FIRST MIXER OF YEAR AT ARMORY SATURDAY NIGHT

WILL BE WELCOME PARTY FOR ALL FRESHMAN STUDENTS

Dancing Will Be a Feature—Many Stunts for Everybody—Refreshments Galore, 'Tis Said

The first all-University mixer of the school year of 1916-17 will be given at the armory this coming Saturday night, with a special invitation to the members of the freshman class, to be there. The others do not have to be invited specially—they know just what good times one can have at the big, everybody-goes-two-bit parties.

The decision to have the first mixer next Saturday evening was made by the mixer committee, which met at the call of Miss Graham in Faculty hall Tuesday noon. The committee, which was appointed by Chancellor Avery, is representative of every strong organization in the University, and its members pledged their most enthusiastic support to the mixer idea this year.

Preliminary plans for the Saturday night party, as suggested by different members of the committee, indicate that it will be one of the best joy-festivals of the fall. That anyone can go to it, and come away without having made many new friends and acquaintances among all the different classes, will be almost an impossibility.

Freshmen Wanted

While the mixer is open to all of the students, and all of them are expected to be there, it will be made the great occasion for the freshmen to get into the Nebraska spirit, and find out at first hand a little bit more about the things University life that do not appear in the curriculum—the fellowship of men and women who regard each other as equals, the kindness of the old student to the one who is here for the first time, the satisfaction of knowing that the members of the faculty are but human after all, the warmth of the old Nebraska spirit.

INVITE WILSON AND HUGHES TO UNI

Mass Meeting for that Purpose Called for Temple, 7:30 Tonight—All Students

A committee of Professor Howard's class in "Present Political Questions," has called a mass meeting of students at the Temple theater tonight at 7:30, to invite the two presidential candidates, Woodrow Wilson of the democratic party, and Charles E. Hughes of the republican party, to address the University students. Chancellor Avery has authorized the call in order to ascertain the wishes of the student body.

President Wilson has accepted an invitation of Omaha to be in that city October 5, during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, to witness the great historical pageant and parade. If prompt action is taken, it is thought that it will be possible to secure the president's presence in Lincoln to speak to the University students, and that is the purpose of the meeting tonight.

Mr. Hughes will also be in Nebraska before the election in November, and a similar invitation will be sent to him to address the students, if the mass meeting tonight so decides. The meeting will not last more than half an hour, and all who would like to hear the two candidates, women as well as men, are urged to get out and let their wishes be known.

University of Washington students who are in the national guard at American lake, will be mustered out October 2, according to the latest reports.—Exchange.

There will be a dance, that goes without saying, and the armory floor will be slicked to the first degree for the syncopated steps of the gliders. The dance will be an important part of the evening's fun.

But it will be an intermittent dance, with short intermissions for stunts by some of the best "home talent" on the campus—real interesting things that are going to rouse the audience, in the trite words of the press agent, to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

Refreshments, Too

Then there will be refreshments. The "eats," as even college students vulgarly dub them, will be satisfying to the most jaded palate, and there will be enough to go around—be the crowd however so large.

That's enough for the preliminary announcement. Except this—that as in the past, it will be a no-date party—the girls will go by their little lonesomes or with each other, and the man who tries to pair off is going to be a rare being. Last year the co-eds found that they had just a shade better time if they went unattached, and this year some of those who are most importuned for dates, have firmly declared that they will go without masculine accompaniment.

The mixer committee, as named by Chancellor Avery yesterday for the coming year, is as follows:

Faculty

Miss Mary Graham, Miss Lulu Runge, H. W. Caldwell, R. J. Pool, Searle Davis.

Student Women

Jean Burroughs, Louise, Coe, Mary Haller, Kate Helzer, Gladys Holland, Olive Lehmer, Eva Miller, Marion Reeder, Anne Russell, Mildred Weesen, May Youngson.

Student Men

Walter Campbell, G. O. Cast, Melvin Garrett, George Grimes, Steele Holcombe, Leonard W. Kline, Ted Metcalfe, Marcus Poteet, John Riddell, Raymond Saunders, Ralph Sturm, Rawson J. White.

MRS. RAYMOND IN ORGAN RECITAL AT CONVOCATION

Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, director of music at the University, will give one of her rare organ recitals at convocation tomorrow. It is usually a rather difficult matter to persuade Mrs. Raymond to appear, and the announcement of her recital will bring a large audience of music lovers, not only of University students, but of Lincoln folks as well.

Her program will be:

Prelude, B flat minor.....Bach
La Fille aux cheveux de Lin.....Debussy
Crescendo.....Lasson
Waldweben (Siegfried).....Wagner
Concert Overture.....Rogers

OLYMPICS TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 18

Contest Stated for State Farm Campus—New Stunts to Be Tried

The Olympics, the annual battle between the freshmen and sophomore classes for supremacy will be held on the morning of the Kansas game, November 18, it was decided at a meeting of the committee headed by Ralph Thiesen, yesterday.

The Olympics this year will probably be held on the state farm campus, on the new athletic field. The push ball, tag-of-war, wrestling and boxing matches will be used as before, and there will probably be a number of new stunts added to the list.

COLLEGE BOOK STORE, NOT PORTER'S, SELLS FRESHMAN CAPS

The College Book Store, and not Harry Porter's, as announced in The Daily Nebraskan yesterday, is selling the green freshman caps and toques. Mr. Long of the College Book Store, across the street from the campus, as well as Mr. Porter, has been an enthusiastic booster for Nebraska University. The caps will be on sale until every freshman's head is properly clothed.

AG. COLLEGE STOCK SQUAD ON TRIP

LEAVE THURSDAY FOR STUDY TRIP TO KANSAS TOWNS

Team Will Be Chosen Soon to Compete in Intercollegiate Judging Contests

The stock judging squad of the college of agriculture will leave for Kansas City on the Rock Island, Thursday evening at 5:50.

The men who will compose this squad are: R. N. Balister, G. A. Biotz, B. G. Hays, I. W. Hepperly, George Neuswanger, H. P. Morgan, M. B. Possen, N. H. Rhodes and D. U. Spohn. The team will be chosen from these men, after they have completed the practice work which they have scheduled for Friday and Saturday.

They expect to spend Friday inspecting the live stock of the Kansas state agricultural college at Manhattan. On Saturday they will judge animals from several beef herds around Kansas City and will probably visit the famous Longdale farm at Independence, Mo.

Experienced Men

The men who compose this squad are largely men who have had three or four years' experience in judging live stock and who are specializing in animal husbandry. They have been working under the personal supervision of Professor Gramlich of the animal husbandry department.

On Monday the men who have made the team, which is composed of five men, will enter the contest given under the rules of the Kansas City Royal Stock show. There will be at least five competing teams in this contest. They will come from Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Arkansas and Nebraska, with a possibility of one from Oklahoma.

Prizes Offered

There are ten individual prizes offered: A silver loving cup for each of the first four men, and $10 each for the next six men.

Nebraska will send a team to the Chicago Live Stock show, which will be held the week following Thanksgiving. There will also be some classes of live stock sent to this show.

ALUMNI STARS TO MIX WITH VARSITY

FULL-FLEDGED GAME ON NEBRASKA FIELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Rutherford, Chamberlain and Halligan Among Old Heroes Who Will Flash Again

Friday afternoon one of the big games of the year will be pulled off on Nebraska field when the varsity lines up against a team of old football heroes. They are real heroes, too, for there is not a one of them but what during his stay on the team was a real star.

First and best remembered are Rutherford and Chamberlain, the famous half-back and end of the last two or three years. Then there is "Vic" Halligan, who was on Walter Camp's third all-American team—a year after he quit playing. Then there

OPPORTUNITY FOR GRADUATE OF SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The dean of the graduate school of education has just received a request from a sister state university for a first class man to have charge of the department of education. This is an unusually desirable position for the right man. The only requisite mentioned is that he must have completed his graduate work in education.

WILSON BOOSTERS CALL MEETING

ASK FRIENDS OF PRESIDENT TO HELP FORM CLUB FOR HIM

Forty-two Sign Call for Organization Meeting in Temple Theater Tonight

The Woodrow Wilson meeting will be held at the Temple theater tonight at 8 o'clock, immediately after the mass meeting of all students, to issue an invitation to President Wilson and Candidate Hughes to come to Lincoln to address the University students.

The call for the Woodrow Wilson meeting is announced on posters spread upon the campus today, headed "Peace and Prosperity," and asking "Are You for Wilson?"

NEBRASKA BAND MUST GO TO OREGON; AND IT WILL

SPECIAL TRAIN CHARTERED BY GUY REED, ATHLETIC MANAGER

Round Trip Tickets $60—Two Half-Day Stops—Daily Concerts Will Be Given

The Nebraska University cadet band—the best university band in the United States, is going to Oregon with the football team. Guy E. Reed, manager of athletics, yesterday chartered a special train to take the band, the team, and the rooters who can make the trip, to the western coast.

The band must go—that seems to be the general sentiment at the University and among the business organizations of Lincoln and Omaha. It is felt that if the students will only give their hearty support, if they will buy 2,000 tickets for the dance at the auditorium October 13, the trip will be assured.

A little bit about the trip. It is planned to have the special train leave Lincoln over the Union Pacific, and return to this city by way of the Northern Pacific, touching all of the scenic points en route.

Half-Hour Concerts

The feature of the trip, however, will be two half-hour concerts by the band each day, at towns en route. The special train will be stopped at probably seventeen or eighteen towns on the going and the return trip, and the advertisement that will be given Nebraska University by the appearance of the band at these towns is self-evident.

The trip will not be mainly one of boosting and beating the Oregon agricultural college team when the two clash on the Portland field Saturday, October 21, however. A half-day will be spent at Astoria, Ore., a town on the shores of the Pacific ocean, and another half-day will be spent in Glacier national park, one of the wonder-beauty spots of the world.

Guy Reed has announced that all students who expect to make the western jaunt with the team should see him today. By special arrangement with the railroad companies, Reed has made it possible for the students to secure round trip tickets for the trip at a cost of only $60, providing the tickets are secured this week. The special rate cannot be made after the last day of September, which falls on Saturday. So it behooves those who are counting upon going west to see Guy Reed at once and make their reservations. The ordinary fare going and returning, is approximately $100, so by a little foresight the rooters who will go can save themselves about $40.

Special Dance Music

The band yesterday began practice of special dance music for the auditorium festival on the night of October 13. The music that will be played for the party will include all of the latest dance pieces—played as only the best university band in the country can play them.

Tickets for the party go on sale today—everywhere one dollar. The College Book Store, Harry Porter's, campus salesmen, fraternity men, non-fraternity men, bunches of tickets will be placed in the hands of each, and the sales campaign will be boosted hard every day during the next two weeks. Two thousand tickets must be sold—that is the feeling of the sponsors of the plan to take the band to Oregon.

Coach Stewart, who was at the Oregon agricultural college for five years and knows what is what on the coast, says that the Aggie band is the best coast musical organization. It is so good that last year for the 1915 San Francisco exposition, their managers of the great world's fair brought the band to San Francisco, paying all expenses, just to have it for one of the musical attractions at the fair grounds.

Nebraskans Best

And yet Stewart has enough confidence in the Nebraska band to believe that the two playing against each oth-

MISS SHAKERIAN TO STUDY DANCING UNDER PAVLOVA

Marguerita Shakerian, former University student, who went to New York to dance before Pavlova, has written to friends on the faculty of her experiences in the east.

Miss Shakerian has a brilliant future, according to critics who have seen her dance. She was taken to the Studio club in New York, and is living there, according to her letter. She says that she has seen Pavlova and will begin her work next Monday, and have three lessons a week from then on.

FINE ART DEPARTMENT HAS LARGE ENROLLMENT WITH MUSIC COURSES

Rabbi Jacob Singer, new assistant professor of theory and history of music, comes to the music and fine arts department with the increased importance given to music in the University curriculum.

A new course in beginning harmony has been started, as well as one in the history of music. This work will be required of all students who wish to take the bachelor of music degree. There are already about fifty students enrolled in the courses. They are open to all students registered in the arts and sciences college.

The department of fine arts is larger this year than it was ever before, with about 200 enrolled in drawing and painting and about 325 in elocution and dramatics and music courses.

150 NEW MEMBERS JOIN GIRLS' CLUB

First Day of Membership Campaign Adds to List—Two Days More to Get Candidates

Twenty-two campaigners for the girls' club—the big democratic organization of University girls—started at noon yesterday to canvass the University for members, and from the reports turned in at Miss Graham's office at 5 o'clock last evening 150 new members were added to the roll between the hours of 1 and 5 o'clock. Red and white tags bearing the words "Show Nebraska Spirit—How? Join the Girls' Club Now," are given to all joining during the campaign.

The following girls will be on the campus today and tomorrow, ready to take membership subscriptions and to tag all who wish to join the club: Marguerite Kauffman, Valentine Minford, Helen Schwab, Ethel Hartly, Winifred Moran, Hermine Hatfield, Helen Kendall, Katherine Kohl, Fern Longacre, Pearl Mawhinny, Edna Ogden, Melba Quigley, Harriet Ramey, Dorothy Rhodes, Edith Youngblut, Virginia Chapin, Vera Ellison, Florence Wirt, Kate Helzer, Bertha Driftmeir.

The Nebraska state historical society has just received the first seven numbers of the Nebraska Visitor, published at Gibbon, Neb., in 1881 and 1882. These numbers contain a series of articles by Rev. John M. Taggart on "Early Baptist Mission Work in Nebraska." The papers were donated to the society by Mrs. Jeannette M. White of Omaha, a daughter of Rev. Taggart.
