PITCHES AS IF HE HAD TIME TO BURN

EDDIE PLANK, VETERAN SOUTHPAW PITCHER.

"I have been pitching this way for 16 years," said Eddie Plank, when called to task the other day for stepping off the rubber before delivering the ball. Eddie's way is unique, however, as well as tiresome, in that he usually drags a game over two hours.

His endless delays fret the batters, but amuse the fans. The former Mackman's routine in delivery is approximately as follows:

Hitches belt, adjusts cap, walks back to box in half circle, faces batter and stretches arms, steps on rubber with left foot and taps right foot to ground eight times when the ball is delivered to batter, tucks in shirt with every third ball pitched, gazes into sky over third base on every called ball, dislodges imaginary pebble in pitcher's box every time batter has three balls and one strike or three and two.

SHERROD SMITH PLAYS GOLF

Disgusted Caddie Refers to Him as
"Some Woodpecker" When He Drives Ball Into Woods.

"Jack Coombs, Sherrod Smith, a newspaper man and I were playing a foursome on one of the Pittsburgh golf links the other day, and the caddie who had Smith in tow was greatly awed by his illustrious employer," said Nap Rucker, star southpaw of the Brooklyn Dodgers, the other day.

"There's a thick wood to the right of the first tee, and Smith, who swings left-handed, just as he pitches, hooked his first ball into the woods. He tried again. Once more he smashed the ball into the woods. In rapid succession he drove eight balls into the tall and uncut.

"The caddie was disgusted. He was no longer proud he was Sherrod Smith's caddie. Finally he could keep still no longer.

"Gee! Mr. Smith," he shouted; "you're some woodpecker!"

Big Little Man.

Albert Frank Gould, the Muscatine midget, is twenty-three years old. He stands only five feet six inches in height and weighs 155 pounds, thus being the shortest pitcher in the American league. But he is what is known as a "big little man," having a powerful pair of shoulders and stocky legs like those of a football player.

Pitcher Struck out 25 Men.
What is believed to be a record in baseball was made a few days ago when Pitcher Ewick of Crivitz, Wis., struck out 25 men in an 11-inning game with Marinette. Crivitz won by a score of 2 to 1.

NOTES of the DIAMOND

"Jack" Graney has begun to hit the ball again.

Oscar Stange's latest injury is a broken thumb.

The Cleveland club denies it is after Pitcher Joe Bush of the Athletics.

Elmer Myers of the Athletics, has learned a lot about pitching this season.

Because of the war in Europe the price of umpire's indicators has advanced.

Mike Mowrey, the veteran third baseman of the Dodgers, is playing a wonderful game.

Pacific Coast league batting averages show Bunny Brief leading home-run hitter of the league.

Dave Hickman will return to the Brooklyn Dodgers at the close of the North Carolina league season.

"Ferdie" Schupp has been a long time developing, but is finally rewarding McGraw for retaining him.

The Red Sox seem to get there in a pinch. They know how to play for one or two runs when they need them.

Harry Walter was one of the best hitters on the New York Yankees when Chance was manager of that team.

Washington has a Judge playing first base. Every time he falls down there is always a place on the bench for him.

The Cleveland club seems to have made a mistake in letting go of Elmer Smith, the youngster who hits the ball so hard.

Lena Blackburne, former White Sox favorite, has been named as successor to Joe Birmingham as head of the Toronto team.

President Johnson's orders against remarks from players from the bench is even more drastic than that of President Tamm.

Hank Robinson having demonstrated that he can pitch good ball, the St. Louis Cardinals decided to recall him from Little Rock.
