

FOOTBALL FOR 1915

MANY OLD MEN BACK—NEW MEN OUT IN FORCE

STIEHM REMAINS RETICENT

A Summary, Including Some of Guy Reed's Opinions— Notre Dame University Will Be Here on October 23

Although Coach Stiehm is silent concerning the outlook for Nebraska on the gridiron this season, the conditions look very favorable. The following is an extract from a bulletin lately issued by Guy Reed, assistant director of Athletics, at Nebraska:

The prospects for a great football team were never brighter. Fortified with a good record for the past five years and strengthened by the last year's freshman squad, which was the best in years, it is to be expected that the 1915 team will make the usual agreeable history. The veterans who will return to the game are: Captain Rutherford, Corey, Abbott, Shields, Balis, Porter, Seltzer, Doyle and Caley. From among the freshman Cook, Shaw, Riddell, Moser, the two Kositzkys, Gardner, Hoadley, Minnick, Donnegan, Proctor and Otopolik look like Varsity calibre men. In addition from among the second string men Reese, Norris, Sheldon, Halbersleben, Dale and Wilson will make a strong bid for positions.

The schedule this year comprises four Missouri Valley Universities, the champion intercollegiate team of Kansas, the champion intercollegiate team of Nebraska, one Western Conference University and Notre Dame, of national fame.

The opening game with Drake University will be the biggest game that Nebraska has ever undertaken for the opening game of the season. This game has been designated as the High School benefit game. All high school boys of the state who present a card from their principal or superintendent that they are in attendance will be given free admission. An effort is being made to get Mayor Bryan of Lincoln and Mayor Dahlman of Omaha to stage the preliminaries, with Governor Morehead as referee.

Kansas Aggies, which has been one of the strong early games of the schedule for the past few years, will be the second game of the schedule. The Kansas Aggies are to be coached by Johnnie Bender of Cornhusker fame. This will add interest to the game and will make the result decidedly uncertain. Washburn will give the Huskers a workout before the big Notre Dame game. Notre Dame, fresh from a series of seasons with enviable records, will invade Cornhusker territory for the first time. Iowa State college of Ames, with a new coaching staff, will endeavor to get revenge for recent defeats, having employed a new football coach to aid, our old friend, Clyde William. This game will be staged at Ames. Next comes Nebraska Wesleyan, which has been making an enviable record among the secondary colleges of Nebraska. On November 13th, the biennial trip to Kansas will afford one of the biggest games of the year. With excellent material to work upon and a new, tried coach to lead them, the Jayhawkers hope to turn the tables. The last game of the season with Iowa University, will be the annual Homecoming game. This game has come to be the annual battle royal and the stiffest game on the Cornhusker schedule. Coach Hawley will again lead a strong crowd of warriors, if pre-season dope can be relied upon.

Seats for all games will go on sale the Monday previous to the Saturday

SAMBO'S COMPLAINT

Sambo (stretching himself out as wife does the washing)—Who yo' callin' an idler? Ah'm busy all night tryin' t' git asleep, an' Ah'm busy all day tryin' t' keep awake!

AFFRAID OF DOGS

"Did you ask for a handout at der big house?"
"No. Jes' as I wuz about to go in de gate de minister lookin' guy told me I wuz goin' to der dogs, so I turned around an' beat it."

NEEDED IT BADLY

Book Agent—Now, sir, this book—The Man at the Door—I ain't got no use for no book.
Book Agent—But you need this one, sir. It is called "The Art of Conversation and Correct English."

SURE THING

Dealer—Has Jones enjoyed his automobile since he got it two weeks ago?
Auto Fiend—He should have. He's run over three men, six dogs and ten cats.

A Gentle Reminder

For the benefit of the fellows who have spent the summer in the forest reserves or on geological surveys, the following is published lest they forget:

1. You're not in reconnaissance therefore, do not spit on the floor.
2. Don't flip the bones over your shoulders; you might injure a waitress.
3. Do not designate coffee as "mud."
4. Keep hob-nailed shoes in your own territory—not on your neighbor's shins.
5. Look natural when the waitress hands you a napkin.
6. Don't tip the waitress; she might upset.
7. Don't take pie in your hand.
8. Please don't remove shoes while eating, because—

9. Don't grab anything from your neighbor's plate.

10. Don't wipe your nose on napkin or tablecloth; it's better to secretly use your sleeve.

11. If soup is served, don't inhale it, or drink from dish. In case it embarrasses you to eat it, pass it up.

12. As you enter the dining room, don't yell "come and get it."

13. Don't crowd and rush for a chair, for there will be a chair for each.

14. Don't take everything in your hands and eat it, use a fork whenever possible.

15. Take your time eating, because neighbors won't take any of your food.

16. If any meat and bread is left, don't make sandwiches out of them for the afternoon.

17. Don't make audible comments on the food.

18. Don't try to jew the waitress down on the price of the meal; they are fixed prices.

19. Don't eat with your knife; if peas are served, please do not attempt to eat them.

20. Don't ask for salve, call it by its correct name, "butter."

21. Don't drink from the pitcher, use your own glass.

22. Be sure and take off your hat before sitting down at the table—University of Montana Kaimin.
