GEORGE GRIMES,
Business Manager.

Palladian will hold a closed meeting Friday evening, October 29, at Barnson cottage in the Penitentiary woods. All "Pal" members meet at 10th and O streets Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock, and take the Penitentiary car.

Freshmen girls' party, Saturday, October 30, at 2:30 p. m., in the Armory. Admission, 5 cents.

The Freshman girls will have a Hallowe'en party, Saturday afternoon in the Armory. Every Freshman girl should be there. The committee will be glad to have anyone who dislikes to go alone meet them in the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the Temple shortly before 2:30 o'clock.

The Scandinavian club and the Tegner society will meet at the home of Prof. J. E. A. Alexis, 1420 Elm street, Saturday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock. Take the Fourteenth street car to Elm street. A Scandinavian literary program has been prepared.

The Silver Serpents will give a party for Junior girls Saturday afternoon, October 30, in Music hall. All are urged to come and become acquainted with their classmates in an informal way. Individual invitations will be sent.

Freshman girls. Are you coming to the big party Saturday afternoon in the Armory? Don't lose out on this good time.

Freshman girls, do you like good times? You will have one Saturday afternoon in the Armory.

Dr. W. F. Dann will continue his piano interpretation Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when he will play the parts of the Eighth Beethoven Symphony. All students are cordially invited.

Prof. Paul H. Grumann will speak to the Students Liberal Religious union at All Souls' church on the subject, "German Culture," Sunday at 12:15 o'clock. Students invited.

Hallowe'en party at the Dairy pavillion, State Farm campus Saturday night. All men and women of the College of Agriculture are expected to be present in overalls and aprons at this annual affair. Me prepared for the "weiner" roast.

Tickets for "Ghosts" Monday
The Nebraskan wishes to correct a statement made in Monday's paper. The play "Ghosts" is to be given by the University Players of the Dramatic department instead of by the Dramatic club.
Tickets for this play will go on sale at 10 a. m. at the Temple, the price being 25 cents. A number of organizations have already reserved sections, and the sale is expected to be brisk from the start.

Plan Hallowe'en Party
The annual Hallowe'en party of the College of Agriculture, when the women appear in work aprons and the men in overalls, will be held in the Dairy Pavillion, Saturday night. A big wienie roast is planned for this year. This annual party is always done in true rural style and everybody acts as he did "out on the farm."

HOME ECONOMICS MET
Meeting Was Under the Auspices of Omicron Nu—Aim of Society to Be Educational
A meeting for all girls taking Home Economics was held Wednesday evening, October 27, under the auspices of Omicron Nu, for the purpose of forming an organization. Sixty-five girls were present, and they took up the work enthusiastically. Miss Heien Clark, president of Omicron Nu, presided. The following program was given:
Piano solo.....Florence Malone
Cello solo.....Miriam Little
"The Cornhusker".....All
Brief talks by representative girls:
Miss Condra.
Miss Helzer.

Miss Peters.
Miss Provaznik.
Miss Johnson.
Mrs. Hancock.
It was decided to make the aim of the society mainly educational and to have programs by teachers and workers as well as by the members. The organization will meet on the first and third Wednesdays of each month.
Miss Clark appointed a constitution committee of Miss Provaznik, Miss Peters, and Miss Dickinson, with Miss Loomis as advisor.
A guessing game was played while refreshments were served.
