PERSONAL

Chancellor Samuel Avery, Prof. H. W. Caldwell, Prof. E. H. Barbour and Prof. H. E. Bradford will go to Seward today to be present at a University banquet held there tonight.

Dean Charles Fordyce lectured on "Vocational Education" at the Sarpy County Teachers' institute at Gretna, Friday night. Monday night he gave an illustrated talk before a mass meeting at Aashland on "The Trail of the Boy."

Ethel D. Johnson, '13, whose home is in Broken Bow, Nebr., visited with friends at the University Tuesday. Miss Johnson graduated from the Normal Training department three years ago, and is now an instructor in Physical Education at the University of Washington, located at Seattle, Wash.

Robert Isham of Fort Collins, Colo., will visit friends at University Place during the holidays. Mr. Isham formerly lived here but the family home has been at Kearney for several years. He is a graduate of Wesleyan university. After teaching in the State University he went to Toronto and then was awarded a fellowship at Columbia. He is at present head of the Chemistry department at the State Agricultural college at Fort Collins.

Barton L. Green, '11, announced yesterday that he would be a candidate for police judge at the next election. He is a graduate of the Law college of his profession with T. J. Doyle, '09. It is stated that Bruce Fullerton is not so certain that he will be a candidate for county judge, but that he may try for a third term as police magistrate. O. B. Clark, '10, who has also been spoken of as a candidate for county judge, stated yesterday that he had not made up his mind to make the race for that office and was rather inclined to remain out of the contest.

The marriage of William H. Larsen, '02, and Miss Beulah Maine, Chicago university, took place at 4 o'clock today in the presence of about seventy-five guests at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. L. P. Maine, 2919 O street. Rev. W. E. Iudwick, pastor of the Congregational church at Seward, and a friend of the bride and groom, performed the ceremony, which took place before a bank of holly and mistletoe sent by the bride's cousin from Louisiana. The bride and groom were unattended. Before the ceremony Miss Alma Hahn sang "Because," and "Thou Art My Repose," accompanied by Miss Mildred Mauck at the piano. Mrs. Edna Cook played during the entrance of the bride and groom and after the ceremony. The bride's gown was of white georgian crepe with an overskirt of charmeuse and was designed by Miss Perley, for nine years her supervisor in the Lincoln schools, who is now attending the school of art in New York city. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated in poinsettias and red candles, and were in charge of Miss Sophia Larsen, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Helen Richardson, sister of the bride. They were assisted by the Misses Mildred Burcham and Esther Broekeme. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Dobson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashley, Henry and Williard Warren, Mrs. Palmer and E. B. Richardson of Ulysses, Neb.; Mrs. L. L. Stephens of Loup City; the Misses Sophia and Frances Larsen and Norman Larsen of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will leave this evening for Omaha. Their home will be at 4410 South Twentieth street in that city.

AUSTRIA WAS ADVISED

No Plea that They Were Not Aware of the United States' Policy Will Stand

That the United States, whether at present adequately prepared for war or not, is not to back down in its controversy with Austria, is shown from the fact that it is known from official sources that the United States will tolerate no plea from Austria-Hungary that it had not been formally advised of the attitude of this country when its submarine commander sank the Ancona. Reports from Vienna indicate that the Austrian foreign office might attempt to prolong negotiations on this point.

In the Ancona note, Secretary Lansing apparently foresaw such a possibility and precluded its use through these words:
 "The Austrian-Hungarian government has been advised through the correspondence which has been exchanged between the United States and Germany of the attitude of the United States as to the use of submarines in attacking vessels of commerce and of the acquiescence of Germany in this attitude and yet with full knowledge on the part of the Austrian-Hungarian government," the Ancona attack was made.

He referred to copies of the Lus-
