Xi Psi Phi Banquet

Xi Psi Phi held its twelfth annual banquet at the Lindell hotel Saturday evening. One hundred men were present. Decorations were in lavender and cream with red roses. Dr. W. A. McHenry, '06, of Nelson, acted as toastmaster, and responses were given by Dr. Porter, Dr. Wintersteen, Dr. Ronne, Dr. L. T. Hunt, Dr. A. O. Hunt, Dr. Marshall, Dr. Neville and Alpha Kappa chapter of Omaha.

ELECT ACHOTH OFFICERS

The national conclave of Achoth elected the following officers for the coming year:

- Grand President—Miss Florence Wise, University of Iowa.
- Grand Vice President—Miss Mary Hein, University of Illinois.
- Grand Secretary—Miss Edna Green, University of Nebraska.
- Grand Treasurer—Miss Ruth Pepper, University of Washington.

Miss Green was re-elected secretary for her fourth term and Miss Pepper as treasurer. The five-year term of Etta Smith, who is editor-in-chief of the Achoth publication, does not expire for two years. After the banquet at the Lincoln Saturday evening, the new officers were installed. The only two retiring officers are Miss Elsie Mathews, '12, of Lincoln, who was past grand president, and Miss Olive Branden, of Lawrence, Kan., past vice president.

According to Miss Green, several colleges are preparing to petition for Achoth next year. Eight chapters have come into existence since the founding of Aleph chapter at the University of Nebraska in 1911.

Pi Phi Formal

The Pi Phi formal party, held at the Lincoln Saturday night, was attended by seventy-five couples. Constance Lyford and Burke Taylor, and Dorothy Carns and Ellsworth Moser led the grand march. The chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. R. J. Poole, Prof. and Mrs. M. M. Fogg, Mesdames Price, Kirkpatrick and Ames.

WHAT NEBRASKA ALUMNAE ARE DOING

DOROTHY CANFIELD FISHER

Dorothy Canfield Fisher, well known as a novelist and author, was a resident of Lincoln as a girl, while her father was Chancellor of the university, 1891-1895. In a recent letter to a Lincoln friend, Miss Louise Pound, of the department of English literature, Mrs. Fisher writes of her strong sympathy for the French adding, "If it weren't for the children, my husband and I would have been there long ago, he driving a car for a hospital we know of; and I washing dishes, or anything else to make myself useful. But we can only do what little we can at long distance."

Before her marriage, Mrs. Fisher spent several years in France, and has a Ph. D. in romance languages from Columbia university. She is the author of the well known novels, "The Squirrel Cage" and "The Bent Twig," of many magazine stories, and also of many educational publications, like "The Montessori Mother."

ELSIE WARNOCK

Miss Elsie Warnock, A.B. '08, A. M. '12, is teaching English in the high school at Albuquerque, N. M. She writes that Albuquerque has a fine new high school building, of good size, with an enrollment of over 400 students. Albuquerque has a shifting population, she says, including invalids from the east, a good many Mexicans, and some Indians from the government school there. There are many Indian pueblos and old Indian churches in the vicinity.

NEBRASKA GIRLS

HOLD TRACK RECORDS

That the University of Nebraska has produced women athletes holding American track records is plainly shown in "A Survey of Track Athletics for Women," recently published by Dr. Harvey E. Stewart, physical director of the Wykeham Rise School for Girls at Washington, Conn.

The following records have been made by Nebraska women:

- Florence Simmons, '15, 25-yard dash, 3.45 seconds.
- Florence Simmons, 40-yard hurdles, 7.15 seconds.
- Eva Fish, ex-'17, pole vault, 6 ft. 3 in.
- Lottie Savage, '14, basketball throw, 71 ft. 9 in.
- Blanche Higgins, '17, shot put, 29 ft. 9 in.
- Marie Clark, '15, running high jump, 4 ft.
- Camilla Koch, '17, 50-yard dash, 6.45 seconds.

The Student Should Know—

THE UNIVERSITY GIRLS' CLUB

The University Girls' club, founded at the University of Nebraska in 1906, is an organization the purpose of which is to offer an opportunity for a friendly, helpful fellowship among the women of the school; to develop a feeling of mutual responsibility and a high regard for both liberty and order; to be a medium by which the social standard of the university may be made and kept high; to foster the spirit of unity and loyalty to the University of Nebraska and to bring before its members subjects that are of special interest and importance to college women.

The club accomplishes its purpose by means of parties for all university girls, given at various times throughout the year. The Girls' Cornhusker party, football luncheon and freshman welcome party have become annual events through the work of the Girls' club.

All women students of the university are associate members of this organization and active members on payment of dues. The annual dues are 50 cents, half of which is used for the current expenses of the club and the remainder for the establishment of a permanent fund for the care of sick women students and for assisting those who are making their own way through school.

The club is governed by an executive board and a council. The executive board consists of the dean of women, four officers and three members each from the senior, junior and sophomore classes. The council is composed of representatives from each literary society and sorority and from each rooming house at which four or more university women live; the president of the Y. W. C. A. and women's class societies and the members of the executive board.

The following girls compose the executive board for 1915-16: Edna Froyd, '16, president; Florence Angle, '16, vice president; Geneva Seeger, '17, secretary; Marie Rowley, '18, treasurer; Doris Slater, '16; Mildred Peery, '16; Lauretta Lord, '16; Ethel Stone, '17; Doris Scroggin, '17; Marian Kastle, '17; Edith Yungblut, '18;
