Preparedness and Thanksgiving
The conference committee on national preparedness, of which Mr. Henry A. Wise Wood is chairman, has been writing letters to prominent clergymen suggesting that adequate preparedness for war would be an adequate text for the Thanksgiving Day

THE EMINENT
MINSTREL NEIL O'BRIEN Who Comes to the OLIVER—Tonight With His sermon. Similar suggestions previously addressed to ministers have met with favorable, as well as unfavorable, responses and have led to sermons for, as well as sermons in opposition to, the precautionary measures against national defeat and humiliation. The latest communication for the conference committee is as follows:

"Reverend Sir: The conference committee on national preparedness is working in behalf of peace through adequate preparedness, and it has been suggested to us that you might be glad to participate in this work, to the extent of discussing national preparedness in your Thanksgiving sermon. The subject is appropriate.
As President Wilson has well said, we do not want to change anything, but we do want to protect our homes and to insure our country against invasion. This we feel we can best do by being prepared for defense, if the need for it be thrust upon us.

"Our rich heritage of civic and spiritual freedom, handed down to us at the cost of many lives and much suffering by our ancestors, and the pres-
