Agriculture entertained at a party Saturday evening.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Bridge club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Milford Johnson for a bridge luncheon, in honor of Juliet Proudfit, ex-'16.

The alumni of the School of Agriculture were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. H. C. Luckey at Fortieth and Holdrege streets.

S. L. Gardner, '18, Phi Kappa Psi, reported to the police the loss from a dresser Friday night the while he was attending the Cornhusker banquet of $25 in bills, $9 in silver and a check for $1. The thief has not been apprehended.

Martin B. Chittick, '16, and Everett Angle, '18, will leave Wednesday evening for Iowa City, Iowa, where they will attend the Province Conclave of Alpha Tau Omega and assist in installing a chapter of Alpha Tau Omega in Iowa university.

The following program was given Friday morning at the convocation of the School of Agriculture by Lenore Burkett and Buda Orth: Ashford, "Ever a Song Somewhere"; Beach, "Ah, Love But a Day"; Thomas, "Bonjour, Suzon"; Henschel, "Morning Hymn"; Schubert, "Am Mur"; and Drida, "Souvenir." Miss Merlin was the accompanist.

The Freshmen of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity entertained the active chapter at a dinner-dance at the chapter house Saturday evening. Twenty-seven couples were present. Karl Weiner, of the Freshmen, was toastmaster, and toasts were given by Ted Lonam and Guy Chamberlain. Mr. and Mrs. John Lonam were the chaperones. Decorations in pink and blue, the Beta colors, were used.

The Freshman and Senior football teams will meet on Nebraska field Tuesday afternoon to decide the inter-class championship. In the two games played so far, the Seniors, triumphed over the Juniors and the Freshmen won from the Sophomores. The teams are about equal in weight and experience. No member of the Freshman football squads are allowed to compete in the class games.

The engagement of Avilda Moore, ex-'14, to Dr. Ernest Dana Wilson, '13, of Chicago, has been announced. Miss Moore has been studying music in Chicago for the past few years and is at present soprano soloist of the Kountze Memorial church. Dr. Wilson is an instructor in the Kent Chemical laboratory of the University of Chicago. He was graduated from the University of Nebraska with Sigma Xi honors. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Sigma and Gamma Alpha fraternities. The wedding will take place Wednesday evening, December 29.
