Then let us not forget that we owe much to our student paper. It is a live wire. There is only one possible objection that could be raised regarding it and that is, that it comes too cheap. Now we are passing through the closing days of our work here. Next week our professors will take an inventory and close up the loss and gain account. Where do we stand in the accounts of the school? Do we have a large debit balance stacked up at Dean Engberg's office for collection? Or do we have a large credit balance on the books at the registrar's office? And above all have we laid in a rich store of experience which will enable us as we go out into our several fields, to mow a wider and cleaner swath?

To Insure Quick Disposal

The last week of July will be a week of special values here in Men's Clothing and Furnishings.

It seems almost a pity, under present market conditions, to cut prices on anything, but the clearance period is here and it's our rule to close out all broken lines, odd sizes, etc., at whatever price concession is necessary to insure quick disposal.

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS—

One lot of Kensington, Kuppenheimer and Kenmor Suits—broken lines from regular stock, including none but the most reliable qualities and good styles—now marked down for quick disposal.

$12, $13.20, $14.40, $16, $17.20, $20, $21.20, $22.40, $24 and $28

MEN'S FURNISHINGS—

Men's Shirts, Underwear, Wash Ties, Hosiery, etc.—broken lines and special lots purchased under value—at Clearance Prices.
