Stars Appeared in "Omar
the Tentmaker"

Some of the most noted theatrical stars of the University have appeared before the public in "Omar the Tentmaker." Even though they may have been seen, however, the audience did not probably recognize them since the roles assumed by them were those of Jewish slaves.

This opportunity is frequently open to the University students of dramatics in such plays as "Omar the Tentmaker" and "Joseph and His Brethren."

The Purdue Exponent hints that Nebraska is slow furnishing news. It prints the following in its issue of the 11th:

"Until 2:00 a. m. this morning no message had been received at the Exponent office concerning the conference wrestling meet. Long distance calls to the Chicago Tribune, Chicago Herald and the Daily Illini were unproductive, since none of these papers had been able to obtain news of the meet."

A TRUE fren' is the best investment a feller can make—a needless enemy, the worst. Don't miss a chance o' "castin' bread upon the waters" in the way of a kind word or the passing o' yo' tin o' VELVET.

The smoking of a pipe o' VELVET with a man is the American way of drinking milk in the tent of an Arab—a sign of friendship. And there's nothing like the aged-in-the-wood mellowness of this Smoothest Smoking Tobacco to ripen its acquaintance into friendship. 10c tins and 5c metal-lined bags.

View Book Week
READ

You all know we have advertised our beautiful View Book of the University very strongly, yet the sale has not come up to our expectations.

Now every student surely wants one of these books, and for this week only we are going to offer a special inducement to get them started. There are 16 nice views, 6 1/2 by 8 1/2, bound in a book 11 by 13, and the price is 65c, which is reasonable; but each student who brings this "ad" with him, will receive one of these books at 15c less. 15c less.

Remember the price goes back to 65c after this week
