

VOL. XIV.

The Daily Nebraskan

PRICE 5 CENTS.

NO. 155.

COMPANY D CARRIED OFF SQUAD HONORS YESTERDAY

CORPORAL MICKEY LEADER

Corporal Received Silver Loving Cup For Work of Squad-Regular Competition This Afternoon on Athletic Field

The Annual Squad Competitive drill was held yesterday afternoon. Company D won first place with Companies F and C ranking high for second and third honors.

Corporal Mickey was leader of the squad winning first place and their victory was largely due to his efforts. The contest was held in the street instead of on the Athletic Field as originally planned and the squads were unable to drill to advantage because of the lack of room. This fact caused much trouble to the commanding offi-

The judges were, Captain Robert L. Hamilton, U. S. A .; Lieut. William C. Stoll, U. S. A.; and Captain Herman F. Kramer, N. N. G. A silver loving cup was presented to Corporal Mickey after the drilling was over.

Following is the grading by officials, and the card of maneuvers handed each corporal when he reported to the Company D. Corporal Mickey, 304% Company F. Corporal Wortz, 284 Company C. Corporal Powers, 280 Company B, Corporal Spauling, 275 Company M. Corporal Gordon. 271 Company E, Corporal Rohrbaugh 271 Company G. Corporal Whitfield, 269% Company K, Corporal Wolfanger 267 Company A, Corporal Frey, Company H, Corporal Campbell 254 Company I, Corporal Kirsch,

The list of commands which were executed yesterday afternon were:

- 1. Report to Captain Hamilton in front of the north bleachers.
- 2. Align squad to the left.
- Stack arms. Take arms.
- 5. March squad to the front, execute "right about," march a short distance then execute "right about" and
 - Oblique march. Halt.
- Turn squad on fixed pivot. Halt. Turn squad on moving pivot.
- As skirmishers. March.
- 10. Form squad column and then skirmishers while marching. Halt.
- 11. Assemble squad.
- 12. Fire three volleys at 600 yards.
- 13. Report to Captain Hamilton.

CHARITY WORKER EXPLAINS PROBLEMS land.

Class in Sociology Visited the City Charity Organization-Secretary Prevey Outlined History

Mr. C. E. Prevey, general secretary of the Charity Organization Society being played slowly. The finals will conducted Prof. Lucile Eaves' class in probably be played by Saturday after-Political Science, through their head- noon. There are six teams contesting. quarters and Wayfarer's Lodge. yesterday afternoon, tory of the organization, the work hat? Helen-Indeed I do. Why, Milwhich they are doing, and the system dred, it makes her look but very little of keeping records.

PHI ALPHA TAU HELD

FINAL MEETING

Three New Members Were Initiated-Doctor Marey Head Article on International Law

Phi Alpha Tau fraternity held their final meeting of the year at the Lincoln Hotel Tuesday evening. Dr. Edwin Maxey read an exhaustive article on the International Law in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania. Initiates and Old Members Responded involving the respective rights of the United States, Germany and Great Britain. Three new members were initiated into the fraternity, Anton Jenson, Everett Carr, and John C. Beard.

PHARMAGY ANNUAL NOW BEING PRINTED

This Edition is Declared to Surpass All Others-Will be Distributed the Last of the Week

"The 1915 edition of the Pharmacy Annual will be ready for distribution the last of this week," is the declaration of Editor Bixby. The Annual surpasses by far all previous editions.

The Annual consists of 100 pages, including 35 pages of good clean jokes and not a single mention of Dr. Maxey or the "Awgwan." The cartooning is the splendid work of Bahl, Anderson and Slack. The students section is in a class of its own. The Annual, bound in purple, with purple inserts and gold lettering makes a beautiful appearance. The staff is to be complimented for their efforts in producing this publication.

AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CONFERENCE

Leaders Who Hope to be Leaders in International Relations to Meet at Cornell

Announcement has just been received of a Student Conference of International Relations tob e held at Cornell University, June 15-30, 1915. for the training of students who hope to become leaders in the development of a more rational system of itnerntaional relations for the future. The theory seems tob e that the plague of modern civilization in the present European war emphasizes the necessity of a searching analysis of militarism and the philosophy of force, which has dominated the international relations of the past, for the purpose of finding the truth.

This promises tob e an interesting conference as well as very helpful to all students who shall be able to attend it. Among the speakers obtained are listed Norman Angell, author of the "Great Illusion," G. Lowe Dickinson of Cambridge University, Eng-non street, Boston, Mass.

Handball Contest

Matches in the handball contest are

Mildred-Don't you think Miss Eld-He gave a brief outline of the his- erry looks much younger in her new older than she says she is .- Judge.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1915.

FOURTEEN NEW MEMBERS WERE ADMITTED .

DRAMATIC CLUB INITIATION

to Their Names by Giving Short Talks-Members Chosen For Marked Ability

The annual initiation of the Dramatic Club was held in their club rooms in the Temple building last evening.

Fourteen new members were initiated, who were chosen from those candidates trying out at the beginning of the first and second semesters of the past year. At least fifty students try out for this club each year and the members are chosen from those showing most marked ability. Consequently the members are those who possess superior ability on the stage or public speaking platform. The meeting was the last meeting which the Club will hold this year and an enjoyable evening was spent. Members responded to their names by giving talks and two good readings were given. Several of the initiates were also called on for short addresses

The following students were taken into the club:

J. C. Beard. Spray Gardiner. Lad Kubick Adelle Kellenbarger. Helen Brainard. Clara McMahon. Darrell Lane. Dewitt Foster. Ruby Anderson. Eva McNamara. Isabel Coons. Elizabeth Erezin.

Louise Dobbs

Carlyle Jones.

Convocation Today "THE SUNKEN BELL" Interpretation by Professor Grummann

SUMMER SOIL SURVEY PLANS COMPLETED

Reconnaissance and Soil Survey Work Will be Carried on Throughout the State by Several Parties

The plans for summer work in Soil Survey and Reconnaissance work over the state are nearing completion. The work is under the auspices of the Geography Department of the Univer-Applications for admission should sity. The Soil Survey parties now in be sent to Dr. George W. Nasmyth, the field are R. R. Burn and F. A. World Peace Foundation, 40 Mt. Ver- Hayes, Dawes county; C. V. Davis and H. C. Mortlock, Washington county; A. H. Meyers, P. Stuart and C. Watson, Richardson county. Either Stuart or Watson are to be transferred to Polk county to assist Dr. Snyder at the United States Bureau of Soils in that > Reconnaissance work will be carried on by Messrs, T. Kotjer and C. E. Collett in the Republican and Platte valleys this summer.

> > (Continued on page 4)

AT CONVOCATION

Lecture Will be Given on the "Sunken Bell" the Play Chosen For Production by the Senior Class

Today at Convocation Professor Grummann will lecture on the "Sunken Bell," which play has been chosen as the annual Senior production. This being an allegorical drama the best understanding of it is gained noly through intensive study. Professor Grummann worked on the play and is helping coach the cast into their mythical characters. By hearing him at Convocation a better understanding of the play is assured.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY FOREST GLUB

Smoker Was Held at the Kappa Sigma House-D. A. Shoemaker the New President

Tuesday evening the members of the Forest Club met at the Kappa Sigma house where they enjoyed a smoker. The last business meeting of the school year followed. It was decided to continue the Forest Club for at least another year even though the Department of Forestry has been abolished. The following officers were

D. A. Shoemaker, president. H. A. Noble, vice president.

J. W. Boggs, secretary and treasurer,

Tennis Petitions

Nebraskan office today.

FAMOUS TRACK STARS VISIT THE UNIVERSITY

Visitors Take Possession of the Gymnasium at a Forbidden Hour-Watchman Disapproved sod, so thinks the campus watchman.

and lockers. Naturally he thought is taken into consideration them to be students, and set about imhad broken in on a quiet practice of a rare congregation of track notables. was Ted Meredith. John Paul Jones, however, on the field. Davenport, and Craig, gave their names when requested so non-concernedly that before he had half com- SILVER SERPENTS pleted the group the watchman was tempted to ask pardon for intruding and quietly withdraw. It is indeed to be regretted that when we have as our guests such noted men they must be disturbed while indulging in a quiet

Drawings-Handball Doubles

Chatt and Ellis.

Hiltner and Charlesworth.

Linstrum and Beck.

Williams and Clapp.

Rutherford and Frankforter. Collins and Pascale.

FIVE MEN WILL START FOR CO. LUMBIA THIS AFTERNOON

ARE ENTERED IN FOUR EVENTS

One Hundred, Two-Twenty, Half-Mile Relay, and Pole Vault Only Contests in Which Nebraska Will Compete-Dope Scarce

Zumwinkle, Scott, Bates, Irwin and Reavis, Nebraska's only representatives in the Valley Meet, will leave for Columbia this afternoon, accompanied by Coach Stiehm. The list of events in which Nebraska is entered Saturday reaches four: The one hundred yard dash, the two-twenty, half-mile relay and pole vault. Scott and Irwin will run in the hundred, and Zummie in the two-twenty. Reavis is Nebraska's representative in the pole

Less dope is issuing from Columbia these days than has been forthcoming from the scene of a Valley rendezvous in many a year. So many records were broken last spring tha this branch of speculation is left almost featureless. New records in the pole vault and four-forty are under serious consideration, it seems, while Dickinson of Ames may establish a two-twenty mark which will stand for future gnerations to aim at. Reavis in the pole vault is the subject of some little Those who have tennis petitions out discussion at the hands of Tiger are requested to leave them at the scribes. They calculate he must be some flyer all right, but insist upon living up to the slogan of their state. In the meantime they are casting fond eyes on the work of their own representative, Floyd, in his daily practice.

In the one hundred, Irwin and Scott are mentiond as possible placers, and Zummie, who will run in the twotwenty instead of his usual fourofrty, is selected as a pointmaker in the shorter distance by a clever line Nebraska has been the unknowing of dope. They reason that, being a host of some of the most famous ath- first class four-forty man, should he letes who ever stepped off American be able to place in the preliminaries. he will reach the finals in better con-It seems that while making his dition than his competitors who have rounds at some forbidden hour he been running the two-twenty all seacame upon a group of scantily clad son. This line of reasoning is upset youths making free use of the baths however, when his physical condition

The Tigers are justly building fond mediately taking their names for hopes for well-balanced squad. Strong future judgment. But seemingly he on both the track and field, their chances to outpoint one-sided teams like Ames and Kansas are bright, The first one addressed, a long, rangy Track events seem to be pretty evenlad, astounded the wrathful watchman ly divided between Missouri and by modestly confessing that his name Ames, with the Tigers a big favorite.

BANQUET AT LINCOLN

Thirty-Seven Members Attended-Decorations Were in Green and White

The Silver Serpent banquet at the Lincoln last night was enjoyed by thirty-seven members, past, present, and new. The decorations were green and white, thus carrying out the green eyes and silver-colored body of the serpent. Miss Virginia Leitch, the president, was toastmistress. She called for several impromptu speeches.