

Summer School Nebraskan

VOL. I.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1916.

NO. 5.

PERSINGER TALKS AT CONVOCATION

HIS ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON BRAZIL WELL RECEIVED

First of Series of South American Lectures Illustrated with Lantern Slides

Prof. C. E. Persinger delivered the first of his South American lectures at convocation yesterday. The subject of the lecture was Brazil and lantern slides helped to make this one of the most interesting features of convocations this summer. The social and economic life of Brazil was described by the lecturer. This was the first of a series of lectures to be given by Professor Persinger this summer. On the remaining Tuesday convocations the following topics will be treated:

1. Uruguay and Argentina.
2. Chile.
3. Chilean-Peruvian Coast.
4. Lima, the Capital of Peru.
5. Peruvian Highlands and "Montana."
6. Ecuador, Colombia and the Canal.

The lectures are financed by the American Association for the Promotion of International Conciliation.

LARGE SUMMER ATTEND- ANCE AT TEMPLE HIGH

The Teachers' College High School has opened with an enrolment of 125 students. The school not only furnishes high school students with an opportunity for making up their studies, but opens a field to superintendents and supervisors for the study of problems in grading, promotion, classification of students as well as the principles underlying the study of supervision and criticism of instruction.

SIMMONS RETURNS FROM REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

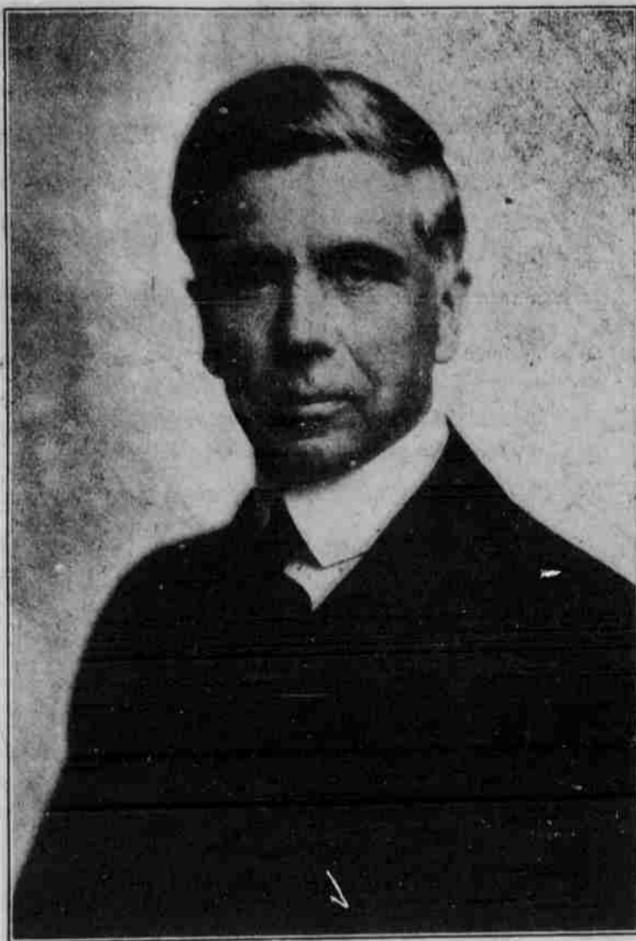

Robert G. Simmons, law '15, was in the city last night and this morning on his way from the republican national convention at Chicago to Gering, Nebr., where he is practicing law. Mr. Simmons was assistant sergeant-at-arms at the convention. He states that his duties were neither onerous nor remunerative.

Mr. Simmons is city attorney at Gering and republican candidate for county attorney of Scottsbluff county. He states himself fully in accord with the candidate and the platform adopted at the convention and prophesies a decisive republican victory next fall.

Frank A. Pipal, of the Botany department of Purdue university, came to Lincoln yesterday with his wife and son, Frank Bessey Pipal, for a short visit. Mr. Pipal is a graduate of the Botany department, A. B., '07, A. M., '11. The son was named in honor of the late Dr. Bessey.

WHO'S WHO IN THE SUMMER SCHOOL

Of the university faculty men, no one serves to bring the university more closely in contact with the people of the state than Prof. A. A. Reed, state inspector of accredited schools, nus, having received his A. B. from the university in 1898 and his A. M. in 1912. He has had wide experience in public school work, having served as teacher in the rural schools, as ward

A. A. REED, A. M.
State Inspector of Accredited Schools

professor of Secondary Education, head of the Teachers' Bureau and acting director of the department of University Extension.

Professor Reed is a Nebraska alum-principal at Beatrice, village principal at Odell, county superintendent of Gage county, city superintendent at Crete, high school principal at Keo-

(Continued on page 3)

PIANO RECITAL AT CONVOCATION TODAY

George Hrusa, a Student of Sevcik,
Entertains Students

In today's convocation program, a musical treat was offered to those who attended. George Hrusa gave a piano recital, accompanied by Miss Louese Misko, one of this year's graduates of the School of Music. Numbers from Chopin and Dvorak were features of the program.

Mr. Hrusa has studied under Professor Sevcik at Prague and Vienna. Professor Sevcik was also master of the famous Kubilek.

Mr. Hrusa is giving concerts over the state, accompanied by Miss Misko. They will be at Wilbur Saturday.

YELLOWSTONE PARK TO BE DESCRIBED FRIDAY

Mr. Wm. B. Leffingwell, of the Uni-

FOURTEEN GRADUATE FROM UNI SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Commencement Exercises Are Held
Tomorrow Night—Seventeen
Receive Certificates

The commencement exercises of the University School of Music are to be held tomorrow night at the Temple theatre. A short recital will be given and the diplomas presented to the graduates. Fourteen graduate from the school, seventeen receive teachers' certificates and ten complete courses preparing for supervisors of public music.

An alumni banquet was held last night, and tonight Director Kimball gives a reception to the graduates.

ted States Department of Public Instruction, will be here Friday night to deliver his lecture on the Yellowstone National Park. The lecture will be given in the Temple theatre and will be free of charge.

RURAL LIFE CONFER- ENCE MEETS TODAY

PROBLEMS OF RURAL SOCIAL LIFE TO BE DISCUSSED

Prominent Men Have Been Secured for the Meetings—Sessions Will Continue Ten Days

The Rural Life conference opened its sessions at the State Farm today. A ten days' program has been arranged, treating of the problems of the rural districts. The conference is conducted for persons interested in rural leadership, especially for ministers, grange officials, farmers and teachers. The purpose of the conference is to furnish information and inspiration for holding institutes, organizing farmers' clubs and establishing community institutions which will develop rural social life.

This is the first time that such a conference has been attempted at Nebraska, at least on so extended a scale. An elaborate program, lasting for ten days, has been worked up. Many men of note are to address the conference. Among these may be mentioned Chancellor Avery, L. S. Herron, editor Nebraska Farmer; C. J. Galpin, professor of department of Rural Sociology, University of Wisconsin; Professors Pugsley, Frandsen, Burnett, Howard, Chase and Condra, of Nebraska university. These men and many others of equal repute guarantee a program of great interest to all persons interested in rural problems.

FAMOUS NEBRASKA ALUMNUS GOES TO LELAND STANFORD

Prof. Alvin S. Johnson, '97, formerly professor of economics here and later professor of economics at Yale, was on the campus yesterday. Professor Johnson is one of the editors of the New Republic and will continue in this capacity next year. He is on his way to the Pacific coast, where he will take up his duties next year as professor of economics at Leland Stanford.

DR. HOWARD SPEAKS ON "THE NEW HUMANISM"

Dr. Howard repeated, at convocation, Monday, his address on "The New Humanism," which he delivered at mid-year commencement, last February. The students in attendance enthusiastically applauded the scholarly exposition of the new ideal of education presented by Dr. Howard. "The highest purpose of education," said Dr. Howard, "is preparation for citizenship."

There will be a meeting Saturday evening of the Bohemian students attending Summer Session. The Komensky club members attending the Summer School are in charge of the program, which will consist of Bohemian speeches and songs.