Emory Buckner, '04, of New York City, is recovering from an operation for appendicitis, according to information received by Prof. M. M. Fogg. Mr. Buckner has achieved notable success in New York City in the practice of law and has conducted several important investigations for the government. He also served as assistant district attorney and in that capacity participated in a number of important criminal prosecutions.

Miss Grace Helen Burritt and Chas. Leroy Sluyter of Hastings were married last Thursday at 8:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burritt, 2811 S street. Rev. J. W. Hilton officiated, using the ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Miss Maud Sluyter of Clay Center, sister of the groom, played the march from Lohengrin, and during the ceremony, Traumeri. The bridal party entered in the following order: Six bridesmaids who formed an aisle, little Doris Peterson of Omaha, cousin of the bride, ring bearer; matron of honor, Mrs. George Foster, sister of the bride; the bride and groom, and the Rev. J. W. Hilton. Three of the bridesmaids were dressed in green and three in white, the other ladies of the bridal party in white. The music and living rooms were decorated with palms and ferns and white chrysanthemums. After the ceremony and during congratulations Miss Katherine Meliza of Falls City played selections from MacDowell. The dining room was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and the same color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Mrs. A. M. Susong cut the cake, Mrs. C. L. Peterson of Omaha, poured the coffee, and the Misses Pearl Barton and Genevieve Fitzgerald assisted in serving.

A vote of thanks is extended to Prof. P. H. Frye for missing Rhet. 7 class Thursday. Is the new car the cause? If so, we would suggest that next time instead of merely skipping the class he take a few of the faithful members along.

Union Vesper Service
Union Vesper Service of the City and University Young Women's Christian Association was held in the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. A. L. Candy presiding. Mrs. Walter Lyndon Pope sang and Miss Burner talked to the girls. After the service the University Y. W. C. A. Cabinet held a conference with Miss Burner.

Miss Burner at Vespers

Miss Oolooah Burner of New York City, national student secretary of Y. W. C. A., will speak at Association Vesper Service, tomorrow at five o'clock, at the Temple Theater. Miss Burner's work takes her into all of the largest universities of the country. Girls who were in school three years ago will remember the enthusiastic reception accorded Miss Burner during her visit at that time. The girls aim to show her the true Nebraska spirit and how much they have developed in three years. Those who heard her yesterday will be glad of a second opportunity. Tomorrow afternoon her subject will be "Life Investments." Special music has been arranged. This is the regular weekly vesper service, but will be held in the Temple Theater in order to accommodate everyone.

Miss Grace L. Coppock, University of Nebraska 1905. Miss Coppock is now National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of China, and is to be supported by the Association in the University of Nebraska.

Co-Ed Journalists Honored

Twelve co-eds in the School of Journalism who are contemplating journalism as a profession had their pictures taken in the writing room of the school. The picture was taken at the request of the Texas Women's Fair to be held in Houston. The picture will be on exhibition there next week.

There are eighteen co-eds taking courses in this department, of whom twelve are preparing for journalistic careers. The three co-eds who were studying for the profession last year are back again taking courses leading to degrees in 1917.—Daily Texan.

Model of Gold Nugget Here

A fine model of the largest gold nugget ever found was received at the Museum today. It is known as the "Welcome Nugget" and sold originally for $4,882.70. Its dimensions are 20x9 inches, and its weight 2,166 ounces. It was found at Ballarat, Victoria, B. C. The model was especially prepared for the University, and is covered with pure leaf gold in exact imitation of the original. It has been placed on exhibition in the mineral collections on the third floor of the Museum. Models of other famous nuggets will be added as means will allow until all are represented.
