ALPHA CHI OMEGA ENTERTAINS MOTHERS

Alpha Chi Omega entertained their mothers at the chapter house, Saturday afternoon. Phoebe Clara Hill gave a musical program, and tea was served. The guests were Mesdames Little, Williams, Jones, Hill, Yost, Black, Morgan, Jenkins and Carns, of Lincoln; Mesdames Marshall and Luckey of University Place; Mesdames Cusak and Castle of North Bend; Mrs. Homer, of Beatrice; Mrs. Busk, of Omaha; Mrs. Gerhardt, of Newman Grove, and Mrs. De Maranville, of Ravenna.

SILVER SERPENTS HOLD BANQUET

The annual banquet of Silver Serpent was held at the Lincoln hotel last evening. About thirty-five members were present, both active and honorary. A number of short toasts were given on various subjects.

Sigma Nu will hold its annual banquet Friday evening in Omaha at the Fontenelle. Besides all the members of the active chapter, a large attendance of Nebraska and Iowa alumni is expected.

Announcement has been made of the marriage which is to occur June 28 of Miss Helen Drake, '13, of Beatrice, and Mr. Harry Prouty, '11, of Lincoln. Mr. Prouty was a member of Phi Gamma Delta and very popular in school circles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Locke, of Stanton, Nebr., were guests of friends during the week-end. Mrs. Locke was formerly Miss Elsa Haarmann.

and conservation, instructional agronomy, dairy husbandry, electrical engineering, horticulture and commerce. Students who are unattached and who have special places of interest they would like to visit, can put themselves with any bunch they choose.

An example of an arranged tour which might be given here as a sample of what will be done on the trips. The journalism class tour is taken as representative of the others. All of the tours will be published in the special Omaha edition of The Daily Nebraskan which will be issued tomorrow.

The journalism itinerary: 9:30-10:15—Baker Bros. Engraving company.

10:15-11:30—Lninger Art gallery. 11:30-1:15—Packing houses (including luncheon).

1:45-2:30—The Omaha Daily News. 2:30-3:30—The Omaha Bee. 3:30-4:30—The Omaha World-Herald.

Then the journalism class will have hour of rest and will join all of the students at 5:30 for the big dinner.

A wide variety of places of interest is offered the students who make the trip. Big drug manufacturing houses known the country and world over will be taken in by the pharmacy group, and will in turn take in the embryo pharmacists. This class, together with the chemists, will visit the glycerine and soap factories at South Omaha.

Art Gallery Popular

The Lninger Art gallery has proved a popular place, for in addition to the journalists, art classes and the home economics classes have asked to be taken there. The public library, some of Omaha's finest private residences, the grain exchange, the M. E. Smith factory, the Iben Biscuit

Felice Fulton and Stella Mulligan of Beatrice were week-end visitors in Lincoln. They attended the Delta Gamma spring party and the Pan-Hellenic dance.

Mrs. Payson Treat, of Berkeley, Cal., grand president of Delta Gamma, left Sunday for Topeka, Kan., to visit at Washburn university.

Mrs. P. G. O'Brian of Kearney spent Sunday at the Phi Gamma Delta house.

Helen Johnston, '18, and Blanche Busk, '17, will spend the week-end in Omaha.

Miss Katherine Gould, of Omaha, has been visiting in Lincoln the last few days.

Miss Anne McCarthy, of Omaha, was the week-end guest of Florence Jenks, '17.

John S. McGurk, '15, of David City, was a recent visitor at the Delta Tau house.

Merrill V. Reed spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reed.

Mrs. Eva L. Miller, of Fremont, was a guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house this week-end.

Carl Harnsberger, '19, who has been sick for the past three weeks, returned to school yesterday.

William E. Kavan, '13, is a visitor at the Silver Lynx house.

John L. Cutright, '14, of Omaha, was a campus visitor yesterday.

company, the O'Brien Candy company, Skinner macaroni factory, the creameries, the packing houses and stock yards, the country clubs and suburban residence districts, the banks, the department stores, are only a few of the places it is planned to include in one or another of the many group tours.

Those who have come in contact with Mr. Parrish and felt the influence of the Omaha spirit he spreads about him, have not hesitated to vow to make the trip, be it by begging or borrowing the money, and (hush) even pilfering it from some of their other pleasures. As Dr. Wolfe so aptly expressed it the other day, "It means a world of fun at the price of fifty jitney movie shows."

BASEBALL HEADQUARTERS OPEN TO STUDENTS

Word has been received from Omaha that the baseball fans of the university will be welcome to hang their hats in the cigar store known to all Omahans as Baseball Headquarters. The store is located at 316 South Fifteenth street, and is convenient as a meeting place for all those who are interested in better sports.

Lincoln has its Ed Young's, and Omaha its Baseball Headquarters. Earl Higgins, the manager of the Omaha store, has had a special leased wire put in and he keeps his patrons posted on all the big league dope. He is making extensive preparation to entertain the visiting students next Friday, and will turn his store over to them for the day.

Why pay fancy prices when you can get the same quality for less at the Cincinnati Shoe Store, 142 No. 12th.
