BASKETBALL TEAM IN POOR CONDITION

With Jim Gardiner laid up in the hospital with a severely twisted ankle, and Captain Hugg troubled with a bad knee, Cornhusker stock took a sudden slump for the important series with the Kansas Aggies.

Gardiner was injured in practice Wednesday night while jumping for the ball underneath the basket. In lighting his foot struck one of the other players, thus causing the tendons and ligaments in his ankle to be twisted. Gardiner's work at guard has been one of the features of the season and his loss will hurt Nebraska's chances for copping off the game tonight and tomorrow night. Coach Waugh will probably play Chuck Gardiner at the vacated guard position.

The Kansas Aggies are due to arrive in Lincoln this morning, as the Kansas papers have it, "to settle Nebraska and get ready for Missouri." And the farmers may do it. The Cornhuskers were barely able to win the first game from Kansas, while the Aggies trimmed them decisively in a two-game series. But in justice to the varsity we know that the squad was than at a standstill on account of change in coaches.

Dr. Stewart Coming to Lincoln

Coach Stewart, who will be the head coach at Nebraska next fall, will be in Lincoln during the State high school basketball tournament, March 8 to 11. Guy Reed has received word from Dr. Stewart saying that he will be able to get away between basketball and track season for a short trip to Nebraska.

Dr. Stewart's trip will be for the purpose of looking over the athletic situation and getting acquainted with the Cornhuskers so that work next fall may not be delayed. Spring football practice will be in charge of Assistant Coach Rutherford, but Dr. Stewart will be in Lincoln permanently after the close of the school year.

The A. T. O.'s beat the Alpha Sigs in a basketball game last evening, 12 to 4. At the end of the first half the was 6 to 2 in favor of the A. T. O.'s. The second half was a repetition of the first. The superior basket shooting of the Alpha Taus was too much for their opponents. The lineup:

A. T. O.—	—A. S. P.
Pittman.....c.....	Gillette
Zunwinkle.....f.....	Darner
Ford.....f.....	Stone
Shaw.....g.....	Clark
Johnson.....g.....	Crandall

Substitutes: Alpha Sig—Dobson, Diers and Eyerdy.

Prohibition Association Meets

A meeting of the Intercollegiate Prohibition association was held in Music hall last night. Mr. H. M. Henshaw, secretary of the National association, gave a short talk. Following this, Mr. J. S. Graves of Peru spoke about the coming elections in Nebraska.

The following officers were elected:
Earl Forbes—President.
L. A. Townsend—Vice President.
W. K. Miller—Secretary.
E. W. Lundeen—Treasurer.
J. A. Cejnar—Reporter.

that over a hundred persons enjoyed the ice last night. During the period of warm days and cold nights it is hard to keep the ice smooth, but the ice now is in very good condition.

Are YOU coming out to the armory at 7:30 o'clock tonight to see your team in action on the basketball floor?

Charter Day Entries Few

Entries for the Charter Day meet are coming in slowly in spite of the fact that medals are hung up for winners in each event.

The events will be: Twenty-five yard dash, rope climb, fence vault, high kick, pole vault, high jump and interclass relay contests. Tryouts for the relay teams and elimination heats in the quarter century dash will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the armory.

Guy Reed guarantees that medals will be given—absolutely. If you want a medal to hang over your desk to dazzle your friends, enter now in some of the Charter Day events.
