BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

Several superintendents and supervisors of Iowa entered the Summer Session this week.

Ralph Lahr, '17, left Tuesday for Ogden, Utah, where he will work for the Union Pacific railroad.

Professor Schramm, of the Geology department, returned Monday from a trip to the oil districts of Oklahoma.

Summer School students looking for work to pay for their board, apply at student activities office. Several jobs are open.

Professor Nicholson, former head of the Chemistry department, now a mining engineer, was a recent visitor on the campus.

J. B. Burnett, '16, of the Geology department, left Monday for Oklahoma, where he has a position with an oil company.

August Nordgren, '14, has returned to the university, where he will work for his master's degree in the department of Chemistry.

Prof. Mary Fossler, of the organic chemistry department, leaves today for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the summer with her mother.

Melvin H. Schlesinger, '16, has gone to Lake Okiboji for the summer. He will enter the University of California in the fall to take up advanced work in chemistry.

Ruth Grievish, ex-'15, has returned to Lincoln after taking work at the National Kindergarten college in Chicago. Miss Grievish will teach in the Lincoln schools next year.

The Cushman Motor Works is furnishing employment to several university students this summer. Among them are Paul Smith, Chas. France, John Kraus and W. J. Matousek.

The following places on the campus are intended as girls' rest rooms:
 The Y. W. C. A. room in the Temple; U. hall basement to the right of south steps; Memorial hall, southwest room, first floor.

Dr. Bliss Perry of Harvard, who gave the commencement address here here last week, also delivers the address at the commencement exercises of the University of Pennsylvania, Wednesday, June 21.

The city school system opened the summer session this week, and students in the study of supervision of elementary schools will have the privilege of visiting and studying the methods of this system during the summer session.

Prof. W. W. Cook, professor of law at the University of Chicago, who was formerly instructor in the department of American History and afterwards professor in the college of law at this university, has been appointed professor of law at Yale.

Prof. C. L. Burlingham, of the United States dairy division of the Department of Agriculture, has been inspecting work of Professor Propps, dairy extension agent for the state of Nebraska. Mr. Burlingham was extension agent here until last fall, but was recently promoted to his present position.
