OUR NEW COACH

All who have made the acquaintance of Dr. Stewart join in his praise. He brings to Nebraska the proper combination to add further glory to our record on the field of battle. A remarkable knowledge of the game, coupled with the highest ideals of clean athletics, will do much for the future Nebraska.

But the task he faces is not an easy one. Nebraska has not met defeat in football since 1912. As was suggested at the banquet last night, it is easier to bring up a team that is behind, than to please a student body that has not seen a defeat in three years. We face a hard schedule next year. Notre Dame, the Oregon Aggies, and Iowa—not to mention our respected opponents of the Valley, Kansas and Ames—are enough to make any coach lie awake nights. Furthermore, it cannot be denied that the coach will not have the galaxy of stars that have graced Nebraska Field during the past three years.

But if spirit means anything, Dr. Stewart will be dealing in untold wealth. Nebraskans from border to border are ready to do his bidding. They are anxious to add every unit of their strength and influence to make Nebraska second to none. The team's interest will be theirs.

For Nebraska, We Will.

THE SINGLE TAX

The Single Tax is progressing nicely. By the middle of next week—if such does not seem unwise from an early interview with the regents—the petitions so long promised will be circulated. The opposition to the movement comes from the inherent nature of things, not from any particular persons. Very few people personally object to its adoption.

But for the present the matter must again take a second place. The high school people are our guests for the week, and The Nebraskan will give much of its space to their affairs. But do not forget the importance of the Single Tax, and remember the climax is due next week.

UNIVERSITY NOTICES

Chemistry Examination

Students who have a condition in chemistry A or D may take a special examination Saturday, March 11, at 10 o'clock in the chemistry lecture room. Benton Dales.

Will the party who took my Grays Electrical Design from Mechanics Arts building, return same? H. B. Whitfield. 214-107

Business Woman's Club Meeting

Prof. O. P. Martin will address the Business Woman's club in University hall 102 tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock. All university women are invited. A short business meeting will follow the address.

Math. Club Meeting in B 211

The Math. club will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the lecture room of the Physics building (B 211) instead of the Temple. Note the change of place. Mr. Gish desires more adequate facilities for blowing soap bubbles than the Temple affords.

Barbour Will Speak to Engineers

Prof. E. H. Barbour will give an illustrated lecture on "The Park and Park Systems" with particular reference to Lincoln, at the Lincoln Engineers' club meeting Friday night at 8 o'clock in M. E. 206.

Snapshots Wanted for Cornhusker

If you have any appropriate snapshots for the 1916 Cornhusker, telephone Carl Harnsberger, B 1821, and he will come after them.

Senior Invitations

Orders for senior invitations will be taken next week. The committee that has this in charge has arranged to have samples on display and will be prepared to complete a canvass of the class at that time.

Tegner

Tegner meets Saturday, March 11, at the state farm, Agricultural hall 109. Take state farm car leaving Eleventh and P streets at 7:55 or 8:10 o'clock.

Kearney Club

Kearney club meets in the Y. W. C. A. room Friday, March 10. Note the change from Saturday to Friday.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS TO GET NEBRASKAN

Free Subscriptions Go to Best Players in Each Division

The Daily Nebraskan will be sent free for the rest of the school year to the thirty-five or forty best high school players in the state basketball tournament, which starts today. The tournament committee will select the ten or twelve best players in each division, and The Nebraskan will be mailed to their homes. The names of these players, who will comprise the honor roll for the 1916 tourney, will be published next week in The Nebraskan.

"The idea of sending the college paper to the high school men is a splendid one, and should result in great good to the university," Dr. Stewart, the new coach, said yesterday afternoon. "It will help the men to become acquainted with their home state university, so that when they are thinking about going away to school, they will be drawn to Nebraska, because they will feel they know this school."

Guy Reed, manager of athletics, likes the plan of the staff as well as Dr. Stewart, and for the same reason.

The Nebraskan will also give away to the high school people, 100 copies of the school paper each day of the tournament. It is hoped that the high school folks will feel that the university is interested in them, and wants them to feel the warmth of the welcome the Nebraskan extends to all.

PATRIOTISM

A nation is made great, not by its fruitful acres, but by the men who cultivate them; not by its great forests, but by the men who use them; not by its mines, but by the men who work in them; not by its railways, but by the men who build and run them. America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made of it a great nation.

In 1776 our fathers had a vision of a new nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Without an army they fought the greatest existing world empires that they might realize this vision. A third of a century later, without a navy, they fought the greatest navy in the world that they might win for their nation the freedom of the seas. Half a century later they fought through an unparalleled civil war that they might establish for all time on this continent the inalienable right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. A third of a century later they fought to emancipate an oppressed neighbor, and victory won, gave back Cuba to the Cubans, sent an army of school masters to educate for liberty the Filipinos, asked no war indemnity from their vanquished enemy, but paid him liberally for his property. Meanwhile they offered land freely to any farmer who would live upon and cultivate it, opened to foreign immigrants on equal terms the door of industrial opportunity, shared with them political equality, and provided by universal taxation for universal education.

The cynic who can see in this history only a theme for his egotistical satire is no true American, whatever his parentage, whatever his birthplace. He who looks with pride upon this history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accepts with gratitude the inheritance which they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance unimpaired and to pass it on to his descendants enlarged and enriched, is a true American, be his birthplace or his parentage what it may be.

Lyman Abbott.

CHRISTIAN SCHOLARS, CHINA'S GREAT NEED

seizure of Cochin-China, the seizure of Port Arthur by the Russians, Wei Hai Wei by the English, and other foreign aggressions.

The result was the Boxer uprising. After that China changed her attitude and commenced her new era. In this work of rejuvenation the missionaries have had a prominent part, Dr. Verity said. China came to see that her ancient civilization could not sustain her. She felt that she needed a new educational system, and she took the missionary schools as a pattern form which to build one. The eastern nation is now determined to have a modern civilization.

The wonderful progress of her ancient rival, Japan, has astounded China, said the speaker. Now 20,000 of her young men go to Japan to learn the secret of the mikado's nation's power. The Chinese revolution is the united effort of her people to gain something that will save their country.

China's great needs in Dr. Verity's opinion, are men and women of great scholarship who are leading the Christ life, Christian doctors and nurses, and a more serious understanding by America and the rest of the world.

BOOKS ON TEACHING

So many university students become teachers that some books on teaching on the vocational shelf will probably be of interest. One volume of a series of books on vocations is given up to education, and contains among many others the following articles:

- Benson, "Personality of the Teacher."
- Brown, "The Successful Teacher."
- Child, "The Schoolmaster."
- Richardson, "Kindergarten."

Wilson, "Personal Factor in Education."

The following books also will be placed on the shelf:

- Benson, "The Schoolmaster."
- Boykin & King, "Tangible Rewards of Teaching."
- Brown, "Government by Influence."
- Gilchrist, "Mary Lyon."
- Palmer, "Alice Freeman Palmer."
- Palmer, "The Teacher."
- Phelps, "Teaching in School and College."
- Winship, "Great American Educators."
