THE SECOND STORY OF THE TEMPLE

The Daily Nebraskan is not ready at this time to propose a definite plan for a Student Union. The activities included in the various unions all over the country, the needs of the various schools as compared with our own, our present and prospective means, are all deserving of consideration, and are too complicated to permit quick action. It is improbable that a complete and definite plan can be agreed upon this year.

But one thing is certain: The Temple building can be turned over to student activities within a short time. We are at present in dire need of a place to hold University Mixers. They Gymnasium and Memorial hall combined make up a large barn that serves properly for size, but that is objectionable to sense of beauty. We are forced to use this combination, not because it is the proper place, but because it is all we have.

The Temple furnishes an adequate opportunity to remedy this evil. The second floor of the building, with the exception of the part occupied by the theatre, can be converted into a large hall. This would be capable of taking care of the Mixer crowds, and could even be used for class dances. All that stands in the way of this is the seeming desire of the university to obtain revenue from this building, given originally for the benefit of the students.

As the first step in the establishment of a union at Nebraska, therefore, we suggest converting the second story of the Temple into a large hall for the accommodation of university crowds.

FORUM

Editor Nebraskan:

The editorial in Monday's issue of The Nebraskan regarding the Temple will no doubt strike a responsive chord in many of the students and faculty. Ostensibly a place where universities activities might meet, this building has often been usurped by outside organizations. It has seemed on several occasions that preference was given these outsiders over those for whose benefit Rockefeller made his donation.

This condition was aptly illustrated three years ago when the intercollegiate debaters had to be content with the inferior accommodations of the chapel, because some city organization had been permitted, some six months previously, to reserve the theatre for the night on which was held our debate with the University of Illinois.

There is certainly a need for a genuine student meeting place.

NON COMPOS MENTIS

AIN'T IT-THE TURT?

During his courtship, a man spends all his time telling his girl how unworthy he is of her; and afterwards he spends all his time proving it.

"The Betas are looking forward to the baseball tournament for Freddie Klepser is warming up daily."

Dinners for Dr. Fling

(From the Omaha World-Herald, April 2. The black-face is ours.)

The complete list of dinners which will be given for Dr. Fred Morrow Fling previous to his lectures which are being given here at the city hall under the auspices of the Equal Franchise society, includes Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, April 4; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burke, April 11; Mr. and Mrs. Halleck Rose, April 18; Mrs. J. M. Metcalf, April 25, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dixon, May 2.

Hereafter all of the lectures will be given on Tuesday evening, and from now on the talks given by Dr. Fling will be very interesting, the one being given last Thursday being the sort of a lecture necessary to give the foundation points of such a series of talks planned by Dr. Fling. Both single and course tickets can be secured at Matthews book store and at Piel's drug store.

SOUR GRAPES

Isn't it funny, how all the studes, Return after vacation, all dressed up as dudes?

With "spifty" new suits and foxy new shoes;

It's enough to give us old rustys the blues!

WHEN A GUY FEELS LONELY

When a guy feels lonely,
When a guy feels blue;
There is one thing only
That a guy can do.

Go and get your cap, boy,
Go and get it quick;
Start out for the country,
And walk till the dusk is thick.

There you'll find the cure, boy,
If you're feelin' blue,
For you find yourself, boy,
And it's only the good that's true.

Ain't that pathootic?

If we have to cut up worms in zoo lab much longer, this column sure will be ruined.

DON'T BLAME US

"A social stunt in the nature of an indoor picnic will be held at the home of Miss Evelyn Caldwell, 1919 E street, on Saturday evening, April 8. The affair is under the auspices of the Congregational Christian Endeavor and all university students are invited."

"And then people wonder why news items are not printed "just like they were handed in!"
