

To the Students of the University of Nebraska

It is with great pleasure that we extend to you a most

Cordial Invitation To Visit Burgess-Nash Store, Friday, May 19th

Your trip to Omaha will not be complete without inspecting this splendid service store by a tour of its many departments. A special guide will be furnished to show you through the store, if you so desire.

To the Young Ladies:

OUR showing of suits, coats, costumes, waists, corsets, millinery, silks, shoes, gloves, neckwear, etc., is most beautiful and practical and an inspection will afford a pleasing and profitable entertainment.

The display of merchandise for Spring and Summer is very complete. In every section you will find exclusive creations and a profusion of novelties.

To the Young Men:

YOU will be particularly interested in our splendid lines of men's goods. We feature the very best lines of fine furnishings, including the "Sophomore"--the new college shirt with the attached turn down collar, quite the fad in Eastern colleges; strictly hand tailored clothing in the styles young college men like; Jas. A. Banister low shoes, with leather or Neolin soles, sporting goods of all kinds, Etc.

And then there is---

The Cricket Room

The best place in the City to secure a well cooked, splendidly served, dainty luncheon; soft drinks; ice cream; ices or candy. You'll enjoy the restfulness of this well appointed room.

Burgess-Nash Company

"Everybody's Store"

16th and Harney Streets - - - - - Omaha