Tennis Petition

To the Chancellor and Board of Regents:

To the Campus Extension Committee: In view of the fact that only two tennis courts are available for the use of the thirty-five hundred students of the University of Nebraska, we, the undersigned students of the University of Nebraska, respectfully petition you to clear the land on block 12 of the original plot of Lincoln, between the proposed Chemistry Building and the Athletic Field, in order that this ground may be available for the construction of more tennis courts.

KOMENSKY CLUB AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Miss Sarka Hrbkova, Head of Department of Slavonic Languages, Presided—Forty Attended

The sixth annual banquet of the Komensky Club of the State University was held Thursday evening at the Lincoln Hotel. Plates were laid for forty. The toasts were taken from old Bohemian proverbs and were in Bohemian. Sarka Hrbkova, head of the department of Slavonic languages, presided over the toast list and introduced the following: "No Roses Without Thorns," Miss Irene Steidl; "What You Cook at Home You Should Eat at Home," Walter B. Sadilek; "When the Game Is the Pleasantest, It Is Time to Quit," Miss Ruth Jelinek; "The Field Ripens for the One Who Labors," Theodore Kubik; "What Four Eyes See, Twenty-four Eyes See," Thomas Dredla; "No Tarts Without Work," Miss Rose Shonka; "Don't Buy Rabbits in a Sack," Thomas Stibal; "Don't Sell Fur Before You've Killed Your Bear," Phillip Lorenc. Frank Sedl, a Nebraska Wesleyan student, also spoke. The club presented gifts of books and a small statue of Komensky to each of the graduating members of the club. The graduates are as follows: Thomas Dredla, Ruth Jelinek, Theodore Kubik, Phillip Lorenc, Walter B. Sadilek, Irene Steidl, Thomas Stibal, and Rose Shonka.
