POLITICAL FIGHT DRAWS TO CLOSE

doo comes from South Omaha and is a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences. He was a member of the debating Seminar and championship freshman debating team, belongs to Phi Alpha Tau, World Polity club and Y. M. C. A. cabinet.

The race for business manager lies between DeWitt Foster and Ellsworth Moser. Moser comes from Omaha. He is a member of the 1915 varsity football team, Kosmet Klub, play cast, chairman of freshman hop, and assistant business manager of the Cornhusker. Foster is a graduate of Kearney high school. He is a sophomore Arts and Sciences student. He is a member of the Dramatic club, the University Players and University Week association. He was manager of the 1914-15 football programs, interscholastic basketball tournament program, and chairman of the freshman Olympic committee.

The junior managing editor's position is a struggle between Ivan Beede of David City and Wayne L. Townsend of Cook. Beede is a pledge of Sigma Delta Chi, a member of the English club, sporting editor of the Cornhusker, and was sporting editor of The Daily Nebraskan last semester. Townsend is a pledge of Sigma Delta Chi and a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary commercial fraternity. He is a student in the School of Commerce and was at one time on the staff of The Daily Nebraskan.
