JUNIORS--SENIORS

BREAKFAST ON STATE FARM CAMPUS

EXTRA CARS LEAVE AT 7:30

All Seniors Invited as Guests—Breakfast Served in Cafeteria Style—Entertainment and Athletic Events

Two extra cars will leave O street at 7:30 Saturday morning in order that all the upper classmen may arrive at the State Farm together for the Junior-Senior breakfast. All Seniors are invited as guests of the Juniors to enjoy the merry making and breakfast taking.

The breakfast to be given in honor of the Seniors is an innovation in inter-class entertainments, but the present Junior class which has been exceptionally successful in managing class affairs are planning for a successful entertainment and hope to establish this event as an annual custom. It appears that the need of such an affair where the upper classmen could meet freely and informally has been felt and the promoters of the idea hope that the proposed breakfast and further entertainment will prove to be the desired event. None but upper classmen will be allowed to attend.

Special arrangements have been made by the chairman of the committee to have the breakfast served on the farm campus in cafeteria style under the direction of the Home Economics department. A variety of articles are included on the menu so that everyone may select to suit his taste.

At a meeting of the Junior committee smaller committees were named to have control of arrangements for special street car service. Junior ticket sale and entertainment. Although no definite schedule has been made for the entertainment and athletic events the ball grounds will be used and a fight to the finish base ball game will probably be staged between the girls. It is expected that several of the athletes who have taken part in previous athletic contests will step out to win more honors for themselves and their class, while there is no doubt that many now unknown stars will step into the limelight.

Varied entertainment will be furnished for both men and women and provision will be made for cars in order that all may return to town at noon.

SORENSEN JUDGED DEBATE IN SOUTH OMAHA

South Omaha—Nebraska City Contest as Judged by C. A. Sorensen and Attorney Anan Raymond

C. A. Sorensen helped judge the South Omaha-Nebraska City debate Monday evening. South Omaha won by a two-to-one decision. Attorney Anan Raymond of Omaha, former secretary to the Chancellor and inter-collegiate debater, was also a judge. Mr. Sorensen says that the debate was unusual in being a debate between three girls and three boys—Nebraska City furnishing the feminine team.

Professor Dean: "Mr. Allison—er—just what is packing?" Jimmy (through whose shell a humorous thought flitters): "Me thinks 'tis the fleece from the plunger, sir."

BEETHOVEN SYMPHONY AT CONVOCATION

Seventh of the Musical Program Drew a Large Audience—Last Concert Before May Festival

The seventh of the series of Beethoven symphonies drew a large audience yesterday at Convocation. Unusual interest was attached to this symphony as it is to be played by the Damrosch orchestra at the afternoon concert of the May Festival on May 6. Many expressions of regret were heard from the students because the symphony could not be given in full owing to the Senior meeting at 11:30. This will be the last concert at Convocation before the May Festival and it has not yet been decided whether the two remaining Beethoven symphonies will be given this semester or next year. The students have shown the keenest appreciation for music of this kind and their close attention has been very gratifying and inspiring to the musicians. It is certainly the unanimous desire of faculty and the students that such programs should become an established institution at Nebraska.

THE DEPARTMENTAL BASEBALL LEAGUE

Aggies Drop Their First Game to the Freshmen by a Score of 11 to 9

The Aggies dropped their first game in the Departmental Baseball League when the Freshmen beat them 11 to 9 yesterday afternoon on Nebraska Field. Loose fielding on the part of the Farm boys was responsible for their defeat. This was the third game for the Freshmen, so that they have been able to develop a team.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Laws will meet the Engineers. These teams are evenly matched and a good battle for second place may be expected.

SORORITY STANDING

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA'S RANK FIRST

HIGHER THAN FRATERNITY

Figures Show That Fraternities Are Gaining Slightly in Comparison—Achoths Much Higher This Semester

By a comparison between the sorority and fraternity grades, the figures show that the fraternities are gaining slightly on the sororities over the standing maintained between the two for the last semester of 1914. At best, however, the sorority grades show wonderfully better scholarship than the fraternity grades.

To ascertain the standing in percent, divide the index number by nine and add the figure to fifty six. This will give the average grade of the organization on the basis of one hundred.

The Kappas rank first with an average for the first semester of 270.4, which is 66.1 points higher than that attained by the Acacias, who led the fraternities. The Acoths follow with a close second of 269.9.

The official report has been given as follows:

Error in Fraternity Standing
 By mistake the official report of the fraternity grades which was issued from Dean Engberg's office yesterday was changed by the editors of the Nebraskan. In the case of the standing of the Sigma Chi fraternity, the standing for last semester read:

17	80.7	37.5

17	8.7	37.5

LAW BARBEQUE IF TICKETS ARE SOLD

Event Will be Held at Capital Beach if One Hundred and Twenty Buy Tickets

If "Alibis" to the number of one hundred and twenty are furnished the proper authorities, the annual law barbecue will be held at Capital Beach Thursday. The "Alibis," which are demanded by the Law Faculty, are to be in the shape of tickets. This is demanded to assure the attendance of a large number of the lawyers. In times past it has been the custom for a large number of future chief justices and ambulance-chasers to absent themselves from classes on this day and fail to appear at the barbecue. What they did in the time allotted to them cannot be guessed but Prof. C. A. Robbins, noticing that the reference books on Torts were becoming worn, reported the matter to Dean W. G. Hastings and he decided that the students must either have their much needed rest or attend classes under Doctor Maxey. Hence if one hundred and twenty tickets are not sold today the barbecue will not be held.

No special cars will be run to the grounds but the barbecue will begin at 9 o'clock and continue well into the afternoon. In the morning a baseball game will be played between the three classes. This will be followed by a tug of war between the Juniors and Freshmen. The Seniors will out-pull the winners. Short distance races will be held. They will include every sort that can be legally had. The time honored potato and the venerable three-legged as well as all other freak races will be held.

At noon the barbecue proper is scheduled. In past real barbecues have been given. They seemed very entertaining but in no ways satisfied the appetite. A barbecue looks very nice in print but in actual practice it has proved to be provocative of indi-

GERMAN CLUB PLAY

TO BE PRESENTED AT TEMPLE FRIDAY

"DER NEFFE ALS ONKEL"

Anniversary of the Death of Schiller to Be Commemorated by German Dramatic Club—Will Be Given at Hastings

The finishing touches are being put on the production of Schiller's "Der Neffe Als Onkel," to be presented in the Temple Theatre next Friday evening by the German Dramatic Club. The costumes have been ordered from the Lieben Company of Omaha, and a heavy advance seat sale indicates that the cast will be greeted by an unusually large public.

"Der Neffe Als Onkel" is an amusing and highly entertaining comedy by the popular German author, Friedrich Schiller. The development of the plot rests upon the very close resemblance between the Colonel von Dorsigny and his nephew, Franz von Dorsigny. Disguised in the uniform and wig of his uncle, Franz flees to Paris from his garrison in Strassburg and is met by his sister who mistakes him for her uncle. She informs him of the approaching marriage of his cousin Sophie to a young nobleman, who is to appear shortly with the uncle. Franz declares that the wedding shall never occur, and acting on the suggestion of his valet, he decides to impersonate his uncle; to report the death of the intended bridegroom; as uncle to give his consent to the marriage of Sophie to himself, as nephew; as uncle, to depart hastily on an important mission only to return immediately as nephew and claim his bride. The plan works smoothly until the real uncle arrives with the real bridegroom. Then ensues a succession of scenes in which the uncle is mistaken for the nephew and vice versa, the valet himself ignorantly betraying the entire plan to the uncle, whom he held to be the nephew. In desperation he calls upon the police for assistance and succeeds to some extent in avoiding the logical results of his blunder. The charms of the widowed sister of Franz captivate the nobleman intended for Sophie's bridegroom and this clears the way for the marriage of the cousins.

The play is full of brilliant repartee and intensely interesting and puzzling situations. The time of the action is the eighteenth century and the costumes, which are in keeping with this period add much to the stage effect.

An orchestra composed of members of the club will furnish the music. In addition Miss Gladys Weil will play Chopin's "Waltz in A Flat," and Miss Julia Reusch will sing Schiller's "Des Madchens Klage" to music by Schubert.

The cast will present the play in the theatre at Hastings on May 12, the arrangements for the trip having already been made by the coach, Miss Amanda Heppner, who has spared no effort to make this performance one of the best ever given by the club.

This year a picnic dinner will be given.

In the afternoon the Honorable C. Petrus Peterson will deliver the address. Members of the supreme court have been invited and will give short talks.
